Weather Found Not To Blame for Cold

Park Forest, Ill. — (UPI) — When Laverne Larson and his two sons became so cold in their home they had to don sweaters and even overcoats to stay warm, he blamed it on unseasonably cold weather.

It wasn't until the three were leaving to spend the night in a friend's home, much warmer, that he discovered his water pipes were frozen. Then he learned that a playmate of his 13-year-old son had turned the air conditioner control to 30 degrees.

Minister Tells Of 'Warmups' on $64,000 Question

Tullahoma, Tenn. — (UPI) — A minister who won big money on television quiz shows said today he never was asked a question he had not answered in pre-show warmups.

But, the Rev. C. E. (Stoney) Jackson Jr. said the shows he appeared on, "The $64,000 Question" and "The $64,000 Challenge" were "very saintly compared to what I read about on some of those other shows."

Jackson won $16,000 on "The $64,000 Question" and $4,000 on "The $64,000 Challenge."

Jackson, a minister of the Christian Church, said he was asked questions before some of the shows.

"They never told me what they were going to ask me on the show."

"They just asked me about 50 questions beforehand and if I missed 15 they'd never ask me one of the 15. I never got a question that I hadn't already answered."

Jackson said he thought "the shows I was on were far more subtle than the ones I've been reading about since this came up in Washington. Those $64,000 shows were very saintly by comparison."

Got Cold Shoulder
Jackson said he reached the $16,000 level on the $64,000 Question "and then suddenly I couldn't get anyone to talk to me. They were all friendly before that and I had grown to like them but they were giving me the cold shoulder."

He said he "got the message... you're through." He said "they knew my weaknesses. They knew the questions I couldn't answer. And when they want you off the show"

Bird in Hand Worth Two in Bush

Portland — (UPI) — A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. So says Robert Vernon Luce, holding a pheasant in his hand.

Luce got the rooster without firing a shot when it flew in the window of his southeast Portland home Tuesday — perhaps escaping from hunters.

Sheriff's officers checked with the Game Commission. Luce kept the bird.

Hazing Probe Decision Awaited

Los Angeles — (UPI) — A decision is expected in a week on whether the Grand Jury will investigate the fraternity hazing death of a University of Southern California student.

Frank N. Rush, the chairman of the jury's Criminal Complaints Committee, said it would take that long to sift new information submitted Tuesday by the boy's father and brother, Drs. Arthur and Lloyd Swanson.

Richard Swanson, 21, died Sept. 17 at the Kappa Sigma fraternity house when he choked on a piece of raw liver he was attempting to swallow as part of the hazing ritual.
