Southern Oregon Slates Oregon Tech at Ashland

Ashland - Southern Oregon college plays its first home game of the current football season Saturday night as host to Oregon Tech at Fuller field.

SOCs Red Raiders won their first game of the season last week when they defeated Portland State 12-7 to put there in a first place conference with Tech's Owls.

The Raiders will be in a hobbled situation again this week with backs Punk Biddington and Eldon Francis still nursing sore legs.

Raider coach Al Akins will be going with that same lineup this week. Allen Barnes at fullback and Jack Brown at quarterback will fill out the backfield.

The SOC-OTI fracas will also pit the two leading fullbacks in the conference in a battle that should give both players equal opportunity to pack the ball.

Barnes of the Raiders and Stan Glass of Oregon Tech have been top ground gainers at their positions and the one with the most impressive performance Saturday could be eventually go on and win the OCC all-star fullback of the year.

The Owls of OTI have been the arch rivals of the Raiders. Last year the Owls had to forfeit all of their games and two seasons ago the Raiders scored a come from behind win to eventually go on and win the OCC crown.

Coach Rex Hunsaker has said the Owls are really banged up and down in spirit for the game. But after OTI's win with ease, 26-7, over Eastern Oregon college the Raiders are preparing for anything that might be offered.

Tickets for the game may be arranged for by calling MU 2-4611 in Ashland. Assistant to the president, Don Lewis, has high hopes for a top flight turnout for the game. Five sets of bleachers have boosted the seating capacity.

Mounting Interest in Grid Fray

Portland - Interest was mounting here today in Saturday's inter-sectional football battle between Air Force and Oregon, two of the nation's unbeaten, unified football powers.

About 4,000 reserved seat tickets remained for the game which will be played starting at 1:30 p.m. in Multnomah stadium.

Oregon had ran over four opponents so far while Air Force has defeated Wyoming, Trinity and Idaho.

The Air Force team has not lost in 14 straight games. Last year the Falcons tied Iowa and then won all their games before being Texas Christian in the Cotton Bowl.

In Ritchie Mayo, Air Force has one of the nation's top passers. He has 34 completions in 53 passes this year. The Webfoots are hopeful that fullback Dave Powell, injured in the Washington State game, will be back in harness for Saturday's important clash.

Sebo Selected Coach of Week

Philadelphia - Quiet, soft spoken and mild mannered was his trademark, even when the slings and arrows of disappointment dug deepest.

Quiet, soft - spoken, mild mannered, with modesty added, is his trademark now, with his most successful season in six years rapidly growing.

He is Steve Sebo, who was named today the United Press International football Coach of the Week—the same likeable little guy who sweated out the disillusionment at the University of Pennsylvania in the dreary days when Penn stripped its football of any vestige of power bending backward to Ivy league demands.

He is the Coach of the Week because his road-back team, unbeaten, untied, unscored on, upset Princeton Saturday, 18-0, one short week after it topped defending Ivy champion Dartmouth.

Ducks Practice Pass Defense

Eugene - The Oregon Webfoots turned to defense today after spending most of Tuesday working on their ground game and aerial attack.

Coach Len Casanova said the Webfoots would concentrate mainly on pass defense today because this has been the squad's chief weakness in the four games it has played to date. Casanova said the Ducks would meet the best passing team in the nation this Saturday when they take on the Air Force academy in Portland.

A method of using sound waves to stimulate the flow of oil wells has been patented. The acoustic vibrations can actually shatter rock.

Rams Rate Edge Over Green Bay

By EARL WRIGHT United Press International The Los Angeles Rams are three-point favorites to smash the National Football league's only remaining perfect record Sunday when they tackle the Green Bay Packers at Milwaukee.

Los Angeles is favored although it dropped two of its first three games while Green Bay, surprise team of the campaign, swept its first three starts.

In another key Western division game, the champion Baltimore Colts (2-1) are slim, one-point choices for their game with the Bears (1-2) at Chicago. The Lions (0-3) are favored over the San Francisco Forty-Niners (2-1) by two points at Detroit in the other Western Division clash.

The New York Giants are Sunday's heaviest favorites. They are 6 1/2 point choices to whip the Eagles at New York although they took a 49-21 walloping from the Eagles two weeks ago at Philadelphia.

Steelers-Redskins Even New York, Philadelphia and the Washington Redskins are tied for the Eastern division lead with 2-1 records. The Redskins and Pittsburgh Steelers (1-2) are rated even for their game at Washington. In the other Eastern division pairings, the Browns (1-2) are 4 1/2 point choices to beat the Chicago Cardinals (1-2) at Chicago.

Green Bay has been winning with a good defense that has allowed only 36 points, an average of 12 a game, in defeating the Bears, Lions and Forty-Niners.

The Rams, who feature long-range offensive power, are favored over Green Bay although Bill Wade, their No. 1 quarterback, has a knee injury which may hamper him. Wade likes to fire long passes to Jim Phillips and Del Shofner. Jon Arnett, his other top target, is injured. The Packers also must stop Ollie Matson, who cracked the Bear line for 199 yards during a 28-21 Ram triumph last Sunday.

Best Offensive Play Predicted For OSC Eleven

Corvallis - Coach Tommy Prothro said today he expected his Oregon State Beavers to make their best offensive showing of the season against Idaho this week end.

He said his club was not making as many mistakes as it had in the past, and should come out with a victory this Saturday if the offensive attack continues to improve. Prothro said tailback Earl Hardin, out with an injury, would probably miss the Idaho contest.

HOCKEY AMERICAN LEAGUE

United Press International The Cleveland Barons finally scored their first victory of the new American Hockey league season Tuesday night at the expense of the Quebec Aces.

Led by Ed Hoekstra and Bob Bailey, the Barons downed Quebec, 5-2, after suffering through two defeats and one deadlock in their first three games. It was the fourth defeat in five games for the Aces.

McElhenny May Miss Lion Football Mix

Milwaukee, Wis. - Coach Red Hickey of the San Francisco Forty Niners said today that halfback Hugh McElhenny would probably miss the Detroit game this Sunday although he has been running as well as ever.

McElhenny, who suffered a broken hand against the Rams 11 days ago, worked out for the first time Tuesday, with no apparent ill-effects. However, Hickey said he would probably keep his ace flanker-back out of the Lions tilt "just to play it safe."

In the good news department, X-rays showed that defensive halfback Jerry Mertens has nothing more serious than a shoulder pointer. Mertens was hurt in the Green Bay game last Sunday.

"We've got our usual bumps and bruises," Hickey said after Tuesday's workout. "But everyone who faced the Packers should be able to play at Detroit Sunday."

The Forty Niners spent Tuesday reviewing offensive plays. The club will continue to work out here through Friday, then leave for Detroit the following day.

Idaho Vandals Develop Attack

Moscow, Idaho - (UPI) - The Idaho Vandals concentrated on developing their offensive attack Tuesday.

The Vandals, still hampered by injuries, meet Oregon State at Corvallis this week end. Both clubs have still to win a game this season, and the Vandals are still looking for their second touchdown, having suffered three shut-outs.

Coach Skip Stahley said tackle Ron Ismael would miss the OSC contest because of an ankle injury. He said end Jim Norton might also miss the game because of a twisted ankle.

Red Hat Pledge Stress Urged

Salem - (UPI) - Dan Allen, executive secretary of the state natural resources committee, said today the mounting toll of accidents and fatalities among hunters this season was "grim evidence of the need for all hunters to know, understand and practice the Red Hat days pledge."

The Red Hat campaign is one urging hunters to be law abiding, respectful of property and to be careful with fire and firearms. Allen noted that Oregon's program for safety was a voluntary one, but said some other states require all hunters to pass a hunter safety course before receiving a license.

"During the first 10 days of the 1959 hunting season, no fatalities directly chargeable to hunting accidents were reported," Allen said. "This year, however, Oregon nimrods seem determined to set an all-time record with their assault upon human life, with seven persons killed and 16 injured to date."

Newcomer Lee Faces Williams

Houston, Tex. - (UPI) - Curley Lee, the brash newcomer from Los Angeles, puts his fast-moving drive for a shot at the world heavyweight crown on the line tonight in a match with dangerous Cleveland Williams.

The 210-pound Williams was a slight favorite going into tonight's battle, but some observers said this was only because the "big cat" was better known here than Lee. Reports from the West Coast indicate the 22-year-old Lee is considered by some as the best sleeper bet to clout his way to a world heavyweight challenge.

STUDY BOWLING BIDS

Milwaukee - (UPI) - The American Bowling congress meets here Saturday to study bids from five cities for the 1963 tournament. Milwaukee, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, St. Paul and Philadelphia are seeking to hold the tourney.

Purchased to report in the spring were infielders Jim Woods, Sam Drake and Ken Hubbs, outfielders Lou Johnson, Meredith Morhardt and Nelson Mathews, and pitcher Dick Burwell.
