Area Residents Attend Meeting

Seven persons from Jackson county attended the annual meeting of the Oregon division of the American Cancer society in Portland recently.

They were Dr. Earl Lawson, a member of the state board of directors; Dr. Orval Eaton, vice president of the Jackson county unit; Mrs. Jack James, Jackson county educational co-chairman; Mrs. Ray Frisbie, Jackson county service chairman; Mrs. Mary Reymers, executive secretary; Mrs. Marian Parsons, Medford high school senior; and her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Parsons, Medford.

The group heard Sen. Richard L. Neuberger speak at the annual dinner Friday night. Miss Parsons was a delegate to a meeting which planned an organization of "Teens Against Cancer" groups in all sections of the state.

CHURCH MAKES PROFIT

London (UPI)—The Church of England, a top investor in British industry, made a "paper" profit of about $42 million in the stock market boom that accompanied the Conservative Party election victory, it was reported Sunday.

An average thunderstorm may release 50 times as much power as the first atomic bomb.

The Medical Roundup

by Walter Alvarez

The Greatly Handicapped Child

In the Journal, IPMR, published by the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, New York University and Bellevue Medical Center, New York City, there are some touching, tender pictures of blind and emotionally disturbed children, written by Virginia Axline. With Dr. Chester Swinyard, she has been studying some 50 such children in the Institute. It often takes much study to learn just how to help these children to adjust to the terrible problems of life without eyes or hearing or a good brain. The Institute has set

Case Completed In Federal Court; No Decision Yet

Final testimony was heard Friday afternoon by U. S. District Judge John F. Kilkenny in federal court here in the case of Hugo C. Johnson, Sah Jose, Calif., against John Bakshas, Grants Pass.

Final arguments were heard at 3 p.m., which closed the fall session of federal court in Medford. The suit concerned an alleged partnership in the Home Gas company, Grants Pass.

Following the cross-examination of the defendant himself one additional witness, B. K. Herndon, Grants Pass, testified for the defendant.

Rebuttal witness called by the plaintiff included the plaintiff himself and Otto Johnson, Grants Pass, of the Economy Market and former partner of Bakshas. Called by the defendant's counsel to testify as an "adverse witness" was one of the plaintiff's attorneys, H. H. Phillips, Portland.

More than 45 exhibits were entered during the 3 1/2 day trial.

Eight witnesses were called by the plaintiff during the trial and five persons testified for the defendant.

Phillips and William F. Johnson, Grants Pass, were attorneys for the plaintiff. Defense attorney was Hubert Johnson, Grants Pass.

Judge Kilkenny has not returned a verdict in the case.

Second Kassem Plot Uncovered

Baghdad, Iraq (UPI)—Iraqi authorities have uncovered a second attempt to kill Premier Abdel Karim Kassem, target of assassins' bullets last week, Maj. Gen. Ahmad Salim al Abdi reported.

Al Abdi, military governor of Baghdad, also charged that President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic "concentrated troops along Iraq's borders before the daring daylight attempt on Kassem's life Oct. 7."

He also said a "Syrian infiltrator" was arrested with "75 dynamite sticks and other destructive and explosive material" by authorities after the attack on Kassem.

SP Freight Cars Derailed Saturday

Red Bluff, Calif. (UPI)—Nine freight cars were derailed from a Southern Pacific train here early Saturday.

No injuries were reported and no crossings were blocked in the pile-up.

Authorities said the south-bound freight train's accident was caused by an overheated bearing in one of the wheels. The nine cars that jumped the tracks were located toward the rear of the 88-car train.

An annual "January thaw" is mentioned in New England records as early as 1798.
