

ON DISPLAY—The 1960 Mercury is now on display at Medford Motors, Inc., 225 South Riverside ave. Shown above is the Montclair four-door cruiser hardtop. The new Mercury's smooth ride is the result of the blending of body, frame, suspension, engine and transmission into a completely road-tuned car. Two-barrel carburetors increase economy of the low-friction V-8 engines. Mercury's spacious interiors with lowered transmission and drive shaft tunnel afford comfort for six passengers. Thirteen models in four series are available.

Caesar Show Offered Laughs But Disappointed the Reviewer

By FRED DANZIG

United Press International
New York—UPI—This has been quite a week for the TV tube.

Monday night we had Frank Sinatra, Bing Crosby and Dean Jagger; Tuesday night, Ingrid Bergman, and Wednesday night, comedy with Sid Caesar and his guests, Tony Randall, Audrey Meadows and Gisele Mackenzie.

It was nice to have Sid back. There were a number of solid laughs during the CBS-TV hour, but frankly, I was disappointed. The major effort of the evening was a half-hour sketch about an immigrant who becomes a great automobile maker. Basically, this sketch, with Caesar playing Anton Polka, the immigrant, and Tony Randall his American-born son, was warmed-over Caesar skits of TV shows gone by. The inventiveness we've come to expect from Caesar was generally absent. I spotted only one special touch: Caesar is slicing his dinner—a chunk of "boiled bread"—and he asks his wife, Audrey Meadows, if she'd like an outside cut.

The opening sketch had more laughs in it. Caesar, as the driver on a cross-country trip, was wildly funny portraying a man siphoning gasoline and eating while driving. Randall was excellent in his sketch and all evening long.

The show was titled "Holiday On Wheels," and was deicated to the automobile industry, but there was no bite in it. There were no spoofs of such automotive fetishes as size, design and salesmanship, unfortunately. Since CBS network is on a "tell the viewer everything" kick, I'd like to say that the show was taped in New York last August and not on the open road. Miss Mackenzie's singing was pre-recorded, and the "gasoline" that Caesar "swallowed" wasn't really.

Dialing and Filing: Wasn't Charley Weaver's Hobby Lobby, on ABC-TV Wednesday night, risking a "riggin" investigation when Weaver Cliff Arquette went flying over the state attached to the mechanical aids of guest Peter Foy? Weaver's show is at its best when Charley gets a chance to comment on the props his guests bring along.

A touching contrast on NBC-TV's Perry Como show: Guest Rosemary Clooney came on in a full-length mink coat, bearing a French poodle and a flashing ring. A few minutes later, Rosie went into her song "I Got Plenty of Nothin'."

Men in Space on CBS-TV passed up an effective, dramatic death-in-space ending Wednesday night in favor of the usual lippy-happy note.

The Channel Swim! Debbie Reynolds has signed a three-year exclusive contract with ABC-TV. She'll star in three hour-long specials, one a year, and appear as a guest star on at least one other ABC-TV special.

Ray Bolger will co-star with Jimmy Durante, Jane Powell and Eddie Hodges in NBC-TV's special, "Give My Regards To Broadway," on Sunday, Dec. 6. Actor Hal Holbrook, who specializes in impersonating Mark Twain, is video-taping an adaptation of Twain's "Roughing It" for Robert Saudek Associates for possible network use next spring. On the subject of Twain, Robert Herridge is producing a three-part version of "Huckleberry Finn" as part of his new half-hour drama series for CBS.

It will be Masquerade Party, with Bert Parks as emcee, into the Monday night CBS-TV slot vacated by Name That Tune. Diana Lynn, Mary Astor and Gig Young will star in NBC-TV's adaptation of "The Philadelphia Story" on Monday, Dec. 7, the second in the special tonight series.

MIDWIFE FOR SCIENTISTS
London—UPI—Viscount Hailsham, the head of the newly created Ministry of Science, was asked Wednesday what his new duties entailed: "I regard myself as a midwife for the scientists," he replied.

POLICE NAME TAGS
Minneapolis, N.Y.—UPI—Nassau county plans to pin name tags on its 2,000-member police force this month to aid the public in identifying policemen.
