Natural Resource Planning Urged

Enterprise – (UPI) – Rep. Al Ullman (D-Ore.) spoke here Tuesday on the theme of natural resources. He declared that the United States must meet its resource responsibilities as "Teddy Roosevelt and Gifford Pinchot did at the turn of the century."

Ullman, a member of the House Interior and Insular Affairs committee, said "we desperately need new guide lines and a new and revitalized national policy if we hope to wisely conserve what remains. The mid-century re-evaluation of American resource policies is long overdue."
