Grants Pass – Grants Pass held Crater high with its back to the wall through the penalty-filled second half and tallied two touchdowns in the fourth quarter in a 28 to 13 Southern Oregon conference football decision over the Comets here Friday night.

The Cavemen thereby took over second place alone in the loop standings with their second win in three games. It was the second loss for the Comets in the loop. This was th only District 6 A-1 ruckus on Friday.

First and third periods of the scuffle were scoreless.

Larry Jansen scored for GP in the second quarter on a four yard run and Oscar Nealy kicked the extra marker. The Cavemen next got two points on a safety when a Crater pitchout went astray and the home team's Jere Patterson knocked the ball out of the end zone. A Rex Benner to Jim Purkett pass made the count 15 to 0.

Crater then mounted a 55-yard march with a Gary Johnson to Tom White pass making 25 yards. Loyal Higinbotham ran the bonus for 15 to 13 GP at halftime.

Nealy scored for the GP club on a four-yard run and the Climate City team got its last touchdown on a Benner to Purkett pass for five yards.

Billy Hunter Halts Anthony

New York – (UPI) – Heavyweight contender Billy Hunter, who changed his style from boxer to slugger in order to stop china-chinned Tony Anthony Friday night, gets another TV fight at Madison Square Garden on Nov. 27.

The opponent for "Sweet" Billy of Detroit will be contender Alex Miteff of Argentina, whom Hunter coincidentally stopped in the seventh round at Syracuse, N. Y., on Sept. 25. Many thought that victory a fluke.

Tall Billy scored a technical knockout over New Yorker Anthony at 1:04 of the seventh round in the Garden Friday night after belting him woozy in every round but the fourth. None of the three ring officials gave Tony more than a round.

Huskies Squeeze 13-12 Victory On Interceptions

By HOWARD APPLEGATE
United Press International

Portland (UPI) – One-eyed quarterback Bob Schloredt, a transplanted Oregonian, led Washington to a 13-12 victory over previously unbeaten Oregon Saturday to put his Hiskies in front in the race to the Rose Bowl.

Schloredt scored one touchdown, helped set up another and intercepted an Oregon pass in the end zone to halt a last-period Webfoot drive.

A conversion by Washington halfback George Fleming after Washington's second touchdown provided the winning margin.

Fleming teamed with Schloredt on a 29-yard pass play in the third quarter to help set up the winning touchdown. Halfback Don McKeta scored from four yards out to climax a 64-yard, 7-play drive.

A crowd of 36,327, one of the largest ever to see a football game here, watched Oregon take an early 12-0 lead and apparently head for its sixth straight victory.

But an alert Washington defense, which intercepted four Oregon passes, and a steady rain which fell throughout the second half, slowed the Webfoot attack.

Scores on Interception

Washington scored its first touchdown late in the first half after McKeta intercepted a Dave Grosz pass on the Oregon 41. Nine plays later Schloredt boomed over from one yard out.

Oregon went 78 yards on the ground after the opening kickoff to score first. Dave Powell made the touchdown from a yard out, but a bad pass from center spoiled the extra point try.

A 33-yard pass interference penalty gave Oregon the break it needed for its second score. Grosz passed 12 yards to Greg Altenhofen for the score. The Webfoots tried for two points on the conversion, but a pass failed.

Schloredt, who lost an eye in a childhood accident at his Gresham home, played nearly the entire game. He also recovered an Oregon fumble on his own 19 early in the fourth period to halt another Webfoot drive.

Washington has now won five out of six, losing only 22-15 to fourth-ranked Southern California. Oregon has an identical record. It was the tenth victory for Washington in its last eleven games with Oregon.

Bulldog Eighth Tops South GP

McLoughlin topped North Grants Pass 12 to 0 Friday in eighth grade grid contention between the two junior high schools.

The Bulldogs tabulated in the first quarter on a pass, Pete Hinman to Steve Ettles for five yards and in the second quarter on a 60-yard romp by Mike Barnes. He reversed his field to bust away on the sparkling dash. Later, Barnes scampered 50 yards to the goal but an infraction nullified the run.

Don Coltraine, Bob Edmonds and Barnes led the Bulldogs on defense.

TCU Tops Pitt 13-3

Pittsburgh, Oct. 24 (UPI) – Sophomore halfback Marv Lasater ripped off six big gains, made a touchdown-saving tackle and scored in the fourth period Saturday to lead Texas Christian to a 13-3 victory over Pittsburgh.

Pitt took a 3-0 lead in the first few minutes of play on senior guard Norton Seaman's 40-yard field goal but the Panthers ran into nothing but frustration from there on.

TCU took command the first time it had possession of the ball and marched 61 yards in 13 plays with fullback Jack Spikes hurdling the middle of the Pitt line for the first Horned Frog score.

Lasater, who carried 14 times for 102 yards, applied the clincher in the final period by racing eight yards with a handoff for another touchdown.

Although shaky at times, the TCU defense held strong in the clutch to stop two Pitt drives deep in Horned Frog territory.

Wisconsin In 12-3 Win

Madison, Wis. – (UPI) – Wisconsin's hard-charging linemen contained Ohio State handily Saturday and the Badgers scored in every possible fashion for a 12-3 triumph to move into a tie for second place in the tight Big Ten football race.

It was Wisconsin's first win over the Buckeyes in 13 years.

Dale Hackbart rambled seven yards for Wisconsin's only touchdown, but the Badger hero was tackle Danny Lanphear, who blocked a punt to set up a safety, and then led the tacklers on nearly every play thereafter.

Lanphear, aided by linebacker Jerry Stalcup, eliminated Ohio State's biggest offensive threat, fullback Bob White, an all-American last year, with a jarring tackle early in the second period. White, who missed most of the Buckeye's earlier games due to a leg injury, suffered a shoulder separation on the play and was out of action th rest of the afternoon.

Rain drenched the field before the game and continued for most of the contest, soaking the 55,400 fans who turned out. The Badgers scored all of their points in the first 30 minutes and were content to stay on the defensive the rest of the way.

Quarterback Sparks Team

Starkville, Miss – (UPI) – Mississippi State, sparked by elusive quarterback Billy Hill, scored three first period touchrowns within four minutes today, then survived a second half Memphis State rally to win, 28-23, before 16,000 homecoming fans.

Memphis State Coach Billy Murphy, who made a pre-season prediction that his ambitious Tigers would beat a Southeastern Conference team this fall, nearly saw his forecast come true.

The rugged Memphis Independents, after Mississippi State made its three first period scores, kept the Maroon offensive stymied while generating a threating attack of its own.

McLoughlin Victor on Late Pass

With 10 seconds remaining in the game, Jack Lowery threw an 18-yard touchdown pass to David Crocker as McLoughlin Junior High ninth grade squeaked by North Grants Pass 12 to 6 on the Bulldog field Friday.

Lowery scored the first Bulldog marker in the first period, on a 12-yard run off right tackle to climax a 60-yard drive taking 12 plays.

There was no tally made for the next two stanzas. During this time both teams played tremendous defensive ball. Early in the last frame NGP got its first break of the game. Theron Bone blocked Bulldog Frank Van Pelt's punt and ran 10 yards for the touchdown. However, the referee called the ball back to the 10 yard line. This only delayed the NGP team as four plays later Lewis Bonzon passed 10 yards to Mike Wilson who was standing in the end zone.

Then, after an exchange of downs, Ronnie Caukins intercepted an NGP pass with two minutes left in the game. This set the stage for Lowery's game winning pass to Crocker.

"My whole team made good tackles and played a great defensive game, NGP Coach Ron Maurer stated after the game.

For the Bulldogs Caukins and Mike Watkins were workhorses on both offense and defense, Dick Deffly played tremendous offensive ball along with Crocker.

Frosh Nip Husky Pups

Eugene – (UPI) – Fullback Duane Cargill boomed across the only score of the game with 36 seconds left in the first period Friday afternoon to give the Oregon Frosh a 6-0 win over Washington's Pups.

Cargill capped a 42-yard scoring thrust that was kept alive by a pair of pinpoint passes.

Frosh quarterback Tom Smythe fired an 8-yard pitch to halfback Walt Hunter. Smythe set up the score with a 10-yard aeriel to end Rich Dixon for a first down on the Washington 4-yard line.

Hunter paced the Frosh offense as he rolled up 78 yards in 11 carries, including one 39-yard fourth-quarter end sweep. Smythe connected on 7 of 13 passes for 81 yards.

Coach Brad Ecklund's Frosh next take on the Oregon State Rooks next Thursday night at Multnomah stadium in Portland.

Pass Aids OSC Win Over Bears

By HAL WOOD
United Press International

Berkeley, Calif. – (UPI) – Tailback Don Kasso tossed a 31-yard strike into the end zone to end Amos Marsh in the waning minutes of the game to give Oregon State a come from behind 24 20 victory over California Saturday.

Oregon State had rolled up a 13-0 lead in the first quarter, but Cal came ripping back with a smashing all-ground attack to take a 20-16 lead with five minutes to go. It looked like victory was in the bag for the California team that now has lost its last five games.

But Kasso marshalled the aerial arm of the Beavers and marched his club 71 yards in six plays, completing four passes en route to the winning score.

See-Saw Battle

It was a see-saw battle of the have-nots. Cal, trailing 6-13 at the half, scored in the third quarter on a nine-yard run by Wayne Crow. Crow then completed the Bears' only pass of the day to halfback Steve Bates for another two points to put Cal in front 14-13.

Early in the fourth quarter, end Aaron Thomas booted a field goal from the 15 to put the Beavers in front again, 16-14.

That set the stage for the final quarter touchdown swaps.

The two teams ranged up and down the field during the first half – with Oregon State practicing ball control. Once the Beavers were stopped on the one foot line on downs, another time they rolled to the Cal three where they lost the ball on a fumble.

But in between these misfortunes, Oregon State had it. They had the ball for 17 plays and all the time except 30 seconds for the first eight minutes of the game as they got their initial touchdown.

That came on an 18-yard drive capped by Larry Sanchez's romp around end from the seven to score.

Cal took the next kickoff and was rolling deep into Oregon State territory when Larry Parque tried to pass to his left end. Marne Palmateer raced in to intercept. The Beaver sophomore then pranced 79 yards down the sidelines for another score.

California came right back in the second period, ripping the Beaver line for 72 yards in 12 plays and scoring as Grover Garvin rolled around end from the three.

A crowd of 41,000 including 7,000 bandsmen from regional high schools, sat in 80-degree temperature to watch the battle.

GRELLE PACES

Portland (UPI) – Jim Grelle sparked an Emerald Empire team to victory here Friday in a five-way cross country meet hosted by the University of Portland. The winning low was 23 points. Portland State scored 55 points for second place. Then came Clark Junior college 61, Portland 75 and Lewis and Clark 118. The three-mile course was run by Grelle in 15:54.

Rooks Blast Coubabes

Corvallis – (UPI) – Striking with long passes and a powerful running game, the Oregon State Rooks opened their 1959 football season here Friday afternoon with a 30-16 win over the Coubabes of Washington State university.

Speedy wingback Al Biancani, a 150-pound flash, led the Rook scoring by grabbing passes of 73 and 49 yards from tailback Larry Fernandez.

The Rooks, off to a 24-0 advantage before the Coubabes could tally, frustrated the WSU passing offense with five interceptions, three by tailback Richard Brooks. Coubabe passers completed only 13 of 31 attempts in their debut at Parker stadium.
