

Jones-Hood Rites Held

Gold Hill-Miss Suzanne L. Hood became the bride of Jack E. Jones in a ceremony held Saturday, October 17, in Hidden chapel of First Methodist church in Vancouver, Wash. The Rev. Fred L. Waller, associate minister of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony held at five o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melford M. Hood, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John I. Jones.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a two-piece ensemble of white moire, fashioned with princess style dress and fitted jacket with three quarter length sleeves. Her white velvet hat was trimmed with white velvet dotted veil. Her corsage was a purple orchid. Matron of honor was Mrs. David Byers, sister of the bride. She wore a fitted tweed suit, with white accessories. Her corsage was variegated pink and white carnations.

David Byers, served as best man for the bridegroom.

Following the wedding ceremony, the couple were honored at a dinner party given at the Totem Pole dinner house. Attending were the bride's parents, the bridegroom's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Byers.

The bride graduated from Crater High school last June, and is employed in the office at Jeddell Brothers Sued Mill Inc. The bridegroom is a student at Crater High school. The newlyweds are making their home at route 1, box 180, Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thomas Simich

Couple Now Home After Honeymoon Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Thomas Simich are making their home at 102 Third street, Talent, following their return recently from a wedding trip to Reno and Lake Tahoe.

The couple were married September 28 at Sacred Heart Catholic church with the Rev. John Ilg officiating. The 10 o'clock morning nuptial mass was attended by 125 relatives and friends.

The bride is the former Mrs. Shirley Jean Hoots, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Werner, 1840 Stewart avenue. Mr. Simich is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Simich, Portland, and has been making his home in Talent.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace. Her shoulder length veil was held by a sweetheart crown of pearls and she carried a single white rose on a white missal. Mr. Werner escorted his daughter to the altar.

Mrs. James LaHaie, Portland, was matron of honor. She wore a royal blue satin and lace ballerina length gown with matching accessories and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Lloyd Schull Jr., Portland, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Seating the guests were Frank Bagan, Portland, and William Werner Jr., brother of the bride. Steven James Hoots, son of the bride, was ringbearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Werner wore a blue faille dress. Mrs. Simich chose a brown lace dress. Their corsages were of yellow baby roses.

Following the wedding a luncheon reception was held at the Werner home attended by 100 relatives and friends. Mrs. Lloyd Schull, Portland, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. William Werner Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. Harold Colvin, brother-in-law of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Serving the buffet luncheon were Mrs. Phyllis Knapp, Mrs. Harold Colvin, and Mrs. Gerald Warren, Myrtle Creek, all sisters of the bride.

Little Kristine Knapp and Vicki Colvin, nieces of the bride, were in charge of the guest book. Pamela Warren, another niece, passed the bags of rice.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a navy blue and white checked suit with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

The bride attended Medford High school and was medical secretary for Dr. Paul H.

International President Of AAUW To Visit Here

Dr. Meribeth Cameron, Los Angeles, president of the International Federation of University Women, will be a visitor in Medford this week. She will speak Friday, October 30, at a luncheon during the district workshop for the American Association of University Women.

Dr. Cameron, past national chairman of international relations for AAUW, was installed as president of the International Federation in August during the convention in Helsinki, Finland.

Heading a delegation of 10 state AAUW officers will be Mrs. Carl Brandenfels, St. Helens, president, and Mrs. Gerald Whitney, Athena, vice president.

The workshop, which will be held at the First Methodist church, will attract more than 50 AAUW members from Roseburg, Coos Bay, Eugene, Grants Pass, Ashland, and Klamath Falls, in addition to many from the Medford branch.

Mrs. Brandenfels will preside at the 9 a.m. business sessions when state officers will be introduced.

Schedule Given

Coffee will be served at 10:30 a.m. State and branch activities will be correlated through talks and discussions covering all phases of association study and business by AAUW state committee chairmen. Members especially interested may attend the various groups. These workshops will continue for the remainder of the morning.

Dr. Cameron will be the luncheon speaker. Following her talk Mrs. James Hopkins, Hillsboro, state international relations chairman, will lead a discussion on "Oregon and World Problems."

Mrs. J. M. Bedford, Pendleton, state elementary and secondary education committee chairman, and Mrs. P. J. Wiener, Portland, legislative program, will report on their study of Oregon school district financing.

Prior to Dr. Cameron's talk, Mrs. Roy Elmgren, president of the Medford branch, will welcome the group. Soloist will be Mrs. Gene F. Chamberlain accompanied by Mrs. R. A. Schuchard.

The afternoon workshops will be held from 2:30 until 4 o'clock.

Members Invited

AAUW members are invited to attend all or any part of the workshop. Reservations for the noon luncheon should be made with Mrs. Emerson T. Anderson, Spring 2-2134, before Wednesday, October 28.

The fall workshop here is one of three scheduled in the state. Mrs. Whitney, is in charge of the workshop planning for the state. The first was held September 27 in Ontario, the second will be in Medford, with the third, October 31, in Portland.

"Road to Wisdom" is the year's workshop theme.

Dr. Cameron will also speak for the Portland workshop.

Dinner Planned

A progressive dinner will precede the November meeting of AAUW Wednesday, November 4.

Members will gather for the salad course at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. A. J. Johansson, 2133 Dellwood avenue. The main course will be served at several homes to groups of eight, and dessert will be served to all at the home of Mrs. Anderson, 2131 Hillcrest drive, where the regular meeting is scheduled.

Final plans for the progressive dinner were made at a board meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Harry P. Poston, 922 Reddy avenue.

Miss Catherine Fonken, AAUW art chairman, announced that the annual art show will be sometime after the first of the year.
