Escapes From Salem Captured

Two escapees from the state hospital in Salem last week end were apprehended by Jackson county sheriff's deputies near Phoenix early Tuesday morning.

Deputies said the boys are being held in the county jail here pending return to the state hospital. Sheriff's officers responded to a call for assistance from the state police to apprehend the two youths, 13 and 17 years old.

The paid stole several cars enroute through Jackson county to an unknown destination, police said. The two youths were on foot in an orchard near Clover rd. in the Phoenix area after abandoning a car when they were captured, deputies said.

PAY IS GOOD

San Francisco—(UPI)—San Francisco today sought a gunman who doesn't like his job. He robbed a supermarket of $1,000 and then muttered to the manager and two employees as he walked away: "This is a helluva way to make a living."
