

Frosh Top OSC Rooks By 38-34

Portland —(UPI)—Workhorse Duane Cargill's four touchdown scoring spree led the University of Oregon Frosh to a 38-34 win over the Oregon State College Rooks at Multnomah stadium Thursday night before 5,312 fans.

Cargill, a 6-foot, 195-pound fullback from Springfield, carried the ball 43 times for 172 yards and scored the winning touchdown on a 2-yard plunge with 2:37 left in the game.

While the Frosh did most of their scoring in a grind-em-out method, the Rooks tallied all came on the long-gained route.

Al Biancani, a 150-pound speedster from Sacramento Calif., scored two OSC touchdowns on runs of 22 and 14 yards.

Hunter Goes 77
Walt Hunter, Cargill's running mate at halfback in the Frosh T-formation offense, tallied on a pair of offsets, one a 7-yard dash in the opening period and the second on a brilliant 77-yard punt return late in the first half.

Fullback Ladd Horn of the Rooks opened the donnybrook with a 60-yard scoring sprint on the first play from scrimmage. At the first quarter stop it was 22-14 for the Rooks and OSC remained out in front, 28-26 at the half.

After a scoreless third period, Cargill brought the Ducklings back from a 34-26 disadvantage with scoring runs of 7 and two yards, the last one proving to be the deciding margin. His first half touchdowns were on a pair of one-yard dives.

A 64-yard scoring pass from Bob Lazark to end Gary Casey gave the Rooks their halftime bulge. Ernie Thomson was the other Rook to hit paydirt as he intercepted a Frosh pass and rambled 38 yards to score.

Guilty Plea By Carbo

New York —(UPI)—Frankie Carbo, reputed underworld czar of boxing, pleaded guilty today to three counts of a 10-count indictment charging him with undercover managing and matchmaking of professional fighters.

Carbo, 53, pleaded guilty before General Sessions Judge John A. Mullen to conspiracy, acting as an unlicensed manager and as an unlicensed matchmaker. The seven other counts in the indictment were dismissed.

Sentence Nov. 30
Mullen set Nov. 30 as the date for sentencing.

Carbo faces a maximum sentence of one year on each count. Each count with which he was charged is a misdemeanor.

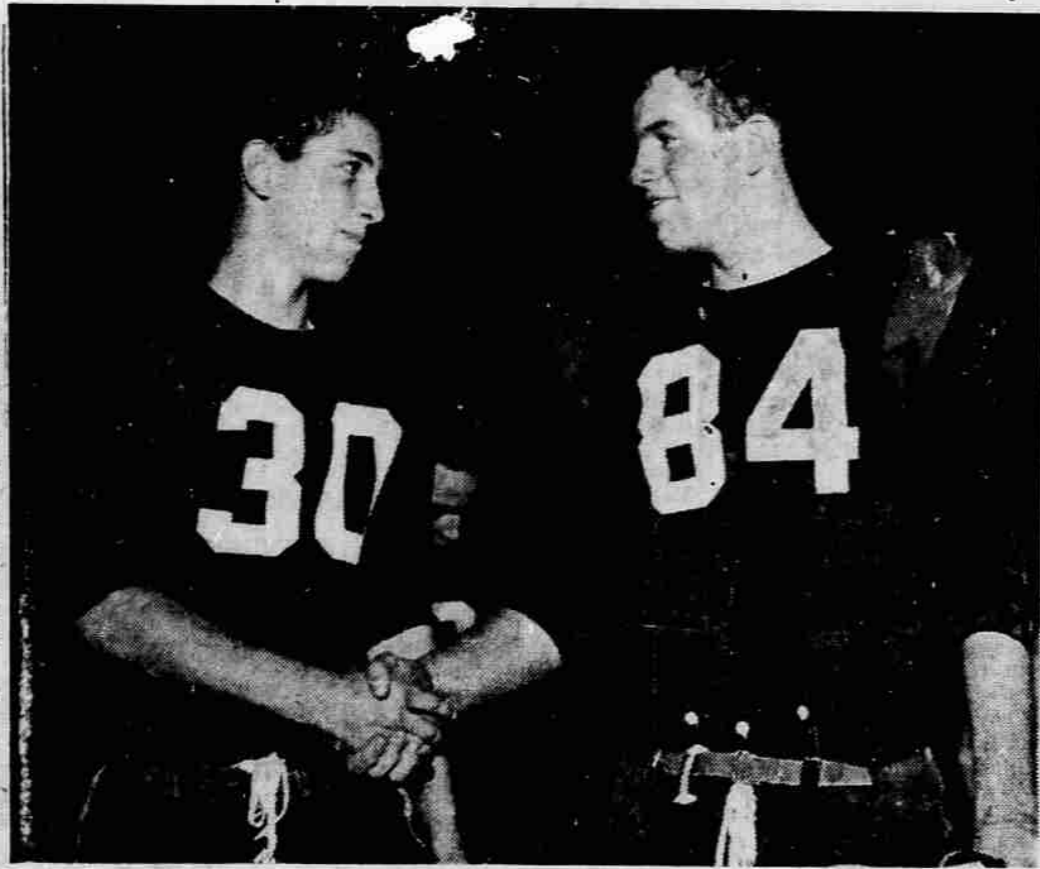

Until his sentencing, Carbo was returned to the city prison at Riker's Island, where he is undergoing medical treatment for diabetes.

Carbo's plea was accepted by the judge after Assistant District Attorney Alfred J. Scotti, chief of the Rackets bureau, recommended acceptance of the plea.

SPORTSWRITER RETIRES

TORNADO TWINS—Medford high's football twins are Calvin Dean (30) left, and Lowell Dean (84). Lowell, an all-state end in 1958, is flankman for the Go offensive, team and for the Rogue River Bandit defenders. Cal is a halfback and linebacker for the Rogue Bandits and quarterbacks the Black Shirt offensive combination. They'll be on duty against Ashland high here tonight.

Ashland Guest of Tornado For 65th Football Rukus

Medford High school assembles its football touchdown production line tonight for the 65th renewal of gridiron rivalry with the Ashland Grizzlies.

Kick-off time is at 8 p.m. at the Medford stadium for the Southern Oregon conference and District 6 A-1 hassle. The Black Tornado tries for its 44th verdict over the team which has been its foe since 1909 while Ashland aims for a 19th triumph. Three games between the schools have ended in ties. The Grizzlies, as usual underdogs, seek their first win over Medford since 1947.

Medford will send a potent multiple offense against the Ashlanders who intend to counter with wide open T-formation. A host of backs, led by Danny Sieg, Mike Hood, Dick Ragsdale and Skip Bennett make the Tornado scoring machine a versatile one. The Grizzlies, less deep in manpower, will rely heavily on the backfield work of Dave Jackson, Bob Voris, Steve Gray and Forrest Farmer.

An injury beset Ashland club suffered an even deeper blow yesterday when it was learned that regular fullback Doug Forrest has a broken leg instead of just a muscle bruise. Forrest last year was one of the leaders in an heroic struggle against Medford. The Grizzlies held the proud Big Wind scoreless for three periods then succumbed 27 to 0. Ashland displayed then and have shown all season the type of spirit Medford will be up against tonight.

The Tornado is heavy favorite because of its greater depth, the greater weight to go with its quickness and because of its imposing season record. Medford is ranked No. 1 in three Oregon prep polls, while the Grizzlies, from the smaller school, are strictly unranked. That gives Ashland killer ambitions to fulfill.

Medford is undefeated in two conference scrambles and is 8-0 for the year. Ashland with 1-1 in the circuit is still much in the district race and would create a three-way Southern Oregon tie by stunning Medford. Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford then all would be 2-1 in the loop. The Cavemen of GP already have that status. They play a non-leaguer tonight at Corvallis.

One other Grizzly, guard Gary Callahan, reportedly also will be missing this evening because of a penicillin infection.

Tech Eyes Clincher

United Press International Oregon Tech's Owls will wrap up the Oregon Collegiate conference football title this week end unless there's a mighty upset. OTI, (3-0) in the conference, plays host to Oregon College at Klamath Falls.

The other OCC game sends Eastern Oregon and Southern Oregon to North Bend for the annual Myrtle Bowl Shrine benefit. The winner is assured of second place.

Eugene —(UPI)—Last week's Oregon-Washington football game drew the largest crowd in the state's history, Oregon Athletic Director Leo Harris said today. A revised count of ticket sales revealed 37,263 were sold for the game. An earlier report listed attendance as 36,327, about 500 short of the all-time record set in 1957 by Oregon State and Southern California.

Giant Shift To Tacoma Gets Okeh

Salt Lake City —(UPI)—The Pacific Coast league had a new president-elect and Tacoma, Wash., a new ball club today as a result of action by the PCL directors.

Dewey Soriano, 39, executive vice president of the league since 1958, will move up to president next Jan. 1 to succeed retiring Leslie O'Connor.

The transfer of the Giants from Phoenix to Tacoma was okayed without objection by directors of the eight-team league Thursday. The Giants have been something of an orphan team since leaving San Francisco to make way for the major league club. Tacoma will mark the second stop for the PCL Giants.

May Play Pacific Teams
A two-man committee was named to explore possibilities of competition with teams in the Pacific area — Japan, the Philippine islands, Hawaii and others. O'Connor warned "nothing has been definitely decided in this regard."

"This is the greatest thing that has happened to Tacoma in years," Mayor Ben Hansen exclaimed when informed of the approval of the transfer. "Baseball interest in the Tacoma area is tremendous and I'm very confident we can support a Pacific Coast league franchise."

The directors announced that Rosie Ryan, general manager of the Giants at Phoenix, would be retained in the switch.

It was understood, though not definite, that the 1960 schedule would call for 154 games, the same number as in the 1959 season. A 168-game schedule was not favored by most.

Four-of-Seven Series
In other action, the directors agreed to a best four out of seven series for the league championship, a change from the present best-of-three.

The directors also informally agreed on a change of format for the all-star game. They favored a match between a PCL all-star team and a major league rival.

Wynn Presented Young Trophy

Boston —(UPI)—Chicago White Sox pitcher Early Wynn, winner of the 1959 Cy Young Award as top pitcher in the major leagues, says if life begins at 40 "I don't know how I'll stand it."

The 39-year-old Wynn whose 22 victories in the past season led the White Sox to their first pennant in 40 years, received the news of the award from his wife Thursday night at Nokomis, Fla.

"I'm tickled to death," said the big right hander who holds the most victories, 271, of any active pitcher in the majors. He had just returned from a spin around the Gulf of Mexico in his cabin cruiser.

The curfew bell in past centuries in England was a signal that all fires must be extinguished for the night.

KF Pels Favored Over Comets In SO Loop Scuffle Tonight

Central Point — Only the miracle of a much unexpected tie could project the Crater Comets and the Klamath Union high Pelicans back into the title chase in Southern Oregon conference football.

But there's still enough at stake to make it a rousing fracas when two clubs engage here tonight.

Klamath, much the larger school, has still to beat the Comets in their own competition. Crater has won three straight from the Pelicans and will be out to extend that record following the 8 p.m. kickoff time.

The game will end the regular season for Klamath Falls, while the Comets will have a tilt next week to complete their slate.

Klamath with a heavier club and a deeper squad rates as favorite. The Pels have the running of Larry McClure, Ron Olvera, Blake Griggs and Kent Hunsaker and throwing of Hunsaker and Gary Buchholz. The Comets will call up on the backfield work of Loyd Higinbotham, Gary Johnson, Jim Eldred, Don Gillaspay and Dean Lamp.

Wayne Martin, who was to be a starting back for Crater, will be sidelined by a groin muscle injury. Regular guard John Anhorn may not see duty for the Comets because of an injured knee.

The Pelicans were said to have held long workouts early in the week. Defensive work was said to have the emphasis with the aim to neutralize opposing offense on the line of scrimmage.

Crater wants desperately to get back on the winning trail after four successive losses.

Corvallis —(UPI)—Oregon State's Beavers hoped today they were ready to put a Hal-loween hex on Washington State in their Homecoming football game here Saturday.

Washington State is riding a three-game winning streak and with 42 season's record is still in the running for a Rose Bowl bid.

Oregon State, 2-4 for the season, has won its last two games.

Center Bruce Hake and fullback Earl Harbin, who have missed the last three games, both were reported ready for action against the Cougars.

Game time at Parker Stadium is 1:30 p.m.

Kent, Ohio —(UPI)—Property owners have been urged to include a guarantee against "smothered trees" in any construction contract. Tree expert Martin L. Dayey Jr. warned that many trees are killed by soil deposited on their roots during excavating and grading operations.

OSC Hopes To Spook WSU Club

Howard School Mustangs completed an undefeated season Thursday as they powered their way to a 14 to 7 victory over previously undefeated Oak Grove in a Medford grade school football game.

Oak Grove jumped to a 7 to 0 half time lead as Kenny Prouditt plunged over from the 3-yard line. A pass from Tim Taylor to Dale Hill netted the extra point.

Led by the power running of Jack Hurt, quarterbacking and passing of Ed Markham and the speed of Lloyd Zacharias the Mustangs scored in the third quarter and again in the fourth quarter. Lloyd Zacharias scored on a 15 yard reverse and Jack Hurt cracked right end for the extra point. Late in the fourth quarter Ed Markham quarterback-snaked for another six pointer. Zacharias reversed for the extra tally.

Quarterback Ed Markham completed five of seven passes with Zacharias and Gary Breeden doing the receiving.

Cuban Picked Over Mexican

New York —(UPI)—Florentino Fernandez, Cuba's unbeaten welterweight slugger, is a lopsided 17-5 favorite to whip tough Gaspar Ortega of Mexico again tonight in their return fight at Madison Square Garden.

Rapidly increasing support for Fernandez may lengthen the price even more before the two welterweight contenders climb into the ring for their nationally televised and broadcast NBC 10-rounder.

Although the bull-necked bull-shouldered Cuban had to be content with a decision over rugged Ortega at Miami Beach, Sept. 11, he had Mexico's "Iron Indian" on the floor twice as he registered his 21st straight professional victory.

Sanders Victor In Sahara Golf

Las Vegas, Nev. —(UPI)—Doug Sanders preserved his lead in 50-mile an hour winds Thursday to win the $7500 Sahara pro-amateur golf tournament with a 54-hole score of 219.

Sanders, short-swinging Miami Beach, Fla., professional, staggered in with an eight over par 80 on the final round in the gale winds over the Las Vegas Municipal Golf Course. His 219-total — three over par for the distance — was four shots better than runner-up Ed (Porky) Oliver.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
United Press International
Bronco Horvath, who lost considerable weight last year after suffering a fractured jaw, is fattening up on a steady diet of this season in the National Hockey league.

The slick Boston center took over the NHL lead with his seventh and eighth goals of the season that carried the Bruins to a 2-1 victory over the Detroit Red Wings.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
The Quebec Aces, the American Hockey league's newest member, have already found a "cousin" in the Hershey Bears.

The Aces trimmed Hershey, 4-2, at Quebec City in Thursday night's only action for their third victory in as many games with the defending league champions.
