Air Force Ties Army Team 13-13

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
New York (UPI) — The Air Force Academy came off football age Saturday as it whipped the ball through the wild gray yonder for a last period touchdown and a 13-13 tie with Army in a history-making battle before 67,000 fans in Yankee Stadium.

The kids from Colorado Springs, making their debut against a rival academy opposition, kept their hopes alive with a desperation fourth and eight pass for a first down on Army's 15 and then sent Minnesota Mike Quinlan rocketing around end for the touchdown that set up the tie and George Pupich's extra point placement.

Army Rated Favorite
Army, a one touchdown favorite in this inaugural game, had trailed in the first quarter and then took the lead on Bob Anderson's pair of touchdowns in the second period.

Under dull gray skies, spitting occasional rain, the 400 Air Force cadets in attendance poured out of the stands just before the game started and exhorted their team to "go, go, go."

And go the Air cadets did after Army's Glen Blumhardt fumbled a punt which Mike Rawlins recovered for the Air Force on Army's 25. Army held on its eight and Pupich missed a field goal attempt from the 15.

Army took over on its 20, but after a first down, Al Rushatz committed the second of four costly Army fumbles and Neil Roundtree recovered on the Cadet 30. This time, the Air Force went all the way.

Richie Mayo's passes carried the Air Force to the nine and then Monte Moorberg took it over in two whacks, scoring from the three. Pupich's kick missed the placement.

Cleveland, Baltimore In Key Tilt

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press International
Can a master coach with a good quarterback beat a pupil with a superior quarterback?

The answer will come when coach Web Ewbank's Baltimore Colts (4-1) entertain coach Paul Brown's Cleveland Browns (3-2) in Sunday's key National Football League game. The result will affect both division races.

Brown, one of football's finest coaches, has a good quarterback in Milt Plum. Ewbank, who served five years as a Cleveland line coach under Brown, has a brilliant signal-caller in John Unitas.

The oddsmakers vote for the Ewbank-Unitas combination, tabbing the Colts stout, 7 1/2 point favorites. Seldom, if ever, have the Browns been such underdogs.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners who share the Western Division lead with Baltimore and the New York Giants, leading the second-place Browns and Philadelphia Eagles by a game in the East, also are heavy favorites for home games. San Francisco is favored over the Detroit Lions (1-4) by seven points and New York is favored over the Green Bay Packers (3-2) by 6 1/2.

Philadelphia entertains the Washington Redskins (2-3) and is favored by eight points. The Rams (2-3) are favored over the Chicago Bears (1-4) by seven and the Pittsburgh Steelers (2-3) are four-point choices to down the Cardinals (1-4) at Chicago in the other games.

A sellout crowd of 57,557 will cram Memorial Stadium to watch Unitas, Lenny Moore, Alan Ameche, Raymond Berry and Baltimore's other defense stars battle a Cleveland defensive unit that has allowed only 48 points.

Coach Vince Lombardi, an assistant for five years under coach Jim Lee Howell of New York, hopes to guide his Packers to victory over his former boss.

The Lions scored their first 1959 victory last Sunday when they downed the Rams at Los Angeles 17-7.

The crippled Redskins tackle a Philadelphia club that erased a 24-0 deficit in edging the Cardinals last Sunday, 28-24.

Pittsburgh visits the Cardinals after dropping a hard-fought, 21-16, decision to New York. The Bears invade Los Angeles after losing at San Francisco in the final seconds on Y. A. Tittle's long pass to R. C. Owens.

Ranks of Unbeaten Reduced to Eight

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
The ranks of the nation's unbeaten and untied college football teams were reduced to eight Saturday with at least one more due to fall tonight when Louisiana State was scheduled to put its 18-game winning streak on the line against Mississippi in a game that could decide the national championship.

First-ranked L. S. U. and third-ranked Mississippi, each with a 6-0 record this year, met at 9 p.m., EST, in Baton Rouge, La.

But long before the kickoff for the South's "game of the year" the last of the unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon team bowed when Dartmouth upset previously unscuffed Yale, 12-8. Bill Gundy, Dartmouth's All-Ivy League quarterback, passed 13 and 26 yards for the touchdowns which ended Yale's hopes of a perfect season.

Six Keep Perfect Marks
Six other teams-five super powers an unranked North Texas States - retained their perfect marks.

Second-ranked Northwestern overcame an early deficit to drub Indiana, 30-13; fourth-ranked Texas kept Southern Methodist's ground attack under virtually complete control enroute to a 21-0 victory; fifth-ranked Syracuse held Pittsburgh to minus six yards rushing and clobbered the Panthers, 35-0; sixth-ranked California rallied in the fourth period to overcome California, 14-7. Penn State used its regulars sparingly in an easy 28-10 blitz of West Virginia and halfback Abner Haynes tallied two touchdowns to lead North Texas State to a 12-0 decision over Wichita.

The Air Force and Army began the nation's newest intraservice rivalry by playing a 13-13 tie at Yankee Stadium, Monty Stickle's 43-yard field goal gave Notre Dame a 25-22 victory over Navy. Duke upset 10th-ranked Georgia Tech, 10-7, 11th-ranked Purdue and Illinois played a 7-7 tie and Nebraska scored a 25-21 win that ended Oklahoma's 74-game unbeaten string and 44-game winning streak in big eight competition.

Squeaks Through To Win
Other key scores included eighth-ranked Auburn's 6-0 squeaker over Florida, Wisconsin's 19-10 triumph over Michigan, 14th-ranked Tennessee's 29-7 romp over North Carolina State and Ohio

Washington State Now Back In Rose Bowl Contention

By HOWARD APPLIGATE
United Press International
Corvallis, Ore.—Washington State moved back into the Rose Bowl picture Saturday overpowering Oregon State 14-0 for its fourth straight victory.

The visiting Cougars, inspired by the great running of halfback Keith Lincoln who twice had been helped from the field, dominated nearly the entire game.

Oregon State went into the game a slight favorite after two straight wins. But the Beavers made only one serious scoring threat much to the disappointment of 17,601 homecoming fans.

Lincoln, a 205-pound junior, didn't figure directly in the scoring but he easily was the outstanding player on the field. He picked up 111 yards in 20 carries and once quick-kicked 56 yards to put Oregon State in one of its frequent holes.

Ironically, it was a fumble by Lincoln which gave Washington State its first touchdown.

Lincoln returned a punt 33 yards to the Oregon State 45 in the first quarter. The Cougars then marched to the Oregon State 9. Lincoln fumbled but quarterback Mike Agee picked it up and ran around end to score.

Agee passed to Don Ellersick for two extra points.

Lincoln led the Cougars on a drive late in the first half which carried from the Washington State 17 to the Oregon State 8. But a field goal try by Lee Schroeder was wide.

Washington State staged an 82-yard third-quarter march in 14 plays for its second touchdown. Lincoln was hurt on the drive, but his replacement Perry Harper took over in stride and scored the touchdown from five yards out.

Oregon State, which didn't get past the Cougar 37 in the first half, made its most seri-

Jackson Beats Roosevelt Gang

Jackson was sure of at least a tie for the Medford grade school National league football title after a 19 to 0 decision Friday over Roosevelt.

Jackson is now 3-0 in the league and Roosevelt has finished with a 3-1 standing.

All the scoring was in the second half. In the third period Mike Glogowski went seven yards to the end zone and also bucked the extra. In the fourth Ken Curtis ran around end for 40 yards and a goal and John Pruitt intercepted a screen pass and raced 35 yards to touchdown land.

Lincoln Comes Back
Lincoln came back into the game in the fourth period following his first injury, but was shaken up again the first time he carried the ball. He suffered a bruised back.

Washington State moved to the Beaver 15 as time ran out. A second field goal attempt failed.

The Cougar forward wall outplayed the Beavers all day, helped mightily by the performance of Billy Berry, a diminutive 160-pound guard.

It was only the second time Coach Tommy Prothro has lost a game in Corvallis in his five years at Oregon State.

USC Wears Down Cal

Berkeley, Calif. (UPI) — Southern California's mighty Trojan line, anchored by the McKeever twins, wore down California in the final quarter Saturday for a come-from-behind 14-7 victory.

Trailing 6-7 going into the final stanza, the undefeated Trojans put on a brutal display of power as they marched 52 yards to score and set up the game.

The score came when quarterback Willie Wood rolled around end from the eight.

Before that, California put on two brilliant goal-line stands in the first half — one when the Trojans had first down and a foot to go.
