

Methodist Ceremony Weds Couple

Miss Viola Dietrich, 939 North Central avenue, became the bride of Charles Hansen, Alameda, Calif., in a ceremony held Saturday, October 24, in Meeker Memorial chapel of First Methodist church.

The Rev. Robert Dowry officiated at the two o'clock afternoon double ring wedding service.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Peter Dietrich, 939 North Central avenue, and the late Mr. Dietrich. Mr. Hansen is a son of Mrs. Charles Hansen, Canyonville.

The bride wore a blue lace ballerina length dress fashioned with long sleeves and a white feathered hat trimmed with sequins. Her corsage was of white carnations. Edward Schackel gave his niece in marriage.

Mrs. Beulah Osborn was matron of honor. She wore a pink and pale green ensemble and her corsage was of variegated pink and white carnations.

Michael Dietrich, Beverly Hills, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Mrs. Dietrich wore a blue and pink print silk frock with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of variegated carnations.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Dietrich home attended by 25 friends and relatives.

The bride is a graduate of Medford schools and Southern Oregon college. She was employed as a bookkeeper at Associated Fruit company. Mr. Hansen attended Grants Pass High school and is employed by the Raymond and Construction company, Alameda, Calif. They will make their home in Alameda.

Woodward-Bever Rites Held in Lutheran Church

Eagle Point-Miss Barbara Bever, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bever, route 1, box 88, Eagle Point, became the bride of Norman Woodward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Woodward, Vilas road, Thursday, October 15, at St. Peter's Lutheran church in Medford. The date was the wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. John Simon performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock before 150 guests. Lavender and white stock decorated the altar and white bows lined the aisle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace, styled with a tiered skirt. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Her maid of honor was Mrs. John Millard, sister of the bridegroom. Other attendants were Miss Maxine Woodward, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Errol Tresham and Mrs. Lawrence Register. All wore lavender brocade sheath dresses and carried white and lavender carnations.

Miss Kay Bever, the bride's sister, served as candlelighter and little Laurie Millard, the bridegroom's four-year-old niece, was flower girl. They also wore lavender frocks.

John Millard, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, was best man. Clyde Bever, Dennis Boren and Harry Knobbe seated guests.

Mrs. John Millard, sister of the bridegroom, sang traditional wedding music at the ceremony and reception which followed at the church.

Mrs. Agnes Smith was organist.

The young couple traveled to San Francisco for their wedding trip and are making their home on Crater Lake avenue, Medford. Both attended Eagle Point schools and the bride has been an employee of the Big Y market. The bridegroom is a truck driver.

Relatives coming from out of town for the event included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bever, Nampa, Idaho; her aunt, Mrs. Allen Orth, Woodland, Wash.; her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Orth, Portland; and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Winona Woodward, Los Angeles.

California Wedding Announced

From California comes news of the wedding of Miss Glenna Knorr, formerly of Medford, to Donald R. Johnston, Oakland, California. Miss Knorr is the daughter of Mrs. Leona Petersen, 1745 Orchard Home court and Mr. Johnston is the son of Bert Johnston, San Francisco, Calif.

The double-ring ceremony, held September 27, was at the home of the bridegroom's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mulloy, Piedmont, Calif. White gladioli, chrysanthemums and stock decorated the Mulloy residence. Dr. H. T. Eymann of the Piedmont Community church performed the ceremony. About 35 guests attended.

The bride wore a champagne satin dress with harem skirt and fitted bodice with scoop neckline and bell sleeves in matching nylon. Her hat was matching pillbox with short fitted veil. She carried an orchid.

Miss Barbara Johnson, formerly of Medford, was the bride's only attendant. She wore a princess style pastel green dress with scoop neck and three-quarter length sleeves and matching green headband.

Van Dilbeck, Oakland, Calif., was a best man. The bride's mother wore a wool sheath of royal blue and matching hat.

A reception followed the ceremony, Miss Suzanne Johnston, sister of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake and Miss Maxine Lyall served the punch.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in Carmel on the Monterey peninsula, and are now making their home at 1825 Fruitvale avenue, Oakland.

In Oakland for the wedding was the bride's mother, her brother, Bill Knorr and Mrs. Lenora Hebest, aunt of the bride, all of Medford.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school and is employed as executive secretary for the vice president of Trans-Ocean Airlines. Mr. Johnston was graduated from Chico High school, Chico, Calif., and has served four years in the Army Air Force. He is employed by the Robert Mulloy Construction company, and also attending Oakland City college, majoring in electronics.
