Scott - Medley Ceremony Held in College Chapel

Of interest here is news of the wedding Saturday, October 10, of Miss Patricia Medley, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Medley, Klamath Falls, to Thomas D. Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Scott, Denver, Colorado.

The event took place in Price Memorial chapel in Old College hall at Pacific university, Forest Grove, where the bride has been a student. The Medley family formerly resided in Medford.

The Rev. J. Vincent Crane of Campus Congregational church performed the candle-light ceremony at 7 o'clock in the evening. Bronze and gold chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The bride, who was escorted down the aisle by her brother, Ted Medley, Klamath Falls, wore a ballerina-length gown of lace over satin. A pearl crown held a short bouffant veil and she carried a small cascade of golden bronze tulleman roses.

Miss MaryLou Medley, Klamath Falls, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown of bronze taffeta was styled with a balloon skirt and three-quarter length sleeves. She carried a small cascade of autumn colored chrysanthemums.

Miss Barbara Medley, Klamath Falls, another sister of the bride, served as bridesmaid. She wore a gown of gold taffeta designed as the maid of honor's.

Dr. James Scott, Portland, was best man for his brother, Ted Medley served as groomsmen and David Medley, another brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

Miss Jane Gold, sorority sister of the bride, was soloist and Miss Kathryn Compton, a schoolmate, was organist.

A reception followed in the Alumni Memorabilia room of the hall. Miss Mollie Chaffee poured coffee, Miss Sandra Trent cut the cake and Miss Suzanne Richards served punch.

The young couple traveled to the Oregon and Washington coast on their wedding trip, the bride wearing as a going-away ensemble a moss green sheer wool sheath dress with bronze and green accessories. They will make their home in Portland, where the bride will continue her studies at Portland State college.

The bride, who is majoring in speech education, attended Crater high school before enrolling at Pacific university. She is a member of Theta Nu Alpha sorority, the college choir, newspaper staff and Tau Kappa Alpha, national speech honorary.

The bridegroom attended Portland State college and the University of Oregon and is manager of City Finance corporation, Milwaukie.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Maggie Stone, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Shafer, Central Point.
