

'Citizens Now' Conference Slated

The Crater Lake Council Explorer "Citizens Now" conference will be held at Southern Oregon college, Ashland, the week end of Nov. 20, according to Jim Schmidt, general chairman.

The conference is open to all explorers in posts and senior Scouts in Troops in the council. Senior Girl Scouts will take part in Saturday's program, Schmidt said.

200 Expected for Interboard Session

More than 200 Methodist men who are members of boards and commissions, chairmen and pastors of the church in southern Oregon will be in Medford Monday, Nov. 2, during an interboard school.

Bishop A. Raymond Grant, Portland, will attend the school. Presiding at the event will be the Rev. Lawrence Guderian, Forest Grove district superintendent.

The meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m. The schools are held to help local churches meet their own needs and to increase their effectiveness by training. Dr. George G. Roseberry, host pastor, reported.

Instructing the various divisions will be Richard G. Belcher, missions; Glenn S. Gothard, education; Robert C. Williams, stewardship and finance; C. Lloyd Daugherty, membership and evangelism; and Carl D. Soule, Christian social relations. All are from Portland. Bishop Grant will meet with the ministers.

Following the six workshops all groups will meet together at 8 p.m. The program will adjourn at 9 p.m.

Schrunk Asks Curb On Obscene Books

Portland - (UPI) - Mayor Terry Schrunk today called for a program to halt sale of what he called obscene magazines and books here. He said a recent investigation showed that "many clearly objectionable publications are being sold in our city in all types of outlets - drug stores, grocery stores, ice cream parlors, news stands and the like."

Schrunk invited PTA presidents to meet with him "to initiate a city-wide program of action."

He said "censorship is not the issue." More than 700 different languages are spoken in Africa.

Central Point Man Injured in Mishap

Alexander Alvarez, 44, of Central Point, was treated at Rogue Valley hospital for injuries and released following a two-car collision near Crater High school in Central Point Thursday night, hospital attendants said.

A car driven by Alvarez and Fred Wynn Milani, 18, of route 1, box 507, Central Point, collided at the intersection of the Highway 99 and Hazel st., Central Point police said. Alvarez was making a left turn to go east off the highway and Milani was headed north on the highway, police said.

DEBT FIGURES ANNOUNCED

Washington - (UPI) - Consumer indebtedness climbed to another record of $48,394,000,000 last month. But the September jump was smaller than the August increase. The Federal Reserve Board said the new indebtedness total was $499 million higher than in August on a seasonally corrected basis.

No citations have been issued pending further investigation, an officer said. Alvarez suffered head injuries.

Mt. Angel College to Hold Senior Day

Mt. Angel, Ore. - Mt. Angel college students are making plans for their annual Senior Day Wednesday, Nov. 11. The event is planned to acquaint high school seniors with curriculum and campus life at the college.

High school seniors are scheduled to register on the campus from 9:30 to 10 a.m. A mock class day will begin immediately and continue through lunch. In the classes, which will be taught by regular college faculty, the seniors will have the opportunity to see what is done in various courses. They will be able to
