Mail Brings Fire Trucks Rushing

Pine Bluff, Ark. — The fire department rushed three trucks to a clanging alarm box but found no fire — only a couple of letters holding the alarm lever down.

The return address on the letters led to Obie Hawkins, 18, who said somebody told him that in the city you post your mail in a little box on the corner.

"Thank you kindly," Obie said after police showed him a mail box. "You folks are right neighborly."

Dog Blamed for Drunken Condition

Fairbanks, Alaska — Clarence Linderman, 35, brought into court on a drunk driving charge, told the judge his pet dog, Spot, got him drunk.

"I took Spot to a tavern and started him doing tricks," Linderman said. "Every time Spot would do a trick someone would buy me a drink. The blasted dog just wouldn't stop doing tricks!"

The judge fined Linderman $100. Spot went free.

Reluctant Robber Lets Victims Off

Bourbonnais, Ill.—The hold-up man appeared even more reluctant than his intended victims, three employees of a building contractor.

"We're just working people," said one of the employees. "We haven't any money."

"Oh well," replied the meek bandit, "this is a toy gun anyway. Just forget about it."
