PUBLIC GETTING PUNCHY Hempstead, England - (UPI) - Council member Gilbert Hitchcock said Thursday the city was going to crack down on ice cream peddlers because "we are all fed up with this infernal ding-dong."

Simple Stitchery I left him and asked my husband to take me back. He is willing if I give up the baby I am expecting in a couple of months. I have longed for a baby and I don't want to give this one up for adoption.

Louis S. - I want a family as much as Mable, but I don't want to put up with this other fellow's child. I would rather adopt another baby than keep this one. Every time I'd look at this kid I'd think about what had happened in the past.

Mable S. says it's asking too much of a mother to give up her child, especially when she is unsure how she'll feel after it's born. I feel she ought to be willing to make a sacrifice for me since I am willing to start again with her after all that has happened.

We have consulted doctors about our childlessness in the past. They told us that there was no physical reason why we shouldn't be able to have children. Yet Mable is afraid she won't have another.

The Council - The welfare of the unborn child should be the top consideration in Mable's thinking.

Nobody can make the decision for her, but Mable must.

The Family Council

Editor's Note: The Family Council consists of a Judge, a psychiatrist, three clergymen, a newspaper editor, and a women's editor and two writers. Each article is a summary of an actual case history. The Council reports on problems that have been dealt with by responsible agencies and counselors.

Mable S. - I don't want to consider the various alternatives. It is possible that she could pressure Louis into accepting this child. But he has warned in advance that he is prepared to have some ill feeling toward the child. It is possible that he would feel differently once he had a chance to know the child but that is a big risk to take when a life is at stake.

Louis S. - There's no way out of marriage.

Mable S. - I was married four years to a man I never loved. I married him in desperation when I thought I had lost the man I really cared for.

Three years after my marriage this old flame turned up and said it was me he cared for, after all. I separated from my husband immediately and went to live with Fred. After about six months I realized that he had a terrible temper, drank too much and expected me to support him while he roamed around looking for the right job.

I left him and asked my husband to take me back. He is willing if I give up the baby I am expecting in a couple of months. I have longed for a baby and I don't want to give this one up for adoption.

Louis S. - I want a family as much as Mable, but I don't want to put up with this other fellow's child. I would rather adopt another baby than keep this one. Every time I'd look at this kid I'd think about what had happened in the past.
