Tornado, Cavemen in 6 A-1 Toga Decider Here Tonight; Comets Host To Grizzlies

Class A-1 football comes to its 1959 conclusion tonight on southern Oregon fields and there'll be a big showdown on the Medford stadium turf. Medford's Black Tornado is host to the burly Grants Pass Cavemen with kick-off at 8 p.m.

For the fifth consecutive year the Tornado meets the Cavemen in the finale of the regular slate. Each year the Southern Oregon conference toga and District 6 A-1 issues have been determined in the fray.

At Central Point this evening will be the other conference ender with Crater host to Ashland. Neither is in the title running but the winner can wind up in third position or share second in the circuit.

Play-Offs Aim
A berth in Oregon quarter-finals is the big objective in the Grants Pass-Medford game. Victory or tie will give the blitz Tornado the SO mantle and the play-off place again. A Grants Pass triumph would mean a third straight co-championship but the Cavemen thereby would advance into contention for the Oregon big school crown. Med-

RAMP REPAIRED

Portland - Oregon anglers concerned over the probable loss of the Owyhee boat ramp damaged by a landslide last month which left the concrete slab hanging out in mid-air, can look forward to again using this popular launching site. Full repairs have been made and the ramp is now ready for boat launching purposes, the game commission has reported.

De John Slight Pick in Bout

Syracuse, N. Y. - Unranked Mike De John was a slight favorite to defeat Charlie Powell in their scheduled 10-round heavyweight bout at the War Memorial tonight. The bout will be nationally televised and broadcast by NBC starting at 7 p.m. (P.S.T.)

Portland - Anglers established a new all-time high in the number of salmon taken in and around the mouth of the Columbia river during the 1959 salmon season it was learned today. Data collected by the Oregon game commission and the Washington department of fisheries show that some 75,000 anglers took a total of 73,900 salmon during the period of June through Sept. 26.

United Medford Crusade will benefit Saturday from all-day golf competition at Rogue Valley Country Club. The 18-hole rivalry will be for gross and net prizes. It is emphasized that the tourney is open to all golfers, men and women, whether they are members of the club or not. This wide open play for the one day is a departure from the policy of RVCC. Entry fees will be $2 for members and $3 for non-members. More than 100 prizes are planned with closest to the pin and long drive awards to be given in addition to those for gross and net scores. If players do not have established handicaps the Galloway system will be applied to their scores. A hole-in-one tournament, separate from the other competition, will be another event of the day.

Yanks Now Favored in Ryder Golf
Palm Desert, Calif. - Capt. San Sneed reached into the strategy bank and came up with some brilliant pairings that made the United States the favorite to win the Scotch foursome matches in the opening round of the Ryder Cup competition today. Both Sneed and Capt. Dai Rees of the invading squad were confident of victory - and both seemed pleased with the pairings. When play got underway at 9 a.m. today, the pairings were:
Bob Rosburg and Mike Souchak, U.S., vs. B. J. Hunt and Eric Brown, Great Britain.
Julius Boros and Dow Finsterwald, U.S., vs. Ken Bousfield and Rees, Great Britain.
Sneed, Dr. Cary Middlecoff, U.S., and Harry Weetman and Dave Thomas, Britain.
Doug Ford and Art Wall, U.S., vs. Peter Alliss and Christy O'Connor, Great Britain.
"I'm hoping to win all four matches," said Sneed, "but the only way I would be disappointed would be to lose three or more of them."
Sneed thinks that his strongest team is made up of Wall and Ford.

AT TORNADO FLANK - A fine blocker and pass catcher, and a demon defensive player is Jerry Anderson, above, end and linebacker for the Medford high football team which meets Grants Pass here tonight. A senior, Anderson has caught 11 passes this fall for 187 yards.
