

Lions Auxiliary President To Visit Southern Oregon

Mrs. Dana Shelton, Cutler City, Ore., president of the Oregon State Lions' auxiliaries, will visit the auxiliaries of Medford and vicinity this week.

Mrs. Shelton will attend a dinner at Rogue River Monday, November 9, celebrating the tenth anniversary of the Rogue River auxiliary.

Plumer-Elhart Wedding Today; Relatives Here

The wedding of Miss Dorothy Elhart to Bernard K. Plumer is set for this afternoon at three o'clock at First Presbyterian church. The reception will be held at Girls Community club.

Tuesday she will meet with the South Grants Pass club, and Wednesday, the Shady Cove-Trail, Butte Falls, Prospect, and Eagle Point auxiliaries will honor the visitor at a dinner to be held in Shady Cove.

Scheduled for Thursday are a tea in the afternoon at Jacksonville, and a meeting with Klamath and Klamath Toketee auxiliaries in Klamath Falls in the evening.

Friday, Mrs. Shelton will be entertained at a dinner at the Rogue Valley Country club at 7:30 p.m. Hostesses will be Medford, Crater, Phoenix, and Talent auxiliaries.

Parties Honor Charlotte Riley; Ceremony Soon

Miss Charlotte Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Riley, 616 Stewart avenue, has been honored at several showers recently. She is the bride-elect of Steven Ross Wisely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Wisely, 724 West Jackson street.

Their wedding is planned for November 21 at First Methodist church at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Thursday Miss Riley was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Aulton Leek, Miss Patricia Leek, Mrs. George Lovenborg and Miss Nyla Lovenborg at the Leek home, 1530 West Main street.

A pink and white cake with the names of the couple on it was served and pink and white chrysanthemums decorated the rooms. Twenty-one friends attended.

Last month the bride-elect was honored at a lingerie shower given by Mrs. Bradley Morris and Mrs. David Wisely, sister-in-law of Steven Wisely at the Morris home, 641 J street.

Lavender flowers and candles decorated the rooms for the event attended by 15 friends and relatives. A display included a miniature wedding party of dolls arranged on the veil worn by Mrs. Wisely at her wedding.

Fall flowers in shades of bronze and yellow decorated the home of Mrs. Herbert L. Roberts, 1008 South Oakdale avenue, for a luncheon and linen shower which honored Miss Riley. Ten friends of the bride-elect attended.

Guild Announces Workshop Friday

Members of St. Elizabeth's guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church will meet Friday, November 13, in the Guild hall for luncheon and a workshop. Holy communion will be celebrated in the church at 11 a.m.

Luncheon will be served at 12 noon, followed by the workshop at which the women will make or finish articles for the December 3 bazaar.

All members of the guild and other women of the church are asked to attend the meeting.

Miss Anne Haviland, senior at St. Mary's High school, was crowned queen of homecoming festivities at the school last Saturday during halftime activities of the St. Mary's-Merrill football game. Crowning the queen is Roger Hout, co-captain of the team.

Miss Anne Haviland Reigns Over Homecoming Events

Miss Anne Haviland, senior, reigned as queen over the homecoming activities last week end at St. Mary's. The event started with the traditional bonfire October 30 behind Jackson school.

After a yell contest between the high school classes, Coach Bill McKibbin introduced the football players. The announcement of the queen and her court for the game and dance the following evening, was made by Tom Tomjack, chairman of the homecoming events.

Anne Haviland, senior, was named queen with princesses, Linda Metz, freshman; Virginia Rausch, sophomore; and Anne Bennett, junior. Refreshments were served by the senior class.

Saturday the students, alumni and parents of St. Mary's attended the football game with Merrill held at the Medford High school field. At halftime Queen Anne was crowned by Roger Hout, co-captain of the team.

The game, won by St. Mary's, 46-26, was followed by a dance held in the school activity room at St. Mary's. The stage was decorated to represent a football field, and abstract paintings of football players drawn by Andre Knutson, covered the walls. Chaparones were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Elbert. Bill Stuart served as "disc jockey" for the music.

At the dance Queen Anne was again crowned, this time by Tony Marshall, student body president. Cider and doughnuts were served.

Clothing for sports or country wear proved unusually interesting. One ski ensemble included a white coat of shaggy synthetic fur, and bright plaids were featured for slacks and jacket suits.

Afternoon frocks included two of sapphire blue, and a white jersey appliqued with roses made of chiffon. A satin frock dress was of rose and grey print.

Late day wear shown included a pale pink brocade frock designed with wide satin, sash and scallop trim which gave a bolero effect to the bodice.

One "after five" dress looked like a sheath with matching jacket but in reality was a skirt with two separate tops. This was in green and white. One frock of "white champagne" had the fashionable fur trim on the sleeves, and another late day gown was of vivid red lace.

The ever-popular black was represented by a gown of black nylon tulle and taffeta trimmed with turquoise streamer sash. The gown was dotted with rhinestones.

One of the newest fashion trends is the wearing of elegant trousers for evening, particularly for "at home" entertaining. To close the show, Mrs. Bradshaw modeled a pair of new black tapered evening trousers made of two-way stretch material which fits like a second skin. The trousers were embroidered down the sides and were worn with a low-cut white jersey evening blouse trimmed with pearls and rhinestones, a wide belt of crushed, red leather and red bracelets.

The luncheon served by women of Bellview Grange featured beef with dressing and dessert was flaming cherry jubilee. Mrs. Lloyd A. Hoody, Ashland, was luncheon chairman.

Stofes cooperating for the show were Bon Bazaar, Greenwades, Fortmillers, Park View, Perrines, Penny's and Carole Ann's, all Ashland.

Holiday Style Show Held By Cow Belles Thursday

First holiday fashion show of the season was presented Thursday by Jackson County Cow Belles at the Bellview Grange hall near Ashland. Mrs. Victor Stewart, Ashland, was chairman, with Mrs. Donald Bradshaw, Central Point, and Mrs. Albert Wright, Ashland.

White lace snowflakes decorated the stage across which the models paraded, and the luncheon tables were centered with cones holding pink candles. Programs were bell-shaped and Cow Belles wore clusters of silver bells as name tags.

Mrs. Donald Nichols, president of the group, served as commentator for the show and before the style show began, said that the trend of modern times did not make an early November holiday show "too early, but only right on time."

Models were Mrs. Claus Charley, Eagle Point; Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Richard Heins, Jacksonville; Mrs. Leslie Lusk, Ashland; Mrs. Clayton Charley, Medford; Mrs. Robert Fisher, Eagle Point; Mrs. Donald Bradshaw and Mrs. John Bohnert, Central Point.

The show opened with "at home" wear including gay printed corduroy robes, fluffy negligees over matching gown, and tapered black lounging trousers with a quilted satin jacket.

The bride-elect attended Elkton High school and Oregon State college. She is employed in the records department of Montgomery Ward company. Mr. Amrhein attended Centre College of Kentucky, Danville, Ky. He majored in forestry at Purdue university, West Lafayette, Ind., and was a member of Xi Sigma Pi honor fraternity. He is a forester with the bureau of land management assigned to the Medford district.

The wedding is scheduled for December 13 at 1 o'clock in First Methodist church here.

At Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Freese and family, 350 Highland drive, were in Salem recently for the wedding of Mrs. Freese's brother, Marvin Dahlke to Miss Jacklyn Akers, Salem.

The Freese's three-year-old daughter, Susan, was a flower girl at the wedding.

Sophomore Dance Set for Tuesday

"State Swing" is the theme of the annual dance sponsored by the sophomore class at St. Mary's High school.

The dance is centered around the team's quest for victory in the state play-offs and will be held in the activity room on Tuesday, November 10.

Coach B. Stewart will be master of ceremonies and disc jockey. Entertainment will be furnished by the "Shadows."

Suggestions for dance titles are Chalkline Cha-Cha, Pigskin Polka and Trophy Trot.

Visiting in Medford recently for the first time since their wedding April 17 in Glasgow, Mont., were Mr. and Mrs. Tod D. Cornell, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henson, 2000 Westlund drive, Medford.

During the couple's three weeks in the valley they were entertained by friends and were honored at an open house at the Henson home October 25. A number of friends of Mrs. Cornell poured during the afternoon event attended by 80 relatives and friends.

The couple also traveled to the Oregon coast while in the state.

Mr. Cornell, an airman first class in the United States Air Force, was formerly stationed at Glasgow Air Force Base, and will report for new assignment at Chanute Air Force Base, Ill. He will take a course in preparation for re-assignment as an Air Force technical instructor in the field of petroleum supply.

Also visiting during the Cornell's visit was Mrs. Adeline Cornell, Los Angeles, mother of Tod Cornell.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell both attended Lewis and Clark college, Portland.

Following luncheon club members will model fashions especially chosen for holiday glamour and fun times. Clothing will be from Town and Country shop, Eagle Point, and shoes shown will be from Johnston and Stewart, Medford. Models will have hair styles by Glenn of Burelsons.

Mrs. Larry McConnell is general chairman for the affair. She is reminding women planning to attend that reservations will be necessary in order to properly accommodate everyone. Tickets may be purchased in advance from members of the group.

Reservations chairman is Mrs. James Kirby, SP Ring 3-6488. Reservations may also be made with Mrs. David De Armond, NORMANDY 4-2252.

The foods and fashions event is planned for 12:30 p.m. at Mon Desir dining inn. Luncheon will be served in the main dining room. Mrs. Julie Tummers, of the inn, will be in charge of the menu

Luncheon, Show Will Aid Medford School of Hope

Proceeds from the "Fancy Foods and Fashions" luncheon and fashion show to be given by Medford Junior Women's club Tuesday, November 16, have been designated for the School of Hope, Mrs. John L. Holmes, Jr., philanthropic chairman, has announced.

The school was established in 1958 by persons in the area who realized the need for individual training of the mentally retarded. The aim of the program is to develop skills which will assist the child toward a normal, useful life.

Junior clubs in the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs have named assistance to the mentally retarded as their statewide project. Last year the Medford group purchased toys for the children and also saved empty cartons for use as a play-store.

The foods and fashions event is planned for 12:30 p.m. at Mon Desir dining inn. Luncheon will be served in the main dining room. Mrs. Julie Tummers, of the inn, will be in charge of the menu and she has promised a taste treat for women attending.
