ZOO GETS ANIMALS—A pair of priceless Tasmanian Devils exhibit their ferocious nature at Fleishacker Zoo in San Francisco. A gift to the zoo from the Tasmanian government, the carnivorous little creatures are already extinct in Australia and rigidly protected by Tasmania and not for sale at any price. The Tasmanian government donated the animals in response to a program to expand the zoo. The animals are very destructive of sheep.

4-H CLUB NEWS

Daffy Dills
The first meeting of the year of the Daffy Dills 4-H club was held at the home of Mrs. C. W. Anhorn on Saturday, Nov. 7.

We elected officers. The officers for the coming year are Judy Frank, president; Cheryl Swanson, vice president; Elaine Young, secretary; James Anhorn, reporter, and Patti McCue, sergeant-at-arms. We presented our leader with a gift certificate. The meeting was adjourned by the president.

Mrs. L. C. Gorden helped us make arrangements of dried weeds and leaves. Refreshments were served by Cheryl and Patti.

James Anhorn, Reporter

Kaper Kids

The second meeting of the Kaper Kids Dairy goat 4-H club was held Nov. 7 at Gary Norris' residence. The meeting was called to order by Janet Glidden, vice president.

The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting. It was decided that 15 cents a person would be what it cost for vaccinations previous to last year's fair.

One of the local buck owners asked the club what they thought would be fair to charge for service. The club thought $2 would be a fair price.

A new member, Mitchell Selby, was brought into the club. Two members, Gary Norris, and Janet Glidden, were appointed to give a talk one some phase of goat-keeping.

After the meeting was adjourned a treasure hunt was conducted. Cookies and chocolate were served and several games were played.

The next meeting will be Dec. 5 at Martha Humphreys. Ronald Smith, Reporter.

HILTS 80 Attend Recent Party

By MRS. M. F. CAVIN
Hilts—A Halloween party given by the Hilts Community Bible Sunday school at the Burnice Lathrom ranch northwest of town on Colestein rd., Oct. 30 was attended by approximately 80 persons.

Many of the group left from the store and went on a hayride by truck to the ranch. A barn was decorated in the Halloween theme and an adjoining room as the "Spook Chamber" with "Dead Eye Joe's" ghost there to greet party goers.

Prizes for the best costumes were awarded to Danny Dennis, Darlene Nickell, and Dennis Luper. Refreshments of hot cocoa and chili beans were served with wieners and marshmallows roasted over a large bonfire.

Gayel Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donivan Ward, was given a surprise party at her home Oct. 29, honoring her 13th birthday. Gifts were presented the honoree and games were played with prizes going to La Wana Trinka, Lee Roy Green, Marsha Simmen and Joan Caster.

Others attending were Barbara Rainwater, Edith Cain, Paula Eastman, Rebecca Johnson, Sherrie and Shirley Staley, and Marilyn Thompson.

Angel food cake, ice cream and soft drinks were served and party favors made into Halloween characters from candy gum drops were given each guest.

The next regular meeting of Hilts PTA will be held at the schoolhouse Nov. 19.

Lee Morford, president of the Yreka High school PTA will be present, accompanied by a speaker to discuss the withdrawal of Yreka High school from Siskiyou County Union High School district. Questions both pro and con will be answered. Hornbrook parents are especially invited to attend the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Don True and sons of Ft. Jones were recent Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Blanchard and James. Mrs. True is their daughter.

Yell leaders at the Hilts school are the girls of the eighth grade class and in observance of the school colors they have chosen white blouses and red wool pleated skirts with one all white pom-pom and one all red pom-pom and pom-poms on their shoes, as their outfits for this school year.

Marilyn Thompson, Lee Roy Green, Barbara Rainwater and Marsha Simmen are the girls acting as yell leaders.
