GOLD HILL Progress Report Made

By MRS. CLYDE KELL
Gold Hill—Mark Boyden of the county surveyor's office presented a progress report on the work he has done on survey work in Gold Hill at a meeting of the city council recently. Mayor Milton Steinmetz presided.

Boyden said the base line from which to work was practically located. He will establish points for the Ramsey place on Sams Valley rd. and then begin work on locating street corners in the main part of the city. He expects to have this done by mid-December.

Everett Faber was granted permission to use the city road from Seventh st. to the old city dump location for entrance to a television project, that is under way on Nugget butte area.

Councilmen pointed out that citizens must meet the city code and fire marshal's orders when installing a chimney.

Mayor Steinmetz reviewed an ordinance covering the transportation of explosives formulated by the league of Oregon cities. The council will have the city attorney check the explosive ordinance to see if there are changes to be made in order to have the ordinance apply to the city of Gold Hill.

Another ordinance pertaining to the jury trial was approved by the council.

New fire hydrants will be ordered for installation on Fifth st. at Fifth and Sixth ave.

A discussion was held on the matter of allowing trailer houses for homes to be located in Gold Hill. More information will be obtained as to specifications on such installations for consideration at the December meeting of the city council.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones received word of the birth of a granddaughter, Yvonne Renee, who was born Oct. 29 in San Martin, Calif. The baby weighed 5 pounds, 8 ounces and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goupil. Mrs. Goupil is the former Dena Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herrman, McMinnville, are parents of a son, Brent Allen, born Nov. 1. The baby weighed 8 pounds, 5 ounces. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Delos Walker, and Mrs. Mary Hermann, Central Point, is the paternal grandmother.

Mrs. Alva Cook reports that her husband is staying at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McCormick, following his release from Glendale Community hospital. While it is necessary for him to have out patient care his address will be 1879 North Calano ave., Baldwin Park, Calif. Mrs. Cook said her husband wishes to extend his appreciation to his friends here who have sent cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Newnham and daughters, Cindy and Diane, have moved into their new home on Fourth ave.

A surprise housewarming party was given for Mr. and Mrs. Richard Abbott, at their new home on Lampman rd., Saturday, Nov. 7. Gifts for the new home were presented during the evening by the guests, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Newnham, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Straus, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parker, and daughter, Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newnham, and son, Wink Newnham, Mr. and Mrs. Edsel White, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graves, and Mrs. Abbott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cogswell, all of Gold Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Veltie Biles, and Miss Donna Hopper, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Jim Parker, Oakland, Calif.

Stanley Newnham played his guitar and sang and his wife showed colored slides.

The Abbotts recently moved here from Chula Vista, Calif. He is affiliated with his father-in-law, John Cogswell, in the grocery business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Marsden returned to their home here after a trip to Neph, Utah, where they visited his sister, Mrs. Ann Stephenson who was seriously ill. They went on to Tucson, Ariz., where they were guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Marsden Jr., and two children, Skip and Brenda. Mr. and Mrs. Benny Marsden and children came from their home in Phoenix, Ariz., to visit the Marsdens while they were at their son's home. Benny is a former resident of Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Falls, of Whittier, Calif., visited in southern Oregon several days recently at the homes of her brothers, W. G. Fink, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Fink, and at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jane Ham, in Phoenix. Mrs. Ham returned to Oregon with them after a visit in California.

Lee Marsden spent the week end of Nov. 7 and Nov. 8 visiting his daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. William Judy, Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Allen, Roseburg.

Nancy Meister and Shirley Kell were in charge of selecting and directing games for the last meeting of the Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship. Next week the youngsters will begin a series on etiquette under the direction of the leader, Mrs. Kermit Bickie. The soup course will be featured this time with serving, eating, clearing the table, and the blessing being shared by several individuals. Mike and Randy Turner will be in charge of games Sunday, Nov. 15.

The senior Methodist Youth Fellowship group will include eighth graders as well as all high school students who are interested. All students in this age group are invited to attend regardless of denomination. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griggs are supervising the group, which meets each Sunday at 6:30 p.m.
