CENTRAL POINT Education Week Observed

By DORIS HUGHES
Central Point—Bill Brewster, principal of Central Point schools, in connection with National Education Week this week, said teachers have asked parents to make a special effort to visit classrooms sometime this week.

Parents attention will be directed to the teaching of primary reading and it is hoped that many parents will take advantage of the opportunity to observe one or more reading groups, Brewster said.

Mrs. Zelma Foote, first grade teacher in the Jewett Elementary school, attended the teachers convention Friday and Saturday. More than 250 teachers from Oregon attended. The theme of the convention was "Time To Teach." Mrs. Foote is vice president of the Jackson County chapter of Oregon Education association.

Mrs. E. R. Harris, 765 Pitt View rd. was honored Saturday afternoon with a housewarming. Mrs. Harris had just finished decorating her home. Cohostesses were Mrs. M. B. Caster, Mrs. Rollin Rosenberg, and Mrs. Gregory Pitts. Guests were Mrs. Walter Drennen, Mrs. Lloyd Pallen, Mrs. M. E. Olson, Mrs. Joe E. Cruise, and Mrs. Effie Jane Caster.

As a part of National Education Week, the teachers of Jewett Elementary school have arranged a window display in the Faber Stratton Insurance office.

Halloween, officially opened at Jewett Elementary school with a parade at 12:30 p.m. with 320 youngsters taking part. After touring all the classrooms, they gathered to listen to Halloween music which had been previously taped during regular music periods. The children were dressed in costumes representing other gothic characters, and circus performers as well as Halloween ghosts, witches and goblins.

Beginning at 1:30 p.m. parties began in the decorated class rooms. Parents of the students helped at the parties.

and Mrs. John Smock; and for Mrs. Viola Schwab, Mrs. Roland Glass and Mrs. Ed Robinson.

Miss Joyce Carrigan was honored at a family birthday party recently. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Trautman, Stephen, Ronnie, Ginger, Janet, Julie and Kathy, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carrigan, Raymond, Tommy and Barbie, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lunsford, Randy and Rhonda and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Carrigan, David and Debbie.

Former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Beach of Veneta, were here on business last week end. Beach also attended a meeting at the state forestry department.

The Royal Neighbors of America met Nov. 3 at the home of Mrs. D. R. Hendrickson. Mrs. August Sukow was cohostess. Twelve members and one guest, Mrs. Elsa Walker, district deputy from Medford, attended. Mary Stinger, vice-oracle, presided in the absence of the oracle.

The next meeting will be Dec. 1 at the home of Mrs. Emma Collins. Mrs. Grace Kurz will be cohostess. The Christmas party will be held at this meeting and the election of officers for 1960 will also be held. Mrs. Stinger will bake the birthday cake and Mrs. D. R. Hendrickson, who won the mystery package, will supply the package for the December meeting.

The Womens Relief Corps met Oct. 31 at the Myers Holland Post. A potluck luncheon at noon was followed by a business meeting. General orders from the national and state departments were read, giving different projects for the Corps in 1960.

The ways and means committee made further plans for the rummage and plant sale. Members are requested to save discarded nylon hose and discarded clothing suitable for use in weaving. These will be used at the Camp White Domiciliary.

Mrs. Oscar Minnick announced the meeting of the Grandmothers clubs of America. Crater chapter, to be at 1 p.m. Monday, Nov. 16, at the home of Mrs. O. T. Wilson, 431 North Second st. Mrs. Frank Smith will be cohostess.

Mrs. Royal Greenman announced the next meeting of the Central Point Home Extension Unit to be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 18, at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Cotton.

TROOPS KEEP ORDER
Lagos, Nigeria—UPI—Troops were moving into remote sections of Nigeria today to help police keep order in the last weeks of the federal election campaign. The move followed reports of clashes with knives and axes in the Onitsha area. The voting is Dec. 12.

Washington—UPI—Panama has sent a new note to the United States insisting that the Nov. 3 anti-U.S. riots were provoked by U.S. troops and police in the Canaz Zone, it has been disclosed.
