

St. Mary's Foe Reported Good Fundamental Eleven

A good fundamental ball club which is bigger than the Crusaders. That's what the St. Mary's high football gang will be up against when it meets Sherman of Moro here Saturday night.

The two clubs mix at the Medford stadium in the Oregon Class B championship quarter-finals.

Sherman passed infrequently but showed a good running attack in defeating Wasco of Maupin in the playoff for the District 6 banner. The north central Oregon club used a split T attack with flankers. Wasco was unbeaten before losing 21 to 0 to Sherman in the district decider.

St. Mary's will go into the quarter-final after having no game last week end. The Crusaders defeated Merrill on Oct. 31 for the District 5 bunting. They had the following Monday off but were in pads Tuesday through Friday of last week and had an interquadrant tussle on Friday.

Coach Bill McKibbin reported his Crusader squad intact except for end Ron Daley, who suffered a broken collarbone in the Merrill game.

SPORTS PARADE

OSCAR FRALEY
Sport Writer United Press

San Francisco - (UPI) - Frayley's follies and the week end football "winners" and, once again, thank goodness Grandma taught me never to wager on such unpredictable "wags."

Northwestern over Michigan State - The Spartans are a team which has looked alternately great and pitiful. This could be one of their good weeks but Northwestern should make the big bounce back after blowing its prefect record.

Syracuse over Colgate-Two much all around.

Notre Dame over Pitt - On a hunch.

Penn over Columbia - Murder up front.

Harvard over Brown-The Cantabs found themselves.

ALSO: Boston College over Boston U., Navy over George Washington, Dartmouth over Cornell, Penn State over Holy Cross, Yale over Princeton, Bucknell over Temple, Buffalo over Gettysburg, Lehigh over Davidson, Lafayette over Tufts, Rutgers over Villanova.

Midwest
Oklahoma over Army - Injuries have cost the Cadets too much.

Wisconsin over Illinois - A bone crusher.

Purdue over Minnesota-Reigning stride.

Indiana over Michigan - A real tossup.

Also: Iowa over Ohio State, Kansas over Oklahoma State, Missouri over Kansas State, Nebraska over Colorado, Bowling Green over Delaware and Miami over Dayton.

West
USC over Baylor - Pride of the West.

California over Washington - The blueplate special.

UCLA over North Carolina State-Drop in class.

Oregon State over Stanford-Not much to choose.

Also: Oregon over Washington State, COP over Idaho, Air Force over Arizona, Colorado State over Utah, Utah State over Denver and Wyoming over New Mexico.

South
Auburn over Georgia - Backyard toughie.

Georgia Tech over Alabama - A shade the better.

Mississippi over Tennessee - Letdown after that big win.

LSU over Mississippi State - The big bounce.

Also: Clemson over Maryland, Duke over Wake Forest, North Carolina over Virginia, Kentucky over Xavier, Florida State over WM, West Virginia over VPI, VMI over Citadel, Miami over South Carolina and Vanderbilt over Tulane.

Southwest
Texas over TCU-Driving for the big season.

SMU over Arkansas - Depends on the bounce of the ball.

Rice over Texas Aggies - Could go either way.

Also: Houston over Texas Tech, Abilene Christian over Texas Western, Brigham Young over Arizona State, Hardin Simmons over New Mexico State, North Texas State over Tulsa and Trinity over West Texas State.

MATCH TENTATIVE
San Francisco - (UPI) - Yvon Durelle will meet Carl (Bobo) Olson here in a 10-round light-heavyweight bout Dec. 10 - but only if Durelle gets in his fight with George Chuvalo in Toronto Monday night without getting knocked out or badly cut. Both Durelle and Olson made unsuccessful attempts at winning Archie Moore's light-heavyweight crown. Moore stopped Durelle twice and flattened Olson once.

2 New Guards For Stanford

United Press International
Stanford, Calif. - (UPI) - The Stanford Indians held a long defensive drill Tuesday, the first two units working against Oregon State's single-wing attack.

Coach Jack Curcic called the club's defensive performance "sharp." He said the Indians would have two new guards for the OSC game this weekend, Ron Fernandes and Errol Scott.

PHILS SIGN YOUNGSTER

Philadelphia - (UPI) - The Philadelphia Phillies outbid five other major league clubs Tuesday in signing outfielder William Delessandro to a 1960 contract. Delessandro, 17, of the Reading, (Pa.) Junior American Legion team, will be assigned to a club after spring training next year.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

IN HIS entertaining "The Scandalous Scams," Harold Mehling tells the story of one Cassie Chadwick, who had a high old time—until the cops caught up with her—posing as the daughter of steel tycoon Andrew Carnegie. Cassie ostentatiously deposited huge bundles of "securities" (blank paper they turned out to be) in various safe deposit vaults, hinting that Papa Carnegie had given her another little bundle. Bankers and merchants nodded approvingly and gave her unlimited credit—at high rates of interest.

One day the charming Chadwick came upon a grand piano that struck her fancy. "How many of these do you have in stock?" she asked the store proprietor. "Twenty-seven," he told her. "Good," said Cassie, "I'll take them all"—and she sent one grand piano to each of 27 friends. They were among the chief mourners, of course, when Cassie was led away to the pokey.

Note from philosopher Joe E. Lewis: "You're only young once, but if you handle it right, once is enough."

TRIUMPH SOUGHT

Laurel, Md. - (UPI) - Tudor Era, denied victory through a disqualification a year ago, sought an unsullied triumph today in the eighth running of the $100,000 Washington (D.C.) International. Twelve thoroughbreds from nine countries were to run in the global classic. Never before have that many nations had representatives in the "olympics of horse racing" in any one year. Russia had Garnier and Flang, France had Midnight Sun and Mi Carina, Venezuela had Pensilvania, England had Aggressor, New Zealand had Up and Coming, Mexico had Lea-B., Australia had Vogel, Peru had Lightning and the U.S. had Bald Eagle as well as Tudor Era.

Scientists have counted more than 50 species of kangaroos, ranging from seven feet tall down to animals a foot high.
