Syracuse Made Whopping Favorite Over Colgate

New York—UPI—The college football oddsmakers, never famed for their generosity, today were quoting Syracuse as a whopping 36-point favorite for Saturday's meeting with Colgate.

It could be an "overlay." Sure, Syracuse is the nation's No. 1 team and is undefeated in seven games this season while Colgate has a dismal 1-6 record. But the Red Raiders have suffered only one shutout against Yale, scoring at least two touchdowns in each of their other six games.

Co if you like underdogs, Colgate and 36 points looks mighty inviting.

Jacksonville, Fla.—UPI—Louisiana State, Mississippi and Georgia are the leading contenders for an invitation to serve as host team in the Gator Bowl game here Jan. 2.

Second-ranked Texas is a six-point favorite over Texas Christian, third-ranked Southern California is picked to defeat Baylor by at least 14 points, and fourth-ranked Louisiana State is a 22-point choice to regain its winning form against Mississippi State.

Here is a rundown on the odds:

Friday Night

Vanderbilt 1 over Tulane, Texas Tech 1 over Houston, Notre Dame 3 over Pittsburgh, Auburn 3 over Georgia, Virginia Tech 3 over West Virginia, Northwestern 6 over Michigan State, Georgia Tech 6 over Alabama, SMU 6 over Arkansas, Princeton 3 over Yale, Indiana 3 over Michigan, Nebraska 3 over Colorado, Iowa 6 over Ohio State, Rice 6 over Texas A&M, Washington 6 over California, Kansas 7 over Oklahoma State, Boston college 7 over Boston university, Duke 7 over Wake Forest, North Texas State 7 over Tulsa, Oklahoma 7 over Army, Oregon State 8 over Stanford, Dartmouth 8 over Cornell.

All are members of the tough Southeastern conference and each have 7-1 records.

"That leaves my tennis plans up in the air. Whether we will get together or not on terms remains to be seen. Right now it's up in the air."
