

Wilkinson-Finegan Ceremony Held

An event of Saturday, November 7, was the wedding of Miss Catherine Judith Finegan to Donald Thurston Wilkinson. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Finegan, 618 South Holly street, and Mr. Wilkinson is a son of Mrs. John J. Wilkinson, 726 South Keenway drive, and the late Mr. Wilkinson.

The Rev. William McLeod celebrated the nuptial mass at 11 o'clock in the morning at Sacred Heart Catholic church. About 250 guests were present.

Bruno Pellegrini played the wedding music.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a full-length gown of white lace and peau de soie. The bodice was fashioned with long sleeves and sweetheart neckline trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent beads, and the billowing peau de soie skirt, made en train, had inserts of lace. Her bouquet was of white spider chrysanthemums.

Sister Attends
Miss Eileen Finegan was her sister's honor attendant. She wore a gown of tangerine colored taffeta made with sweetheart neckline trimmed with a back bow, and a full skirt. Other attendants were Mrs. Alan Keaton, Portland; Mrs. Jack Moad and Miss Nancy Hamilton. Their gowns matched Miss Finegan's, and all carried crests of feathered bronze Fuji chrysanthemums.

Patrick Burrington, Eugene, was best man for Mr. Wilkinson and ushers were William Driscoll Jr., Robert Shores and Fitzhugh Brewer.

The church decorations of coral chrysanthemums had been arranged by Mrs. Raymond Miksche, aunt of the bridegroom. Mrs. Miksche also arranged flowers for the reception, held at Rogue Valley Country club. White spider chrysanthemums and Virginia creeper decorated the bride's table.

Many Assist
Mrs. Vincent Nicoletti was hostess chairman for the reception. Mrs. E. R. Setzler took charge of the guest book and pouring coffee were Mrs. John Jensen, Mrs. Vernon A. Turpin, Mrs. Peter Trim, cousin of the bridegroom, Mrs. Richard Hogan, Mrs. Thomas Bickerstaff, aunt of the bridegroom from Mill Valley, Calif.; and Mrs. Thomas Donahue.

Presiding at the punch bowls were Miss Esther Smith, Miss Donna Shore, Mrs. William Farnsworth, Mrs. Cleo Taylor, Mrs. Douglas Clark and Mrs. Lloyd Benckson.

Mrs. Shelby Tuttle, Mrs. William Driscoll Jr., Mrs. Chester Guches, Mrs. O. C. Jensen, Mrs. Robert Shores and Mrs. Farrell Fisch cut and served the wedding cake.

Miss Mary Ann Wilkinson, Ashland, and Miss Patty Ann MacLauchlan, Eugene, nieces of the bridegroom, took charge of the gifts and the bridegroom's cake.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gown of blue wool with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a gray dress with draped skirt and black accessories. Their corsages were white orchids.

Mr. Wilkinson and his bride traveled to San Francisco for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a brown suit with brown accessories and an orchid. They will be at home at 1320 South Peach street, Medford.

The bride attended Medford High school and Seattle university and was graduated from Southern Oregon college. She is a teacher in the Phoenix elementary school.
