

Installation Conducted By Central Point Bethel

Central Point—Bethel 38, International Order of Jobs Daughters, installed Miss Rachel Hamilton as honored queen in a ceremony held November 3 in the Masonic temple. Also installed were the Misses Jeanette Purdy, senior princess; Rebecca Ferrell, junior princess; Ellen Goff, guide; Janet Hobbs, marshal. Miss Cathy Harsh was installed as second messenger.

Installing officer for the evening was Miss Kay Askwith, past queen of Bethel 38. Assisting her were the Misses Judy Taylor, queen of Bethel 56, Shady Cove, and Barbara Gordon, queen of Bethel 55, Medford. Miss Nancy Stewart, Bethel 38, was chaplain and other officers of 38, already installed, assisted in the ceremony.

The crowning ceremony was conducted by Crater chapter, Order of De Molay, under the direction of Leslie Goff, master counselor.

Mrs. Effie Kurtz, Medford, sang the altar song, "The Golden Key" and theme song "Autumn Leaves," accompanied by Mrs. Gaston Floux.

Also escorted were the Misses Sara Vanderburgh, queen, and Shirley Champlain, junior princess of Bethel 22, Ashland, Micki Noble, queen of Bethel 14, Medford, and Mrs. Robert Carter, past queen of Bethel 38.

Attending were four past guardians of Bethel 38, the Mesdames William Askwith, A. A. Seuness, Paul Snook and Charles Meyers.

Miss Hamilton was presented a bouquet of roses by Archie Purdy, representing the worshipful master of Masonic Lodge 135. Miss Lee Hamilton, also a bethel officer, presented her with a gavel from the family. Mrs. Sult, representing the grand guardian, Mrs. Joe Rogers, Independence, gave her a myrtlewood pin. She also received the queen's pin and traveling tiara from Mrs. Purdy, guardian.

Seven year old Samuel Hamilton escorted the Bible. The queen's niece, two-year-old Caralee Hamilton, dressed in a replica of the queen's dress, was to have carried the crown but, overwhelmed by the large audience, she refused to take part.

Women's Club Sponsors Project to Aid Greece

Money to buy CARE self-help kits of tools for residents of Greece will be collected in coming days by Travel Study club, of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs.

Donations may be placed in boxes to be found in several stores and places of business, and a tea Tuesday will aid the project. "Willing workers desperately in need of a livelihood in Greece will be helped by this project," according to Mrs. Clay M. Lee, president of the sponsoring club. She added that women of the Oregon Federation gain great personal satisfaction from the CARE aid they provide.

Proof that the CARE project is a worthwhile one comes through a letter from Robert F. Linder, chief of the mission, written to Travel Study club last year.

"You have made a valuable contribution to help the needy in Greece, and on their behalf we thank you," Mr. Linder wrote.

"The fact that out of about 8,000,000 people living here, 3 million, or over one-third, are classed as indigents, is a point that speaks for itself. Of these indigents, over 20 per cent live on less than $2 per week. Greece does not have many natural resources and harsh winters, occasional earthquakes take their toll of human lives and destroy what meager crops the struggling farmer can raise. The country is still suffering from the destruction of the war and the Communist Revolt.

Nevada Wedding Of Interest Here

Prospect—Of interest here is news of the wedding Monday, November 2, in Reno, Nevada, of Mrs. Sydney Lund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Larson, Prospect, to Richard Parr, Culver City, Calif.

The bride attended schools in Prospect. Her husband is an engineer for Howard Hughes industries and the newlyweds are residing in Culver City.

Pi Beta Phi To See Films

Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi, national social sorority, will meet Tuesday, November 17, to view slides of Holt House, the sorority's memorial to its founders. The meeting will be at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Caulkins, 3790 Calhoun Road, Phoenix.

Holt House was purchased by Major Holt, three times mayor of Monmouth, Ill., in 1853 for a home for his family and later for students attending Monmouth college.

Fourteen years after this, in the room of Ada Bruen and Libbie Brook, twelve college women gathered to found the first fraternity for women, I. C. Sorosis, which later publicly adopted the Greek name of Pi Beta Phi.

The sorority bought Holt House in 1939, restored it, and now has a useful and living memorial to its founders as the house is used by many community groups for a meeting place.

All alumnae in this area are invited to attend the meeting. Devotions will be led by Miss Janie Smith and Miss Annette Gray will present a program on the humanitarian aspects of the United Nations.

This is a business women's organization and any interested employed woman will be welcomed.

Fall Initiation Set By Society

For the annual formal fall initiation of new members, Epsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, international society for women teachers, will meet Saturday, November 21, at 4:30 p.m., in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel.

Following the initiatory ritual, dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Dr. Alvin Fellers, dean of men at Southern Oregon college, will speak on the topic, "Evaluating Our Educational Product."

Mrs. Mabel Hundley, social chairman, will be assisted by Mrs. Georgiana Beier, Mrs. Blanche Canode, Miss Gladys Durrand, and Mrs. Ivah Murray.

Ceremony Held at Clubhouse

Miss Darlene Frances Rozell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rozell, Sweet Home, became the bride of Stanley James Steege, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Webster, 401 East 12th street, at a ceremony November 1 in the Girls Community club.

The Rev. William C. Piper of First Christian church performed the rites at 1 o'clock before about fifty guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Donald Rozell, Sweet Home, wore a black and white checked suit and carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Vivian Perry, Sweet Home, her attendant, wore a white suit dress and carried white carnations.

Richard Steege, Charleston, Ore., was best man for his brother. Ushers were Rockie Rowe, Oroville, Calif., and Ronald McClaffin, Coos Bay, both nephews of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Ruth Clark sang traditional wedding music accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Munshaw.

A reception for the young couple followed at the club. Mrs. Jacob Wagner, Coos Bay, cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Cyril Gay poured coffee. Punch was poured by Mrs. Verle Strickler and Mrs. Clay Parker, both of Bend.

The newlyweds are residing at 401 East 12th street.

Nail-Shaped Spice
New York—(UPI)—Cloves, the spice used to season ham, pork and baked goods, derives its name from the French "clou," meaning nail. The spice is nail-like in shape.

Events Planned By Two Groups

Shady Cove—Coming holiday events of Steelhead post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and auxiliary were announced recently at a meeting. A Thanksgiving potluck dinner for veterans, their families and friends has been scheduled for 2 p.m. Thanksgiving day in the post hall. The post will provide the turkey.

On December 18 at 7 p.m. the veterans and their families plan a potluck dinner and Christmas gift exchange. Each parent is to bring a small gift for each child in his family.

Mrs. Edward Leaming, chairman of polio inoculations in the district, reported that shots were to be given November 14 in Shady Cove. It was also reported that Mrs. Eve Prentice furnished transportation for Vera Thompson, teacher of the blind, while the teacher visited the valley recently.

Mrs. Ken Oliver has been called to South Dakota due to the death of her brother.

Mrs. R. L. Atkins was reinstated as a member of the auxiliary. The group set visitation dates at the Camp White domiciliary for November 13 and 27.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dan Krotz and Mrs. Seth Hornseth.

Golden Link Class To Meet Thursday

Golden Link class of First Baptist church will hold the monthly meeting Thursday, November 19, at the home of Mrs. Crocker Hunter, 50 Valley View drive.

A dessert luncheon at 1 o'clock will be followed by devotions and a business meeting.
