

Activities Of Leagues Reviewed

Many activities have been carried on by the Home League of The Salvation Army in recent weeks.

September 29th eight women traveled to Portland to attend the fall rally of the Oregon corps. Civil defense was stressed.

October 15 a local rally was held at the Citadel. A luncheon was served to more than 50 ladies, with women from the Klamath Falls Home League joining the Medford corps. A homemaker's quiz, a Home League quiz, and hat parade were on the program. The hats depicted the husband's work, or the ladies' hobbies. Prizes were given for the most original, prettiest, and funniest. Tea was served the Klamath Falls women before they returned home.

Home League Sunday was observed October 25. The league had a special meeting and luncheon. This year the two league secretaries planned the day's activities.

Mrs. Syrena Gay and Mrs. Edith Phillips were awarded plaques for being the oldest leaguers present. Each has served more than 30 years, and during that time both have served as league secretaries; both are still active. Mrs. Gay is treasurer for the night league; and Mrs. Phillips is chaplain for the day league. The local officers of each league were presented with a "red rose" by the secretary in appreciation for their assistance.

Senior Captain Ricken presented the secretaries, Mrs. Fred Mast of the day league, and Mrs. LaRue Naffziger, night league, with flowering plants.

Mrs. Madge Nowlin gave a reading, Patrick Bandy and Lt. David Petersen sang and Mrs. Millicent Bandy spoke.

Within the next few weeks the leagues will begin work on gifts for the hospitals, rest homes, and Camp White for the Christmas season. Preparations are also being made for the annual Christmas bazaar to be held December 5 at the Girls' Community club.

Reames Social Club To Hold Luncheon

Reames Social Club will hold the monthly luncheon at 12 o'clock Wednesday, November 18, at the Medford Masonic hall. Mrs. Stewart Pennington, president, will preside.

The luncheon and business meeting will be followed by an afternoon at cards. All Eastern Star members are invited to attend.

Mrs. Harry F. Nordwick will be chairman and Mrs. Evelyn Hendricks, co-chairman, assisted by Mrs. Frank Stratton, Mrs. Fred Lawrence, Mrs. Frances Bean and Miss Maxine Meyers.

Mrs. Dana Shelton, Cutler City, Ore., with Mrs. Harvey Parrott (right) one of those assisting. Mrs. Shelton, president of the Lions auxiliaries in Oregon, visited several units in southern Oregon last week. The event was held at the home of Mrs. John Keaveny, (left)

Auxiliary Head Honored Guest

Jacksonville — Mrs. John Keaveny, Heuners lane, Jacksonville, and members of Jacksonville Lions auxiliary, honored Mrs. Dana Shelton, Cutler City, Ore., Oregon auxiliary president at a party Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Keaveny's home.

Other guests were Mrs. Frank Christian, Talent, state vice president, and Mrs. Dan Dwyer, Medford, District "B" director.

The Jacksonville auxiliary announces that the next project will be a breakfast at the Jacksonville Community hall from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m., Sunday, November 29. Proceeds will finance a semi-formal teen age dance during the Christmas holiday season.

Women Attend Meeting of Club In Grants Pass

Rogue River — Mrs. Carl Peterson, Ashland, president of the First district, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, was an overnight guest of Mrs. Lynabel Dick, president of the Rogue River Civic Improvement club, November 5. Mrs. Ralph O. Chapin, Rogue River, public affairs chairman for First district, and Mrs. Dick accompanied Mrs. Peterson to a meeting of the Grants Pass Junior Women's club at Grants Pass.

Mrs. Walter Brown, Klamath Falls, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, spoke on the purpose and aims of the federation. Other guests included Mrs. Fred Gast, Portland, first vice-president of the Oregon Federation, and Mrs. W. A. Burnap, Corvallis, second vice-president.

Medford Garden Club Plans Christmas Show Next Month

Medford Garden club will sponsor a Christmas show to be held Thursday and Friday, December 10-11, at the Jackson County Courthouse auditorium. This show is the first of its kind ever given by the club and is non-competitive.

Entries for "Holiday Splendor" will be received from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Thursday, December 10. Show information is available from the chairmen, Mrs. Ira Fitzgerald, Mrs. L. P. Rentschler or the club president, Mrs. A. O. Floyd.

Initiation of new members was conducted at the most recent meeting of the club in The Courthouse auditorium by Mrs. Floyd and the membership chairman, Mrs. Charles Stearns. A welcome gift of house plants was presented to Mrs. R. J. Bringle, Mrs. Claire Douglas, Mrs. Boyd Flanders, Mrs. James Hoskins, Mrs. Ruth E. Risley, Mrs. Don Robins, Mrs. Herbert A. Sims, Mrs. Florence Stacey, Mrs. G. G. Slagg, Mrs. James Bailey and Mrs. Elbert Kellogg.

The horticulture chairman, Mrs. LeRoy Cline, introduced the flower of the month, the chrysanthemum. Mrs. Howard Busch gave a detailed history of this popular perennial which originated in China in 1688. She gave many ideas for their propagation and culture and displayed many specimens of the newer varieties. She closed her program by offering rooted slips from her large collection.

Guests for the meeting were Mrs. Charles Henry, Mrs. E. W. Shock, Rogue River and Mrs. Clifford Burgess, Salem. Prizes were won by Mrs. LeLand Knox, Mrs. William Naylor and Mrs. Busch.

Mrs. E. M. Wallin, conservation chairman, read an article on "Water Conservation" and commented on the "wonderful water" available in Medford.

Tea was served at the close of the meeting, with Mrs. E. F. Archer and Mrs. W. C. Ganaway pouring. The committee was Mrs. Carol Miller, Mrs. Forest Van Vleck and Mrs. A. C. Allen.

Valley Navy Mothers To Meet on Tuesday

Rogue Valley Navy Mothers club will meet Tuesday, November 17, at 10 a.m. for an all-day session at the home of Mrs. E. E. Reames, 6236 Crater Lake highway.

Sewing and quilt tying will be followed by a potluck luncheon at 12 o'clock.

All mothers of Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard personnel are invited to attend.

Church Women Announce Dates of Annual Bazaars

With Christmas only 32 shopping days away valley church women have stepped up their preparations for the annual Christmas bazaars and sales held here.

The Christian Women's Fellowship of First Christian church, Ninth street and Oakdale avenue, has scheduled the annual event Friday, November 20, from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Items included will be toys, aprons, fancy work and a country store. Luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. and a smorgasbord will be served from 5:30 until 9 p.m.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist church will hold a Christmas Gift Festival instead of the usual bazaar this year. The Festival is scheduled for Thursday, December 3, in the church basement and will be held from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m.

Handmade Gifts
A snack bar will provide refreshments throughout the day during the event. Gifts for sale will include Christmas goodies, mince meat and fruit cake, cards, decorations, and many handmade gifts. Linens and Christmas candles will also be available, according to Mrs. Charles Gustafson, chairman of the Festival.

The First and Westminster Presbyterian churches will hold a combined bazaar Friday, November 20, at First Presbyterian church, Eighth and Holly streets. The hours are from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. Luncheon will be served from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. and the Men's club will serve a ham dinner from 6 until 8 p.m. Christmas Fantasy is the theme for the bazaar and items to be sold will include attic treasures, fruit cake and mince meat, other bakery items, ornaments, candles, Christmas stockings, corsages, aprons and books.

Coffee and rolls will be served throughout the day. A free nursery will be open until 5 p.m.

Gift Food Sale

Members of St. Anne's Altar society have scheduled their luncheon and gift-food sale for Monday, November 30, at the Girls' Community club, 229 North Bartlett street.

Luncheon will be served from noon until 2 p.m. The gifts, baked foods and candy sale will continue from noon until 9 p.m.

In charge of the various committees for the event are Mrs. Oscar Halboth, Mrs. John A. Carnegie, Mrs. E. E. Ford, Mrs. L. L. Rentz, Mrs. Martin Spielbusch, Mrs. Doris Vola, Mrs. Alberta Haas, Mrs. Elmer Ness, and Mrs. Robert Messer.

Sale tables will be managed by Mrs. Edward J. Guldman, Mrs. R. A. Naumes, Mrs. John Shea, Mrs. L. E. McMurray, Mrs. George Holzgang and Mrs. Everett Gosch.

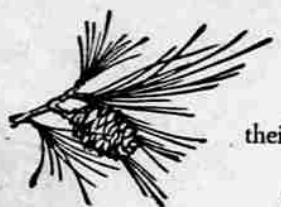

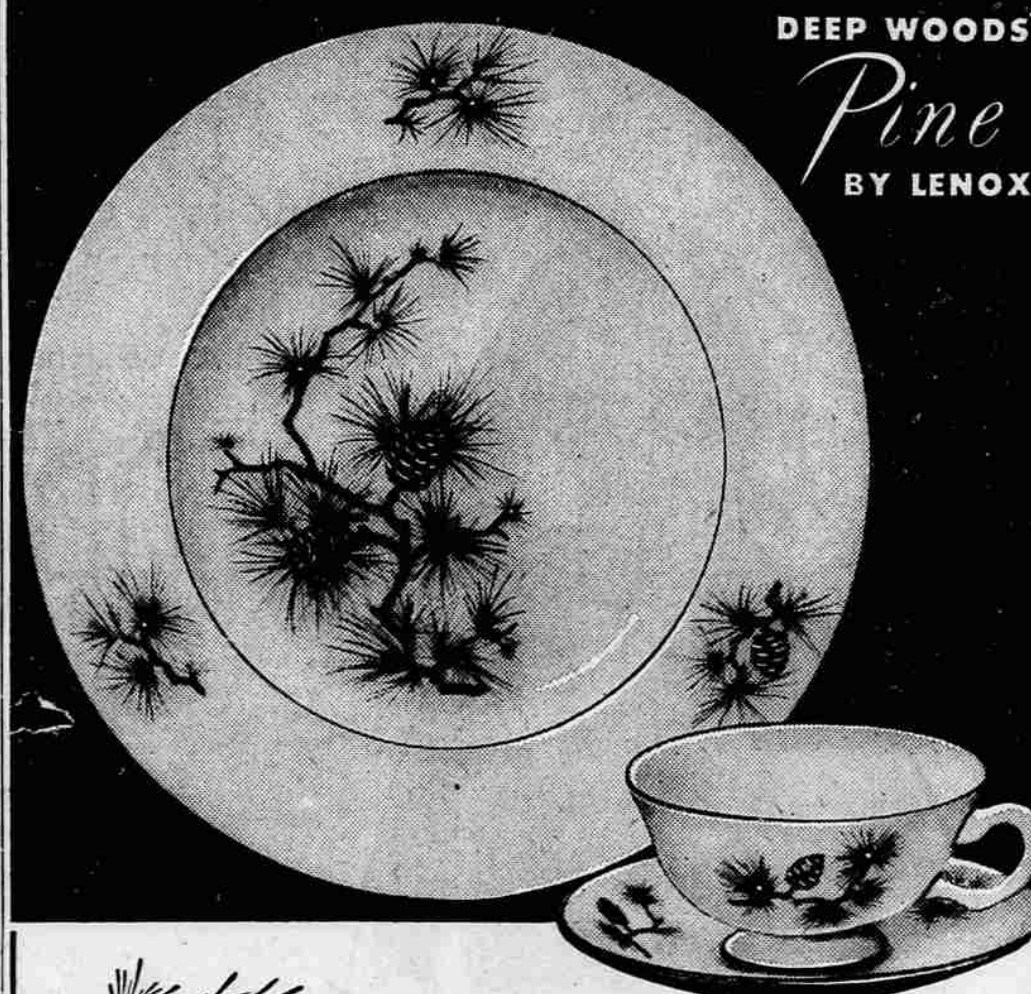

Washington, D.C.—Wearing a short jacketed lilac wool suit, a mink beret and a big smile, Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower is shown at a luncheon given in her honor by the women of the Republican Capitol Hill club in Washington. The luncheon was a birthday party for the First Lady, held a few days early. Mrs. Eisenhower's birthday was November 14. (UPI Telephoto)
