road. Mrs. John Lowery, chairman, will preside, and the project lesson will be led by Mrs. Lewis C. Dusenberry and Mrs. Clifford E. Sikes.

Mrs. Phil Alieki, Mrs. Frank Linden and Mrs. D. H. Davis are on the luncheon committee.

Willow Springs

The home of Mrs. Richard Savage will be meeting place for Willow Springs unit Tuesday beginning at 10:30 a.m. The meeting has been set ahead of the regular schedule because of Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Randal Kay and Mrs. Lester Card will be leaders. Potluck luncheon will be served at noon.

Phoenix

Members of the Phoenix unit will meet Friday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Galen Hackett, 4127 Colver road west of Phoenix. The lesson will be given in the morning by Mrs. Ray Hendrickson and Mrs. J. O. N. Polling, with the business meeting in the afternoon.

A planned luncheon will be served. Women who have not been contacted are to call Mrs. Poling, Spring 3-1235. Each one attending should bring table service.

Grandmother Club To Hold Meeting

Central Point-Crater chapter, Grandmother Clubs of America, will meet at 1 p.m. Monday, November 16, at the home of Mrs. Harry Tonn, 130 Cedar street. Mrs. O. T. Wilson will be hostess.

Helping with arrangements for the fall show of Central Point Garden club are (at left) Mrs. M. H. Cotton and Mrs. Charles Ghelardi. The show, which will feature corsages, arrangements and other articles made from dried, treated, painted or artificial material, will be held Thursday and Friday, November 19-20, at the Jackson County courthouse auditorium. The public is invited to attend the show.

Garden Club Show Set Thursday

Central Point-Final plans for the fall show, "Autumn and Holiday Arrangements" were made at the November meeting of the Central Point Garden club. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Donald E. Faber.

The show will be held in the Jackson County courthouse auditorium Thursday, November 19 from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. and on November 20 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. A silver tea will be served.

The flower entries will not be judged. All entries are welcome, according to Mrs. Gaston Flaux, show chairman. Entries will be received at the auditorium from 9 a.m. to 12 noon November 19. The only rule governing the material used is that it cannot be fresh plant material. Dried, treated, painted or artificial material and accessories are permitted.

Mrs. Flaux states that any of the following committee chairmen may be called for specific information: Mrs. Everett Young, president; Mrs. Robert Schmitt, publicity; Mrs. L. G. Gentner and Mrs. C. H. Ault, tea chairman; Mrs. M. H. Cotton, guest book; Mrs. Ivan Skyrman, autumn; Mrs. Wallace West, Thanksgiving; Mrs. Charles Ghelardi, New Year; Mrs. Lester Gorden, winter corsages; and Mrs. Ralph Hixson, third dimension pictures.

Following the recent business meeting, Dale Coverstone of the Berrydale Flower Farm spoke on "Landscaping Our Gardens." He pointed out that simplicity, scale, balance, focalization and third dimension are some of the important factors needed to achieve a pleasant design. He demonstrated with a variety of shrubs and plants which were particularly adaptable for use in creating desired effects. Mrs. Wallace West gave a demonstration of line arrangement and Mrs. John Holmer spoke on horticulture.

The Central Point Garden club has started a "Garden Club Corner" in the Central Point library where they have a member on duty from 1 to 3 p.m. on Mondays to answer questions and to help with any gardening problems. Magazines, books and other material are available. Of interest to many is the question box where written queries may be left at times when a gardener is not on duty.

The December meeting will be a potluck luncheon with a plant exchange. This meeting will begin at 12:00 December 2 at the home of Mrs. C. W. Anhorn, Freeman road. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. E. P. Stone and Mrs. O. T. Wilson.

To Elect

Officers for the coming year will be elected at a meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge Monday at 8 p.m. in the IOOF hall, 221 West Sixth street. Mrs. R. W. Smith, noble grand, will preside.

Roxy Ann Court Sets Initiation

Candidates will be initiated at the meeting Thursday, November 19, of Roxy Ann court, Order of the Amaranth, at the Masonic temple at 8 p.m.

Men's night will be observed with Marshall Day, associate patron and general chairman, assisted by Hal Bishop and Merritt Swing, decorations, and Charles Hoppe, program.

Cut dishwashing time by doing the glassware first, and letting the silver soak until last.

Veterans, Auxiliary Plan Social Evening

Veterans of World War I, Barracks 540, and auxiliary, will have a social evening Wednesday, November 18, at the Girls' Community club, 229 North Bartlett street.

The event will begin with a turkey dinner at 6:30 p.m. and cards will be played during the evening. All veterans of World War I and their wives in Medford and vicinity are invited.

For sparkle, add a few drops of ammonia to the water in which glassware is to be washed.

Program Announced For Center

The fall and winter program for the Senior Activity Center was released Saturday at the Southern Oregon Conference on Aging when leaflets on the leisure time programs sponsored by the local Rogue Valley Council on Aging were distributed.

An exhibit, including metal craft, oil and pastel paintings as well as woodcarvings, all by members of the classes carried on at the Center during the last year, was a part of several displays arranged for the conference.

Mrs. Elsa Walker was exhibit chairman assisted by Miss Margaret Ossenbruge of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists and Miss Katherine Fonkin, Hedrick Junior High school art teacher.

Exhibitors in the Center group were members of the art class. They included John Bodish, Mrs. Vera Wright, Mrs. Stevie McMahon, Mrs. Harriet Bates, Mrs. Ivan Schuck, the Rev. Eric Robbathon, Mrs. Nellie Wall and Mrs. Nettie Williams.

Woodcarvers exhibiting were Mrs. Bernice Janosky, Mrs. E. E. Evans, Glenn VanWinkle and Mrs. Ethel Byers. Metal craft plaques and Christmas decoration articles were shown by Mrs. Ena Foss and Mrs. Mary Frederick.

On the new program, an art class will meet on Tuesday, November 17, and the wood carving class on Wednesday, November 18, both at 1 p.m. Monday at 10 a.m. the new rug making class will continue to meet. Those who attend are to take a sack lunch and stay over for the Arm Chair Travel group.

Monday at 1 p.m. movies will be shown for the first time taken in Europe. They will be shown by Mrs. E. H. Loveness. Mr. and Mrs. Loveness plan to leave for an Oriental and south Pacific trip November 30 and plan to show pictures again on their return.

Wednesday, November 18, preceding the wood carving class, the newly formed Dramatic group will meet at 10 a.m. under the direction of Mrs. Max Wimmer.

The Center orchestra made its first public appearance at the Southern Oregon Conference under the direction of Edward Root, retired county music teacher and band leader. Appearing in the group which played and sang were Mr. Root, violinist; Mrs. Maude Arnold, pianist; Mrs. Pearl Spackman, drums; Mrs. Ena Foss, John Gribble and Mrs. Edith Whillock, flutaphones; Mrs. Ann Divert, Mrs. Rilla Norris, and Mrs. Clarence Evans, melodicas; Mr. Evans, guitar and mouthorgan, and Pat Graham, banjo. James Forbes who has also played the drums could not appear because of illness.

William T. Bolger, a professional musician for 72 years, recently joined the group to play the flute. Mr. Bolger who is now 91 years old, holds the present record as the oldest member of the Senior Center. Mr. Root said that more violins are needed in the orchestra. The group practices each Thursday at 10 a.m. following the Spanish class which begins at 9. Many of the group played their instruments for the first time last spring when the class was organized.
