

Executive Board Of Local Council On Aging to Meet

The executive board of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging will meet at 3 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 24, in the Senior Activity Center on East Jackson st. to review and report on recommendations from the Southern Oregon Regional conference on aging here last Saturday.

Panel chairmen, Mrs. Chester Guches, William Hoxie, Col. Clarence Williams and Dr. Frank Roberts, will report on recommendations made in their areas. Mrs. C. D. Thatcher, Mrs. Harry Fuller, Robert Haworth and Mrs. Rita Holmes, recorders, have been transcribing discussions, some of which were recorded on tape.

The conference report will be recorded in the state council office in Salem, and will serve as part of the basis for the April, 1960, state conference on aging.

About 250 Attend
About 250 persons from Jackson, Josephine, Klamath and Curry counties attended the conference here, which was considered successful, according to Frank Glonning, chairman.

Delegates from the four counties attended panel discussions on health, employment, housing and recreation for older people. A total of 167 attended a luncheon at the First Methodist church, site of the conference.

Members of the Medford Fifty Plus club served on a reception committee. They included Mrs. Mary Frederick, president, Dr. Roberts, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Elsie Trowbridge, Mrs. Minnie Bolen, Edward Eick on the information desk, Hans Jenson, Ed Walters, Clarence Evans, John Gribble and Mrs. Neetie Williams.

Registration Desk
In charge of the registration desk were Mrs. Thatcher, chairman of the arrangements committee, and Mrs. Elsa Baker, Mrs. Rilla Norris, Mrs. Lillian Greenman, Mrs. Clarence Evans and Mrs. Cora Bashaw. Mrs. Holmes, librarian at Camp White, handled advanced registrations.

The exhibit committee was complimented on the hobby and crafts exhibits from Camp White, the Senior Activity Center and by individuals. Among individuals who exhibited items were Mrs. Effie Calhoun, Mrs. Lester Childs, Mrs. Mildred Jefferey and Mrs. E. A. Brockway. The Jackson county library, the state council on aging, and the health, education and welfare department also had displays of literature.

The Senior Activity Center orchestra presented three concerts during the conference.

Members of the state council on aging who attended the conference included Mrs. Christine Micelli, Roseburg; Dr. Walter Brodie, Oregon City; Mrs. Marshall Cornet, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Enid Rankin, Medford.

Pacific Co-Ops Conclude Meeting

Portland-Portland Pacific Co-operatives, representing farm coops, from Oregon, Washington and Idaho, concluded its convention Wednesday. General Manager Charles Baker of Walla Walla, Wash., told the 550 delegates that the group broke its all-time sales volume record in fiscal 1958-59 with more than 30 million dollars in sales.

Among resolutions adopted was one putting the organization on record against a railroad plan for a reduction in export of grain freight rates. The group said it felt a reduction would be detrimental to Columbia River water transportation.

Another resolution passed asked management of the Co-operatives to consider the possibility of instituting a petroleum credit card for farm co-op members.

Salt Lake City-Portland-The police report today listed the following items stolen from Mrs. Nancy Hall's car: One portable radio, two dolls, and one "authentic shrunken head from Manila."
