CAVE JUNCTION Fire Destroys Home

By MARGARET CROWL
Cave Junction — Fire of undetermined origin burned a home on the Hester property south of Selma recently.

The fire had gained such headway before being reported that the Illinois Valley Rural Fire district concentrated on saving adjacent buildings. Mr. and Mrs. Hester recently had moved into another house so there were not many personal items in the house which burned.

Robert Nolan has purchased two lots facing Redwood highway and is considering building a self service drive-in. Light lunches, ice cream and sandwiches will constitute the menu. Nolan's plans are not complete as yet and may change as to what he will finally build. The lots were purchased from Harlan Nelson of Belleflower, Calif.

The accounting firm of Welden and Stilling of Grants Pass has purchased the Valley Bookkeeping Service from Mrs. Amelia (Dick) Jesinghaus, who until recently, was Cave Junction city recorder. Mrs. Alice Beall, who has been in charge of the office since Mrs. Jesinghaus moved to Grants Pass, will remain with the firm.

About 100 veterans, their families and friends attended the potluck supper at the Legion auxiliary hall Wednesday, Nov. 11. Visitors from Grants Pass included Mr. and Mrs. Ben Coutant, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Prow and daughter, Shirley, and Mr. and Mrs. (Froggy) Reherd.

A capacity crowd attended the Eagles talent show in the Kerby school gym Friday. Tap and acrobatic dances, ballet, baton twirling, vocal selections, instrumental solos and duets, a sword dance, piano solos and an African voodoo dance were included in the show. Winners were: first, Melvin Cullison, of Grants Pass, playing an accordion; second, Paul Beard of Cave Junction, a piano solo; third, Tamara Mars, Grants Pass, dancing the African voodoo dance; fourth, Vanita Johnson, Cave Junction, vocal solo; fifth, Christie Campbell, Grants Pass, tap dance.

The harvest home dinner at the Evergreen school was considered a success. About 300 people were served and Mrs. Clifford Fink, president of the Evergreen PTA, said $150.85 was cleared on the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. William Broeffle's baby daughter, reported being sent to Portland for a serious thyroid condition, is still in Josephine General hospital and is improving. The baby was born Tuesday in the hospital and is the second daughter for the Broeffles. It had been planned to send both mother and daughter to Portland.

William C. Friend, of Grants Pass, commander of District 13, American Legion, has received word from National Headquarters in Indianapolis, and Martin B. Mc-

Knealy, national commander, of his appointment as a member of the membership and post activities committee of the Legion. His term will run until the close of the 1960 fall meeting of the national executive committee.

Friend will be in contact with National Headquarters concerning the progress being made on the 1960 membership campaign and has been charged to set a good example by winning a bronze boot signifying the signing up of 15 members for the new year.

IV High Letterman's club and the FFA announce that there are more than 20 bouts scheduled for the smoker Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. in the high school gym.

Mrs. Fred Salvage and Mrs. Earl Sturgis were hostesses for eight tables of pinocle at the auxiliary card party Saturday. High scores were held by Alvin Hawkins and Mrs. Miller, second high, Tex Clifford and Mrs. Charlotte Slack. Door prize went to Ed George. The next party will be Nov. 28.

Mrs. Mabel Villaire entertained the Valley bridge club with a luncheon and afternoon of cards in her home in Grants Pass Wednesday. Those attending were Mesdames Ivan Burr, George Webb, Harry Hartwell, Harry Smith, John Smith, Lou Krauss, Floyd Wells, George Thrasher, G. M. McFarland, Fred Nelson, Peggy Milburn and Gladys King. Mrs. Margaret Monroe was unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Glines, of Ocean Lake, visited in the valley Saturday night and Sunday. They stayed at the Harry Hartwell home.

Nine members of the Cave Junction Legion Post and auxiliary attended a potluck dinner meeting of District 13, American Legion, at Grants Pass Monday night. Those attending were Commander Winchester of Glenn Morrison Post, Cave Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Les Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Art Kellert, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haslock, Mrs. Fred Salvage and Mrs. Blake Miller.

Zuleima Illinois Valley Nile club will meet at the home of Mrs. Hal Moore in Kerby Tuesday, Nov. 24, at 8 p.m. This is a regular meeting, and future meetings will be held on the fourth Tuesday each month.

Commentator Says U. S. Using Tricks

Moscow—UPI—A Soviet commentator accused the United States Wednesday night of resorting to cold war tricks with the publication of a pamphlet on American policy toward China, including non-recognition of the Communist regime.

V. Kharkov, official Tass news agency commentator, asked "why State Department officials, at a time when the

Bonnie Goehring Wins Eagle Point Talent Contest

Eagle Point—Bonnie Goehring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Edge, Brophy rd., Eagle Point, was grand prize winner in the second annual talent show at the Eagle Point grade school gymnasium Saturday.

Her accordion solo, "Tranquillo Overture," was considered best by Judges Mrs. C. P. Champlin, Miss Rosemary Tokar and Mrs. Margaret Tokar, all of Medford. First place winners in their divisions included Louise Humphrey, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Humphrey, Eagle Point, ballet dance, beginners; Randy Ullom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ullom, Eagle Point, accordion, junior; Donald Carnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carnes, Eagle Point, accordion, intermediate division; Sonja Betts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lind, route 1, Eagle Point, pantomimes, senior division; and Delvin and Merle Ford, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Ford, Camp White, accompanied by Merle on the guitar, singing, group division.

Honorable mention went to the three Goehring sisters, who finished a close second in the group division competition. Other entrants included Caroline Ulrich, accordion; Sandra Charters, baton twirling; Sheila Charters, 3-year-old baton twirler; Tim Palm, trombone; Donna Millard, vocal; Lola Ackerman, vocal; Linda Harnish, acrobatic solo; Celia and Diane Putman, vocal duet; Evelyn Clark, tap dance; Dianna Putman, accordion; Paulette Anderson and Sandra Charters, vocal duet; Arthur Harbison, baritone horn; Genalee Sinclair, baton twirling; and Bonnie, Connie and Vonnie Goehring, accordion.

Mrs. Harold Hanscom, general chairman of the event, expressed her appreciation to those who helped make the show a success. Besides the judges, she complimented Keith Krambeal for his help with the lights and curtains; Ralph Humphries, public address system; Elbert Hefley and Boy Scouts, assistance in cleaning up the gymnasium following the show; and to others who participated.

Buttons the Clown, former Ringling Brothers circus clown, was master of ceremonies, and Mrs. Ray Chamberlin, Mrs. Krambeal and Humphries accompanied soloists on the piano. Soft drinks were sold during intermission with proceeds going to Cub Scouts of Pack 48. Hefley was in charge of the soft drink sale.

The O-Ne-Kizu Campfire Girls led the flag salute at the opening of the show. international climate is becoming warmer, have to resort to tricks which "bear the far too noticeable imprint of the cold war."

Found! A way to give you the nourishing protein only natural whole wheat can provide

Now a way has been found to preserve the natural active protein of golden-grain wheat in a delicious hot cereal. This is by an exclusive low-heat process developed by the Carnation Company.

Preserved are the nutrition and energy values that only complete "whole" kernel wheat, wheat germ and wheat bran can provide.

Carnation Instant Wheat gives you all the wheat germ and all the B-vitamins of "natural" whole wheat. Please add it to your shopping list.
