

Young Man With Cowboy Complex Held for Murder

Palm Springs, Calif. —(UPI)—A young man with a cowboy complex was to be arraigned today on a murder charge for the "motiveless" slaying of a Hollywood divorcee.

Tord Ove Zeppen-Field, 21, who was captured in Mexico and returned here Wednesday, confessed Wednesday night the Nov. 8 bludgeoning of Mrs. Lillian Lenorak, 42, Sheriff's Lt. Ed Brown reported.

Sheriff's deputies said they planned to have the Swedish-born Zeppen-Field reenact the murder today in an effort to determine what motivated the crime.

"Zeppen-Field has furnished us with no motive," Brown said.

"He said that on Saturday night, Nov. 7, he saw a lady walk by his house," said Brown. "He picked up his sawed off .22-caliber rifle, got in his mother's car and drove down the street to the woman, who was Mrs. Lenorak.

"He asked her to get in the car and she refused. He then pointed the gun at her and ordered her to get in. He drove to a remote area and says he struck her several times with the gun barrel and then left her in the area.

"He denies any sexual intimacies and an autopsy shows she had not been sexually assaulted."

Mrs. Lenorak's body was found by a passing motorist early Nov. 8. Handcarved gun grips belonging to Zeppen-Field's gun were found by her body.

Brown said Zeppen-Field "was very matter-of-fact and cooperative. He said he really doesn't know why he did it."

Zeppen-Field's attorney, Dwain Clark, said his defense would be based on "mental incapacity and insanity at the time of the slaying."

Mrs. Lenorak, divorced and mother of a son, John, 13, was a film technician and former ballerina.

Grange News...

Eagle Point
Robert Bitterling was elected master of Eagle Point Grange at a recent meeting.

Verne Matthews was elected overseer; Mrs. E. Stevenson, Lecturer; Thomas Vestal, steward; Percy Scoovey, assistant steward; Mrs. Percy Scoovey, chaplain; Mrs. Thomas Vestal, ladies assistant steward; Mrs. Otis Jones, gatekeeper; Mrs. Steve Wilson, Pomona; Mrs. Robert Bitterling, Ceres; Mrs. Ed Hayes, Flora; and Paul Force, C. C. Hoover and George Babcock, executive committee members.

County Agent Gene Winters introduced Miss Dorothy Sherrill, a new county 4-H agent, who spoke on the importance of agriculture.

C. C. Hoover reported on the feeder sale and Cliff Moore reported on the dairy situation. Mrs. Bitterling announced that a first aid course, sponsored by the home extension, will be held on Wednesday evenings in the hall.

W. E. Davies announced at the meeting Nov. 17 that the Grange will hold a community card party Friday, Nov. 20, at 8 p.m. in the Grange hall. There will be no charge, prizes will be furnished, and everyone is invited.

Roscoe Roberts, Grange county deputy, explained the rates and coverage available on boat insurance. It was announced by the home economics committee that there will be no November meeting. Mrs. Lester McFall was elected chairman of the committee for the coming year. Other officers will be elected at the meeting in December. Reports were made by Mrs. Lester Wertz and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Jones of their recent trip to Long Beach, Calif., to attend the National Grange convention.

On the display table, prepared by Mrs. Gertrude Stanley, were a pair of candles made of beeswax by Mrs. Don Ashpole; a handmade wooden bowl brought from Yugoslavia by Mrs. Don McGovern;
