Judy Wayland Married In California Ceremony

Of interest to valley residents is the wedding of Miss Judy Beth Wayland, formerly of Medford, and Frank S. Dare Jr., Colfax, Calif., in the St. Dominic's Catholic church in Colfax, November 1.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Ruth Wayland, formerly of Medford and now of Sacramento, Calif. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Dare, Colfax.

Richard Wayland Jr., Colfax, escorted his sister to the altar. The bride wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle fashioned with a bouffant skirt with scalloped lace peplum. Seed pearls trimmed the lace headpiece which held her veil. She carried a bouquet of carnations and stephanotis encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert Langhoff, Medford, was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a pale pink chiffon frock in ballerina length with satin cummerbund trimmed with matching flowers. Her head-dress was of pink veiling and she carried pink carnations.

Miss Evelyn Cronn, Wood-bridge, was bridesmaid. She wore a blue frock. Mary Ann Dare, Colfax, sister of the bridegroom, and Sherri Harris, Sacramento, cousin of the bride, were flower girls. They wore pink and blue crystalline over taffeta frocks with matching headbands and veils. They carried baskets of rose petals.

Michael Dare served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Robert Langhoff, Medford, and Donald Harvey, Colfax. Vaughn van Valer, Grass Valley, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wayland wore a champagne lace over taffeta frock with matching accessories and white carnation corsage. Mrs. Dare chose a pale blue lace frock with royal blue accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall.

The couple traveled to southern California and Mexico on their wedding trip. For

Parrish-Shafer Ceremony Held in Prospect Chapel

Prospect - Miss Roma Jean Shafer became the bride of Stephen S. Parrish, at a double ring ceremony November 5 at the Chapel in the Pines, Prospect. The Rev. William Piper of Medford First Christian church officiated at the seven-thirty o'clock evening rites. One hundred and fifty friends and relatives attended the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Everett Shafer, Prospect, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Parrish, Old Stage road, Medford.

Miss Connie Hall, Prospect, was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Priscilla Shafer, Medford, and Miss Sally McKillop, Prospect, cousins of the bride; Miss Julie Parrish, Medford, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Sheila Niedermeyer, Medford.

Larry Smith, Medford, was best man, and serving as ushers were Bernie Rawstern, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Carl Koellner, both of Medford; Dave Hall and George Lycett, Prospect.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon lace over white satin with side panels of lace ruffles, and pleated back ending in a chapel train. A lace Eton jacket with long sleeves and Robespierre collar, completed the ensemble. Her fingertip length veil was fastened to a pearl studded pill-box hat.

For "something old," the bride wore a gold filagree pin that had been bought in Dublin, Ireland, 200 years ago, and has been worn by the brides on the maternal side of the bride's family since that time. She carried a cascade bouquet of white spider chrysanthemums on a white prayer book.

The maid of honor's gown was a gold color brocade satin sheath. The gowns of the bridesmaids were of the same material and design with two in pink and two in light blue. Their tulle headpieces and round chrysanthemum bouquets were in colors to match their gowns.

The bride's mother wore a slate blue faille suit with black and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dressmaker style suit of navy blue silk tweed with matching accessories. Both mothers wore pink carnation corsages.

White candelabra held white tapers and several tall baskets were filled with large gold, pink, and white chrysanthemums.

traveling the bride wore a black wool crepe suit with white fur collar and hat and black accessories.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school in 1958 and attended Sacramento State college. Mr. Dare is a graduate of Canoga Park High school, Los Angeles, and attended Sierra Junior college, Auburn, and Air Cadet Officers Training school. He is employed by the California division of forestry.

Attending the wedding from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummings, Cherry Heights, and the Robert Langhoffs.

Miss Jane Daniels, Medford, was soloist. She was accompanied by Miss Jill Hedgpeth, Prospect.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Arrangements of pastel colored chrysanthemums and candles decorated the rooms and the refreshment table. Pouring were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Shafer, Medford, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Ted Hill, Central Point. Miss Dorothy Pontius, Prospect, took care of the guest book, and in charge of the gifts were Miss Jackie Hunt and Miss Janet Bean, Prospect.

Mrs. Parrish's traveling costume was a dark green wool sheath dress with brown accessories. She has lived at Prospect during all of her school years, and was a member of the 1959 Prospect High school graduating class. During the past summer, Mrs. Parrish served at the Mt. Isabelle lookout near Jacksonville, for the Oregon Department of Forestry.

The bridegroom has lived near Medford most of his life. He is a graduate of Crater High school, Central Point, and attended Oregon State college for one year. He is now employed with his father's contracting firm.

The newlyweds are at home at 226 Mountain avenue, Ashland.

Guests coming from a distance to the wedding included the bride's uncle, aunt, and cousin, the Rev. and Mrs. Lee Shafer and three children, Klamath Falls, a great-uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thurston, Independence, Ore., the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Parrish, Chico, Calif., his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lilly, Rogue River, and also many relatives and friends from Medford and Central Point.

Officers Elected

Mrs. Frank Bash was elected president of the Jackson county club, Republican Women's Federation of Oregon, at a monthly meeting held at noon November 16 at the Red Cross building.

Mrs. Murray Gardiner is the retiring president. Other new officers who will assume duties in January are Mrs. E. A. Littrell, first vice-president; Mrs. Ernst Reugger, second vice-president; Mrs. Scott Davis, third vice-president; Mrs. Earl Miller, secretary; and Mrs. Kenneth Denman, treasurer.

Members adopted a constitution which has been in the hands of members for several months.

Mrs. John Lynch and Mrs. Sherman Feiss reported on the workshop they attended in Salem. It was sponsored by the Oregon Federation.

Mrs. Nye suggested that the group invite the new citizens in the community to be guests at the meeting January 18, when Dr. Leonard Mayfield, superintendent of Medford Public schools, will be guest speaker.
