

Newlyweds Living In Butte Falls

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kenneth Williams are making their home in Butte Falls following their wedding October 3 at the First Methodist church chapel in Medford.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Smith, 417 Pearl street, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, 1066 Henry street, Ashland.

Dr. George G. Roseberry performed the ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Darlene Smith, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant and Leonard Smith, the bride's uncle, was best man.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace over satin. A pearl crown held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white carnations. Miss Smith wore a gown of pink brocade satin, also of ballerina length, and a pink hat. Her flowers were pink carnations and rosebuds.

The bride's parents were hosts at a reception for the young couple at the Oregon Inn, Grants Pass. The newlyweds traveled to Carmel, Calif., on their wedding trip. The bride attended Medford High school and her

Luncheon and Show Given By Junior Women's Club

Guests at the luncheon and fashion show given by Medford Junior Women's club Monday afternoon at Mon Desir inn saw clothing which will be worn during the holidays, both for street and for afternoon and evening party wear.

Mrs. Gene F. Chamberlain, wearing a green satin sheath frock, was commentator. Models were Mrs. Richard Ackerman, Mrs. David DeArmond, Mrs. Wayne Allen, Mrs. Clifford McGinty, Mrs. Richard L. O'Dell, Mrs. John L. Holmes Jr., Mrs. Robert Hercher, Miss Mary Lou Hanke, Mrs. William Fasel, a member of Travel Study club, and Mrs. James Kirby.

Mrs. Larry McConnell was chairman of the event, a benefit for School of Hope.

For street wear plaids were shown with the short leather coats which are now very fashionable. Velvetene is popular, both when made into a jumper, or for the colorful and versatile coats which are used for both daytime and evening wear. Wool jersey was shown made up in brown and green with satin cummerbund, and in a pale pink frock with mink collar.

Lace, satin, peau de soie, crepe and organza were also shown. One gown modeled by Mrs. Fasel was a black velvet sheath trimmed in heavy white lace. The peplum, edged with the lace, can be removed and used as a big collar for "cover up" occasions.

Blue and black was combined in a brocade party dress modeled by Miss Mary Lou Hanke, and one of the ever-popular black lace party frocks was modeled by Mrs. DeArmond.

Polka dots are fashionable this season, and there's nothing small about them. One frock shown Monday had huge golden dots on black, and a gold belt. Rhinestones and sequins are again in the fashion picture for holiday wear, and one frock of champagne cotton brocade was glittered with rhinestones.

Two models appeared together to close the show. Mrs. Hercher wore a cocktail gown of white Chantilly lace with red sash and bow, and Mrs. O'Dell a white chiffon formal gown with harem skirt and rose colored velvet stole.

Clothing was from Town and Country shop, Eagle Point; hats were from Hadleys, shoes from Johnson and Stewart and Burelson's salon had styled the models' hair.

Gails Honored On Anniversary

Gold Hill - A surprise party honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Gail was given last Saturday evening at their home in observance of their 25th wedding anniversary, which occurred Sunday, November 15. Mrs. Lee Matney decorated two cakes for the occasion. The evening was spent playing pinocle.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bateman, Central Point, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Molloy, Mr. and Mrs. Melford Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Morrow, all of Gold Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Gosnel, Sams Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail and son, Donald Gail were guests of the couple's daughter, Miss Gail in Eugene on their anniversary Sunday.

Their older daughter, Miss Mildred Gail, is a student at the Sorbonne in France this winter.

husband attended Ashland high school. He is employed by the Medford corporation.

Bethel 14 Conducts Initiation

Queen Micke Noble presided during the ceremony of initiation for 15 girls into Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, Wednesday evening, Nov. 18, in the Masonic temple.

The new members are the Misses Penny Roach, Sue Williams, Kathy Smith, Olivia Medicus, Venita Burch, Joan Sexton, Karen Schultz, Terry Sue Crockett, Linda Jo Frederick, Linda Glass, Susan Miller, Kathleen Saaborn, Diane Rupert, Linda Graham and Hollyce Fornbrook.

One-year honor awards were presented to the Misses Janice Taylor, Vicki Ingram, Sandra Edwards, Monte Noble, Linda Marsh, Cindy Hagen, Karen Christensen, Donna Martin, and Sharon Smets. Miss Pat Borough received her two-year award.

Escorted and introduced were Mrs. Arthur Ekerson, a past honored queen of Bethel 22, Idaho Falls, Idaho; Mrs. Audrey Roberts, worthy matron, and Carl Oestrich, worthy patron, both of Beames Chapter, Order of Eastern Star; Ross Gilkinson, worshipful master, Medford Lodge AF & AM; and Mrs. Ross Gilkinson, past guardian of Bethel 14.

Members of the Masonic lodge and Eastern Star were especially honored at the meeting. Masonic "Dads" and parents of the initiates were introduced.

An addendum was held at the close of the meeting during which Bethel members presented a star formation and then formed the Masonic emblem.

"Go To Church" Sunday will be observed today. All girls and parents are requested to meet at St. Mark's Episcopal church by 10:30 a.m.

The guardian council will meet at the home of Mrs. Lloyd N. Parsons, 2329 East Main street, Monday, November 23, at 7:30 p.m. This meeting is scheduled for Monday because the regular date would fall on the eve of Thanksgiving.

The next regular meeting of the Bethel will be Wednesday, December 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the Masonic temple for the election of officers.

Guild to Work On Bazaar Items

Final plans and work for the annual Christmas bazaar are scheduled for a meeting of St. Catherine's guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church Monday, November 23, at 8 p.m. in the guild hall.

The bazaar, to be held December 3, will sell home cooked foods, including fruit cakes and mincemeat, hand work, candles and candy wreaths.

Luncheon will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. during the bazaar. Tickets are now being sold and arrangements made so that working people can attend.

Hostesses for Monday's meeting will be Mrs. Don McNeil and Mrs. Gordon Hudson.

Gold Hill Unit Changes Session; Project Planned

Gold Hill - Mrs. Ted Schoenemann, president of the Gold Hill Health unit reports that the next meeting will be held Friday, December 4 at the home of Mrs. Melvin Burnett, instead of December 8 as previously announced. She said it was necessary to change the date because of the rummage sale that the Amethyst Rebekah lodge has scheduled for December 8. Several members belong to both groups.

Mrs. Schoenemann reminded members that they voted at the last meeting to each contribute for the budget, instead of holding a food sale in early December.

The annual Christmas-seals and letters prepared at a recent meeting were mailed November 16. Mrs. Delos Walker, seal sale chairman, was in charge of this project.

Mrs. Wilmer Bailey, chairman of March of Dimes for the unit, and Mrs. Clarence Parsley, co-chairman, attended a dinner and meeting, November 17 at the Crater room in the Medford hotel, Medford. The March of Dimes drive kick-off date will be January 2.

Mrs. C. Norman Gail has been named group leader for a research project that is being sponsored by the American Cancer society. This territory will include Rogue River, Evans Valley, Wimer, Gold Hill and Central Point. Sub-chairmen are Mrs. Hazel Ingel, Rogue River, Mrs. Donald Faber and Mrs. Wilton White, Central Point and Mrs. Schoenemann, and Mrs. Robert Sutherland, Gold Hill. The project is being sponsored in this area by the Health unit.

Each researcher will be responsible for 10 or more families. Questionnaires will be filled out on a volunteer and confidential basis.

The main purpose of this survey is to determine causes of cancer in all walks of life throughout the United States.

Neighbors to Hold Meeting on Monday

Medford Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet Monday, November 23, at 6:30 p.m. at the Eagles hall. Members are to take a hot covered dish. Drill practice will be held followed by games.

Everyone gets that tired, pent up feeling that comes from tension built up during a busy day. Well, you can change it into pure relaxing fun as soon as you spend a few minutes at the Hammond Organ. You become so absorbed in the fun of creating your own music—that tired, tense feeling disappears. But even more amazing, you can start playing a Hammond Organ right away. Even if you can't read a note of music, we will have you fingering out pleasing melodies the first time you try it. And after that you'll go on to play the songs you like best. All this is possible with our modern, quick teaching methods—and because the Hammond Organ is so easy to play.
