

Party Plans Completed

Medford Sojourners club has completed plans for a Christmas party to be held at Girls Community club Thursday, December 10, at 12:30 p.m.

All women who have lived in Medford or vicinity for less than two years are invited to the event. Each one attending is to take an unsigned gift for exchange. Further information may be had by calling the club's hospitality chairman, Mrs. Marvin Nelson, Spring 2-2694.

Cards were played following dessert and a business meeting of the group November 19. Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. S. D. Earhart and Mrs. L. W. Housechild; pinochle prizes by Mrs. Lena Stueben and Mrs. Walter Zimdar, and canasta prizes by Mrs. Beryl Lyon, Mrs. Florence Carlton and Mrs. James Winslow.

Mrs. Beulah McKee, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Helen Alexander, Topeka, Kan., were guests. Mrs. Wayne Woodward is a new member. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. John Poage, Mrs. Oscar

Class Schedules Dinner Monday

All couples interested are invited to a covered dish dinner planned by the Cruisers class of First Presbyterian church at 6:45 p.m. Monday, November 23 at the church.

George McUne, driver of the Rogue River valley covered wagon on the recent trip from Independence, Mo., to Independence, Ore., will show movies of the highlights of the trip.

Social Club To Elect Officers

The annual election of officers will be held at the meeting of the Electa Social club Friday, November 27, at 1 p.m. at the Girls Community club.

Mrs. Clara Franklin will be in charge of the salad luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Ben Bolin, Mrs. Laura Aldridge, and Mrs. Elizabeth M. Drummond.

Non affiliated Eastern Star members are invited to attend.

Rasmussen and Mrs. Ruth Tobin.

A turnip that would delight Dogpatch and bring envious gleams to the eyes of Pansy Yokum is displayed by Mrs. Gina Bertolacci at Half Moon Bay, Calif. Although it lacked greens to match its size, the turnip weighed more than 21 pounds and was 24 inches in girth. —(UPI Telephoto)

Soap Box Column Turns To Quiz Show Scandal

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

New York — (UPI) — Today's column becomes a soap box for those who read its recent remarks on the television quiz show fixes, even though some of the readers read me out.

But readers deserve to be heard whether they bless you or suggest the only reason you weren't ever on a quiz show is that you weren't bright enough to pass the initial test.

By way of background, this column on the television quiz show mess denounced no one. It merely inquired into the state of our morals today and wondered whether others were shocked or in agreement with the one woman who said, "He—Charles Van Doren had a chance to get something for nothing and I don't blame him for doing it."

As of today, most of the letters see the TV quiz fixes as a reflection generally of a nation's deteriorating morals. Others denounce me for making "Charles Van Doren the whipping boy." I didn't intend to, honest.

"... Thanks to you for your 'battle of deception versus truth,'" wrote Mrs. Helena B. Collins, Santa Rosa, Calif. "Stand Firm!"

Edward W. Verba of Campbell, Ohio, wrote that "if the transition were made to boxing, any boxer who participates in a fixed fight is held in contempt by the majority of boxing fans..."

"I agree with your article... on the scandal."

Mrs. E. H. Speckman, Torrance, Calif., holds no brief for a fixed show. But her letter comments, "I'm getting sick and tired of Charles Van Doren being chosen as the whipping boy... just because he made his mistakes 'on camera'."

"What about those people behind the scenes who thought up the whole stinking mess... they are just as guilty if not more so..."

Mrs. Speckman added that "if you newspaper people are going to nail one guilty man to the mast, find one big enough for all (she underlined the word) those involved."

"... Try counting on your 10 fingers the people you (underlined) know who have never (underlined) been involved in some sort of a shaded idea. No one is perfect. Even a convict is given a second chance..."

One-third cup butter plus 3/4 cup milk can be substituted for 1 cup heavy cream.

Baptist Women Slate Meetings

Meeting date for the White Cross Mission circles of the Women's Fellowship of First Baptist church is Tuesday, November 24.

All-day circles will meet at 10 a.m. and the evening circles at 7:30 p.m. Many of the circles will be meeting at the home of the chairman. Members of all but Elizabeth circle members, of the day groups, are to bring a sack lunch, with the hostess furnishing coffee. All those attending any group are to take scissors, cotton or wool quilt pieces, and old sheets for bandages.

Elizabeth circle will meet with Mrs. James Beams, 2154 Crater Lake avenue; the hostess is providing a complete luncheon for the members. The chairman, Mrs. Helmer Tinseth, reminds the members to bring their offering for the turkey for the Medford Gospel Mission Thanksgiving dinner. Meeting time is 10 a.m.

Other day circles are Ruth, meeting with the chairman, Mrs. C. C. Gilbert, 613 Ross lane; Martha, meeting at the home of Mrs. Donn Platt, chairman, 30 Laurel street; Esther, at the Larry Adams home, 1245 Casino road, according to Mrs. N. A. Mead, chairman.

Mrs. Mary Norvell will be hostess to the Nell Grubbs Circle at 515 Liberty street. Mrs. Gilbert Hill is chairman. Lydia circle will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Robert Gresham home, 920 East Jackson street; Mrs. M. M. Putney is chairman. Mrs. Richard Nordquist will be hostess to Hannah circle at her home at the corner of Sunset drive and Jacksonville-Phoenix highway (Rt. 4, Box 356A).

Lodges to Hold Holiday Dinner

The annual Thanksgiving dinner and program of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian sisters and their families and invited guests will be held in the Pythian building, Fifth and Grape streets, Monday, November 23, at 6:30 p.m.

Talisman lodge members are furnishing turkey and members of Talisman temple, Pythian Sisters, will assist at the dinner. Committee members of the Knights are Chancellor commander Dan Kadin, Charles A. Lasher and Edward E. Bostwick.

All members are to take a potluck dish of salad, vegetable or dessert, turkey coffee and rolls will be provided.

Lady-Like Charm

Mary circle will also meet with the chairman, Mrs. John Casad, 2670 Elliott street. Lois circle will also meet at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Elvia Wood, at 27 North Columbus avenue.

This will be the last meeting of the year for most of the circles, as the fourth Tuesday in December is too close to Christmas.

Hints for Homemakers

Ways in which homemakers can create a beautiful and livable home are covered in books at the Jackson County library on home decorating and furnishing.

Wine Mayonnaise

Hot wine mayonnaise will make cauliflower, asparagus, green beans or broccoli a party dish. For 4 servings, add onion to 1/4 cup sauteur. Let stand 10 minutes, add 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 3/4 cup mayonnaise. Heat over hot, but not boiling water.

Child Care Manuals

Practical information on all aspects of baby and child care is available at the Jackson County library. Manuals contain up-to-date details on diet, sleep, clothing, children's diseases, and other topics.
