

NO TAXES, NO VOTE

Under Oregon's Provisional Government Law of 1844, all persons who refused to pay property taxes were denied the right to vote, and other benefits of government.

FUNDS RESTRICTED

Oregon's Constitution provided that "no tax shall be levied, or money of the state expended, or debt contracted, for the erection of a state-house prior to the year 1865."

'CHEAP TALK' BANNED

New York — One of the rules in the college football code reads in part, "No good sportsman is ever guilty of cheap talk to his opponents . . ."

The $150 million or so the oil industry is spending on research annually is reflected in such advances as the eight-fold output per man hour in a typical refinery between 1901 and 1951.

ILLITERATE FORGER

New London, Conn. — Claude Jones, wanted in North Carolina for forgery, confounded authorities when he signed extradition papers with an "X."

Although each year more than 600,000 Americans alone visit Mexico as tourists and more than a million travelers move into the Caribbean area, fewer than 25,000 visitors go to Honduras in any capacity.

Oregon was the first state to collect personal income taxes at the source through withholding. The law providing for this method of collection was passed by the 1947 Legislature.

TIMES CHANGE

Receipts from Oregon's Corporation Excise Tax in its first year of operation, 1930, amounted to $673,000, compared with 1958-59's total of more than $16,000,000.
