Robert James Kettles, 78, died at his residence, 819 South Peach st., Medford, yesterday. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

LOUIS M. STONEBREAKER
Newberg—Louis M. Stonebreaker, 71, former Rogue Valley resident, died this morning at his home in Newberg. He was born March 3, 1888, in Michigan and lived in Newberg the last several years.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret, and two children, Richard Stonebreaker, and Mrs. Margaret Nelson, all Newberg.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, Nov. 28, at 11 a.m. at the Brown Memorial chapel in Newberg.

EFFIE PEARSON
Mrs. Effie Cordelia Pearson died Thursday in a local hospital. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Conger-Morris, funeral directors.

LAURA STEPHENSON
Funeral services for Mrs. Laura B. Stephenson, 68, of 721 West 14th st., who died in a local hospital Thursday, will be held at 10:30 a.m. Monday in Chapel Mortuary. The Rev. John O. Reynolds, pastor of the Westminster United Presbyterian church, will officiate. Interment will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Casket bearers will be Frank Elrod, Robert Elrod, Jack Russell, Jack Schultz, Nick Theis, and Ernest Wallin.

Mrs. Stephenson, the daughter of August and Ester Smith, was born in Sacramento, Calif., June 1, 1891. She was also married in Sacramento on Sept. 25, 1912, to George S. Stephenson. Mr. Stephenson was a superintendent for Swift and Company for 18 years, and on his retirement the couple came to Medford 12 years ago, where Mr. Stephenson died on Oct. 27, 1957.

Mrs. Stephenson was a member of the Klamath Falls Aioha chapter of the Order of Eastern Star.

Survivors include one son, Ward M. Stephenson, Cottage Grove, Ore.; one brother, Arthur N. D. Smith, Sacramento; two sisters, Mrs. Maude Fulton, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Florence Anderson, Sun Valley, Calif.; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. One son, George W. Stephenson, was killed in World War II, and another son, Richard E. Stephenson, died in 1927.

Contracts Awarded For Work in Forest

B. D. Greene, Ashland, has been awarded a contract by the forest service to construct a 10-man bunkhouse at Butte Falls Ranger station, Carroll E. Brown, supervisor of Rogue River National forest, has announced.

Star Builders of Lebanon will construct a warehouse at the new Prospect Ranger station, he said.

Bids will be invited Monday for construction of a residence at the Union Creek Ranger station, Brown said.

Contracts recently completed include a residence at Star Ranger station and two 10-man bunkhouses at Union Creek, constructed by E. J. Fordyce and Associates of Medford. An equipment storage building and office addition at Butte Falls has been completed by Rogue Valley Construction company.

The contracts, along with the new Prospect Ranger station, are helping to alleviate an acute shortage of housing and administrative facilities in the national forest, Brown said.

Quotes From the News

United Press International
Paris—Folies Bergere chorus girl Colette Langolce, traveling to America for a staging of the Folies at Las Vegas, Nev.: "I see America as an immense, luxurious place, filled with eligible young men."

San Francisco—Kevin Richard Gale, 35, arrested on charges of embezzling up to $2 million in Australia: "I never counted it. The Australian newspapers claimed it was $500,000 and the auditors later fixed it at two million. I guess that was it. Anyway, it was a lot of money."

London—Earl Mountbatten, Britain's highest ranking military officer, calling President Eisenhower a great commander in war and a president of peace: "He gave the order to go on D-Day, and I believe that single order was one of the greatest orders anyone was called upon to give, and history has shown how right that decision was."

Chicago—Coroner Walter McCarron, announcing that a blue ribbon inquest jury will start hearing testimony on the 11-death crash of a TWA cargo plane into a crowded residential area near Midway Airport: "Midway Airport was there first. We want to know why more homes were allowed to be built there."

Two Accidents Reported Here

Accidental brushing against an automatic shift lever caused an accident yesterday on Crater Lake Highway near Eagle Point, state police reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rannis Watkins, Douglas City, Calif., had stopped along the highway to change drivers. Watkins hit the shift lever with his arm as he slid along the seat. Shifting into reverse, the car knocked down Mrs. Watkins as she walked behind the car, police said.

The car went across the highway and into a shallow ditch on the east side. Police said Watkins accidentally hit the shift lever again causing the car to shift into "grade retard" gear. The car went forward into a culvert filled with water. Watkins' head hit the windshield, which was broken.

Watkins was treated at Sacred Heart hospital for a cut forehead. Mrs. Watkins was apparently unhurt, state police said.

In another accident, John Iver Gustafson, route 2, box 188, Central Point, suffered a cut on his head when his car went out of control on Vilas rd. near Table Rock four corners yesterday.

The car went 154 feet into a private yard after crossing the highway, police said.

St. Albans, England—(UPI)—Job Lowe complained Wednesday night the local golf club refused to let his nine-year-old son join because he could beat all the adult members. Lowe, head bartender at the Batchwood Hall golf club, said club officials ruled the boy was too young to join. "It is not because he is too young. Members are afraid a child might beat them," said the father.

Payola Probe Seen End of Rock 'n Roll

Memphis, Tenn.—(UPI)—Band leader Teddy Phillips said today the investigation of disc jockey payolas would mean "the death — permanent — of rock and roll music and all those other crazy beats." Phillips, who also composes ballads and popular music, said disc jockeys now are afraid to take money to play the rock and roll music. He said composers of "good music" will benefit. He also said he believes the investigations will bring back the music of Tin Pan Alley greats like Irving Berlin and Cole Porter.

Rotary District Governor to Talk At Local Meeting

The Medford Rotary club will be host to Dean E. B. Lemon of Corvallis, governor of district 511 of Rotary International, Monday, Nov. 30, and Tuesday, Dec. 1.

Lemon is making his annual visit to each of the 26 Rotary clubs in the district.

He will speak at the Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of the Medford club. Monday night he will confer with Club President Kenneth W. Cook, Secretary William M. Caldwell and other officers and committee heads.

Lemon recently retired as dean of administration at Oregon State college after serving the college for 48 years. He has for many years been an educational leader in the west and civic leader in Corvallis. Last month, he was named chairman of the newly-established state committee on college scholarships.

He was elected as a district governor of Rotary International for 1959-60 at Rotary's 50th annual convention in New York City last June. He is one of 261 district governors supervising the activities of more than 10,200 Rotary clubs with a combined membership of nearly 500,000 business and professional leaders in 113 countries of the world.

Objectives of Rotary are to develop better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promote community - betterment undertakings, raise the standards of business and professions, and foster the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.
