Wisely-Riley Ceremony Held in Medford Church

An event of November 21 was the wedding of Miss Charlotte Joy Riley and Steven Ross Wisely, held in First Methodist church at 8 o'clock in the evening. Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the double ring rites attended by nearly 200 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Riley, 616 Stewart avenue. Mr. Wisely's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Wisely, 724 West Jackson street.

Mrs. Riley wore an ice blue moire taffeta frock with medium blue accessories. Mrs. Wisely chose a grey-blue lace over taffeta dress with blue accessories. Their corsages were yellow rosebuds.

The reception was held at the Herbert L. Roberts residence at 1006 South Oakdale avenue. Mrs. Howard Miller acted as hostess. The bride and groom were seated at the head of the table.

The bride wore a white lace over taffeta gown. The scoop neck was edged with lace flowers and pearls and her fingertip length veil was held by a pearl crown. Her pearl drop necklace was a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Patricia Leek was honor attendant and bridesmaids and matron were Miss Colleen Riley, a sister, Miss Glenna Brewold, and Mrs. David Wisely. They wore frocks of emerald green nylon organza over taffeta with matching leaf hats and accessories. They each carried a large chrysanthemum, on a green satin purse, gifts of the bride.

Little Debra Gifford was flower girl. Her frock was also emerald green taffeta with eyelet organza pinafore and she carried a bronze and gold nosegay. Kathleen and Michael Riley, sister and brother of the bride, lighted the candles. Kathleen's dress was emerald green taffeta and her wristlet was of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

David Wisely served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Donald McLean, Portland; Richard Puhl, and John Payne.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed.

League Christmas Ball Planned For December 11

As memories of Thanksgiving feasts fade, thoughts and activities are turned towards Christmas and the gay holiday season. One of the major social events each year is the Junior Service League Charity ball, which will be held this year on Friday, December 11, at the Rogue Valley Country Club. Invitations are now being sent by League members, who emphasize that the proceeds from the charity ball go to support the League's kindergarten for hard-of-hearing children, as do the proceeds from all League projects throughout the year.

Women guests will gain test their ingenuity and skill in designing headresses, which will be judged during the evening, with the wearer of the winning creation announced as "Queen of the Ball". Other prizes are given to guests at the party during the evening.

A cocktail hour is planned from 8 to 9 o'clock and the buffet dinner will be served from 9 until 11 o'clock. The ball will be held in the new Starlight room of the Club, which is large enough for dining and dancing simultaneously.
