

Varied Programs Planned By Seven Extension Units

December is an "open meeting" month for all Jackson County Home Extension units. No project lesson has been prepared for the entire county by the home demonstration agent, as each unit chooses an gives its own December lesson.

Christmas crafts and decorations are always a popular choice for December lessons. Some units have a study of a foreign country; sometimes an interesting lesson given in the past is presented again for the benefit of new members.

Most of the units have a Christmas party and gift exchange at the December meeting. Many of the units pack a box of foods and toys to give to a family.

Reese Creek
Mrs. Donald Clark and Mrs. Joe Mathieson will give a demonstration on gift wrapping at a meeting of Reese Creek unit beginning at 10:30 a.m. Monday, Dec. 1.

Gifts for exchange are to be made from favorite recipes. Child care will be provided.

Wilson Park
A demonstration on Christmas gift wrapping will be given by Mrs. Ronald Harding and Mrs. Gary Pree when Wilson Park unit meets Tuesday, December 1, at 8 p.m. at the Harding residence, 1309 Stewart avenue.

Each woman is to bring her favorite Christmas recipe and a "sample product" for exchange. Women interested in attending the meeting may call Mrs. David Shaffer, Spring 3-4274.

Medford Parents
How to make unusual Christmas decorations and attractive gift wrappings will be demonstrated by Mrs. Otto A. Ewaldsen and Mrs. Edgar H. Sims for Medford Parents unit at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, De-hand dipping of chocolates, as well as other kinds of candy.

An auction is to be held at the morning business meeting and members are reminded to bring articles for the sale.

Lake Creek
A lesson on hobbies is planned by Lake Creek unit when it meets at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, December 2, at the Lake Creek Grange hall.

All types of work which members are interested in are to be brought to the meeting. Members have shown interest in tin craft, with groups meeting at various homes.

A Christmas exchange of gifts not costing over $1 will be held. Holiday food will be on the menu.

Upper Applegate
Upper Applegate unit will have a cake decorating demonstration by Mrs. Harry Davis, Gold Hill, at the Christmas meeting Wednesday, December 2, at the Grange hall.

For the demonstration members are asked to bring cake pan, scissors, knife, cloth for wiping hands, and small bottles with glass stopper if possible. Members also are to bring an article, preferably handmade, for a silent auction, and a gift wrapped and tagged as to contents for the state mental hospital. Each person is to bring her
