

Middies Knock Down Army; Four Accept Bowl Contests

United Press International
Navy blasted Army, 43-12, in a record victory and then indicated it may turn thumbs down on a proposed Liberty Bowl berth while Mississippi, Georgia, Georgia Tech and Clemson accepted major bowl bids on this final Saturday of the college football season.

Liberty Bowl officials said after the victory that Navy would be considered for the berth opposite Penn State (8-2).

ard, director of athletics at Annapolis, announced later that Navy will not accept a bid if it is offered. Navy finished its season with a 5-1 record.

Mississippi Accepts Sugar Bowl Bid

Starkville, Miss.—UPI—The University of Mississippi formally accepted a bid Saturday to meet Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl Jan. 1 in a "re-match" of the two southeastern conference powers. LSU won the regular season game 7-3, which was Mississippi's only 1959 defeat.

of LSU in the National rankings and put a different complexion on a possible bowl rematch. LSU Coach Paul Dietzel said it was hard to understand how a team LSU had defeated could be ranked for a bid to the Sugar Bowl. Dietzel said his squad hoped to play Mississippi in a playoff game "to determine which is the best team in the nation."

Georgia, the Southeastern conference champion, defeated Georgia Tech, 21-14, and will play Missouri in the Orange Bowl. Georgia Tech announced it will meet Arkansas in the Gator Bowl. Season records are Georgia 9-1, Missouri 6-4, Georgia Tech 6-4 and Arkansas 8-2.

Clemson, the Atlantic Coast conference champion, completed an 8-2 season with a 56-3 rout of Furman and said it will play Texas Christian in the Blue-Bonnet Bowl at Houston, Tex., Dec. 19. T.C.U. (8-2) won a share of the Southwest conference title Saturday by whipping Southern Methodist, 19-0.

Mississippi athletic director Tad Smith announced the Rebel's acceptance of the Sugar Bowl invitation at the conclusion of Mississippi's 42-0 victory over Mississippi State here Saturday.

In regular season play, LSU had nine victories and the one-point defeat at the hands of Tennessee. The Bengals whipped Rice, TCU, Baylor, Miami, Kentucky, Florida, Mississippi State and Tulane. Mississippi also had nine victories and that four-game loss to LSU. The Rebels beat Houston, Memphis State, Vanderbilt, Tulane, Arkansas, Chattanooga, Tennessee and Mississippi State.

LSU, on the season, scored 164 points and held its opposition to 29. Mississippi scored 329 points and yielded 21 to its opponents.

The Sugar Bowl game will be a replay of what a lot of people consider the outstanding game of the 1959 college football season.

On the night of Oct. 31 at Baton Rouge, La., in the LSU stadium, the two unbeaten giants of the Southwestern conference met in a head-on clash. Early in the first period, Robert Khayat kicked a field goal and Mississippi held this slim lead for three periods.

Navy served notice on the crowd and the nationwide TV audience of what was to come by striking for two lightning-like touchdowns in the first period. The Middies rolled 67 yards in six plays with Bellino going the final 15 and then went 63 yards in three plays with Bellino romping the last 46. That made it 13-0 in the first period and the Army offense never got close.

With 10 minutes left to play in the final period, LSU star halfback Billy Cannon fielded a punt, shook off half a dozen tacklers and ran 89 yards for an LSU touchdown.

Mississippi came storming back and worked the ball to the LSU one yard line, but the Louisiana Bengals held on downs as the clock ran out.

Mississippi, the nation's No. 2 team behind idle Syracuse, ran up a 27-0 halftime lead and won as it pleased against Mississippi State. Jake Gibbs, possibly Mississippi's best back since Charley Conerly, scored two touchdowns and passed for two others. Mississippi out-gained State, 422 yards to 115.

Immediately after this game, agitation started for a rematch in a bowl. Mississippi Coach Johnny Vaught said he "would love" to have another crack at LSU. There appeared little chance because LSU had everything to lose and nothing to gain by a rematch.

California athletic commission doctors banned the 19-year-old boxer Friday when they discovered the cataracts during a routine physical examination in preparation for his fight here next Tuesday.

Georgia climaxed Coach Wally Butts' best season in a decade by running up a 21-0 halftime lead and then beating back Georgia Tech's second-half rally. Halfback Fred Brown starred for Georgia by running 38 yards to set up the Bulldogs' first touchdown and scoring the third on a 40-yard pass play.

But the following week Tennessee upset LSU 14-13, and the following week Mississippi routed Tennessee 37-7. This put boosted the Rebels ahead

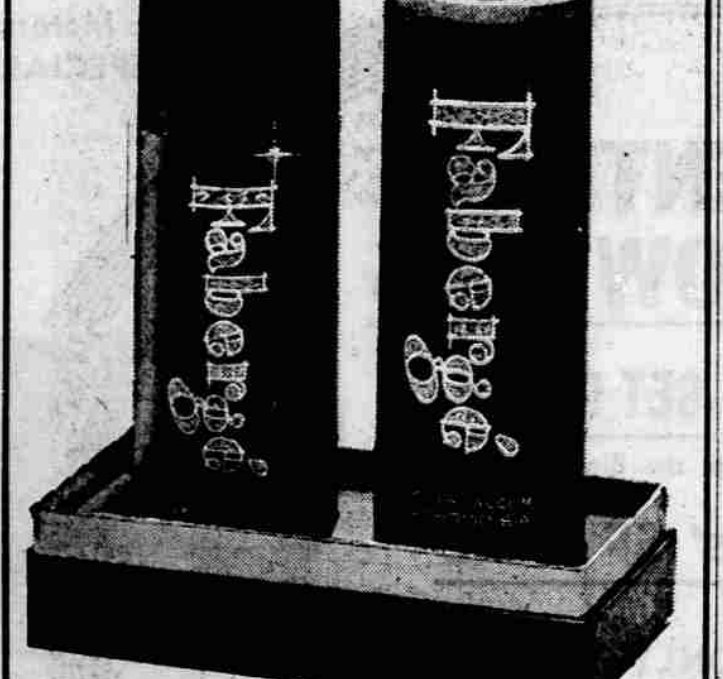

Hicks was scheduled to fight Carmie Price of Pittsburgh, Pa., at the Olympic Auditorium, but Matchmaker George Parnassus is now seeking a replacement for him. The youthful boxer has a 17-1 record.

Quarterback Harvey White completed 13 of 23 passes for 159 yards to lead Clemson to its easy triumph over Furman. Furman took a 3-0 first-period lead on Shelley Sutton's 30-yard field goal but Clemson came back with a touchdown six plays later and the rout was on.

Sophomore fullback Gerry Gray scored two touchdowns to lead Notre Dame to a 16-6 upset of Southern California; Dick Allen scored a touchdown and a field goal in the fourth period to give Florida a 23-14 win that ended Miami of Florida's Orange Bowl hopes Alabama whipped Auburn, 10-0, with the help of a 33-yard dash by Marlin Dyess; Colorado upset the Air Force Academy, 15-7; Larry Corley's last-minute field goal gave Baylor a 23-21 win over Rice; halfback Vin Hogan scored both touchdowns as Boston College beat Holy Cross, 14-0, and Oklahoma topped Oklahoma State, 17-7, in other games.

Quarterback Harvey White completed 13 of 23 passes for 159 yards to lead Clemson to its easy triumph over Furman. Furman took a 3-0 first-period lead on Shelley Sutton's 30-yard field goal but Clemson came back with a touchdown six plays later and the rout was on.

Halfback Marvin Lasater scored two touchdowns and scattered Harry Moreland went 47 yards for a touchdown to lead Texas Christian to its victory over arch-rival Southern Methodist. The T.C.U. line, led by tackles Don Floyd and Bobby Lilly, held S.M.U. to minus one yard rushing.

Friday night's verdict was booed by the 3,000 fans.

San Francisco —UPI— The San Francisco Giants will play only one home doubleheader next season—a Memorial day twin-bill with the Chicago Cubs. San Francisco has added two night games to the home schedule for a total of 23 arc light dates in the new park at Candlestick Point.

Los Angeles —UPI— Los Angeles Rams co-captain Duane Putnam hopes to be back with the team next fall despite his i. definite suspension from the pro-football club.

The star lineman remained tightlipped Friday concerning General Manager Pete Rovel's statement he had been suspended for conduct "detrimental to the best interests of the Ram football team." "I have nothing to say to that," Putnam told United Press International. "I wasn't able to practice or play while the team was in the East. I don't wish to say anything about that disciplinary statement of the club. I'll let it stand on whatever they say for the time being."

COUGAR TOUCHDOWN—A short pass to Pete Schenek (93) netted six yards and a Washington State touchdown in game yesterday with University of Houston. Robert Sanders (23) and Don McDonald (15) were a little late in their try to stop Schenek.

Wake Forest Wins; Five Marks Snap

Charlotte, N. C.—UPI—Quarterback Norman (Slinger) Snead threw three touchdown passes and set up a fourth Saturday, breaking five Atlantic Coast conference records in the process as Wake Forest exploded for a 43-20 victory over South Carolina.

A crowd of 12,200 chilled fans watched the Deacons work their wide-open offense for their most impressive performance of the year. Snead, a junior, set new ACC single season marks for passes attempted and completed, touchdowns passed, passing yardage and total offense.

Snead passed to Bobby Allen for one score, to Pete Manning for another and to Winston Futch for a third. His passes to Bill Ruby and Bobby Robinson set up a fourth, scored by Jerry Ball on a one-yard plunge.

Futch also scored on a 25-yard run and the Deacons wrapped it up with two touchdowns in the brawl-marred final 30 seconds of the game.

Chuck Reiley went one yard for one score and center Buck Jolly galloped 14 yards with an intercepted pass for the final tally.

South Carolina, sparked by quarterback Steve Satterfield and fullbacks Phil Lavoie and John Saunders, pulled ahead 8-0 in Lavoie's one-yard plunge early in the first period. Lavoie ran for the two-pointer.

Satterfield's two touchdowns on runs of five and two yards matched by scores by Allen and Manning, gave the Gamecocks a 20-18 halftime lead. The Deacons drove to the South Carolina 10 late in the half but Neil MacLean's field goal try on the last play was wide.

It took the Deacons only a few minutes to go ahead to stay early in the third period. One scoring drive fell short when Jim Costin intercepted a Snead pass in the Gamecock end zone. But the Gamecocks had to kick and the Deacons drove right back in three plays with Futch going the final 26 yards to put them ahead to stay.

Temper flared briefly between the last two Deacon scores and players from both teams mixed it up with fans along the sidelines. But police and officials, aided by the South Carolina band's playing of the National Anthem, quickly restored order.

Snead's three scoring passes gave him 12 for the season, one more than the old record shared by Jack Cummings of North Carolina and Harvey White of Clemson. His 12 completed passes gave him 82 for the season, bettering the old record of 74 set last year by Arnold Dempsey of Virginia. He also raised his own record for most passes attempted, set last week, from 169 to 191.

He also broke the total passing yards record of 1,137 set last year by Cummings and Cummings' year-old total offense record.

Snead's new marks are 1,361 yards passing and 1,365 total offense.

Hunter Given Split Decision
New York —UPI— Heavyweight contender Billy Hunter gets a shot at fourth-ranking Eddie Machen in Madison Square Garden, Dec. 18, for rising from the canvas and beating gory Alex Miteff again Friday night in their return TV fight at the Garden.

Machen of Redding, Calif., accepted the match by telegram.

Tall, slender Hunter of Detroit, weighing 191½ pounds to Miteff's 203½, won a split 10-round decision over the broad-shouldered Argentina contender whom he had stopped in the seventh round at Syracuse, N.Y., Sept. 25.

Irish Dump USC 16-6 In Upset

South Bend, Ind. —UPI— Sophomore fullback Gerry Gray led Notre Dame to a 16-6 upset victory over Southern California Saturday. He scored two touchdowns before 48,682 fans who braved 29-degree temperatures and a snow storm to watch the football game.

It was Notre Dame's fifth win against five losses this season for Joe Kuharich's first Fighting Irish eleven, one game under the total posted by the 1958 team whose 6-4 record resulted in the firing of Terry Brennan.

Saturday's Irish team was strengthened by the return of George Izo, who returned from the injury list to spark it to victory in the final two games of the season. They manhandled the Trojans who suffered their second straight defeat after eight straight wins.

Southern California got across midfield only five times, once when Bob Levingston intercepted an Izo pass and returned 31 yards. But on none of these occasions could the Trojans dent Notre Dame for a score.

Less than 10 minutes remained to play when substitute signal caller Ben Charles piloted the Trojans 84 yards in 10 plays for their touchdown.

CAMILLI SIGNS
New York —UPI— Dolph Camilli, former Brooklyn Dodger first baseman, has signed with the New York Yankees as a scout for the Utah, Idaho and northern California areas. Camilli, who had been a scout for the Philadelphia Phillies, is the fifth full-time talent hunter employed by the Yankees on the West Coast.

SW Conference Title Tied By TCU, Arkansas, Texas

Fort Worth, Tex. —UPI— A crashing defense and scatback Harry Moreland's 47-yard scamper carried Texas Christian to a 19-0 victory Saturday over Southern Methodist and gave the Christians a Southern Conference co-championship with Arkansas and Texas.

The defending champions' great tackle tandem of Don Floyd and Bob Lilley led the defensive charge that blocked two SMU punts, one of which set up a touchdown, threw passer Don Meredith for huge losses and kept so much pressure on the SMU ace that he misfired repeatedly.

Meredith wound up a three-year career with 241 completions out of 395 attempts—or 61 per cent, as compared to the previous record of 57.1 per cent set by Paul Larson of California in 1952-53-54. Meredith gained 3,128 yards and hit 25 touchdowns.

All of the defensive sparklers weren't produced by TCU, however, aside from the time it let Moreland get away on a darting run up the middle. SMU fairly well contained the touted TCU rushing attack in the clutches and minimized Spikes' fullback thrusts.

A chilling, 20-mile north wind and an SMU "jinx" spoiled TCU kicking specialist R. E. Dodson's season-long string of perfect conversions. When his try after the initial touchdown twisted off into the teeth of the wind, it marked an end to an 18-kick spree that extended back to the SMU game a year ago.

Meredith was tossed for four yards in losses and SMU wound up with a minus-one-yard rushing "total."

Halfback Marvin Lasater scored two of the victor's touchdowns, one on a nine-yard surge behind tremendous blocking early in the second quarter and the other on a 15-yard flip from Larry Dawson with only 35 seconds to play.

Moreland's sparkling run, which provided the crowd of 40,000 with its biggest first-half offensive thrill, came with about a minute left in the second quarter and after a Jimmy Gilmore punt had put SMU in a deep hole by bouncing out of bounds on the one-yard line.

Primarily Defensive
Despite the scoring action, the game primarily was one of great defensive play and fierce blocking by Texas Christian.

Floyd, Lilly, Guard Roy Lee Rambo and Fullback Jack Spikes broke through time and time again to spill Meredith for losses or to keep so much pressure on him that he over-shot receivers in the clear—an extreme rarity for the SMU ace who holds the national career record for completion proficiency.

Meredith closed out his collegiate career, barring possible post season action, with

Alabama Turns Down Blue Grass Bowl Game

Birmingham, Ala. —UPI— Alabama Saturday night was invited to meet Kentucky in the Blue Grass Bowl but turned it down.

In a telegram to Bryant shortly after his Crimson Tide upset favored Auburn, 10-0, the Blue Grass Bowl committee said it had voted unanimously to extend the invitation.
