

Huskies Place Three Players On UPI All-Coast Grid Team

By SCOTT BAILLIE
United Press International
San Francisco—UPI—Bob Schloredt of the Washington Huskies easily brushed by Stanford's Dick Norman in the battle for its quarterback spot on the UPI All-Pacific Coast football team which was announced today.

West coast sportswriters and broadcasters who participated in the balloting gave Schloredt 16 first team votes to 10 for Norman, the nation's top passer and leader in total offense.

Southern California and Washington monopolized the first team by landing three men apiece on it. Troy's brothers McKeever, Marlin and the end and Mike the guard, nailed down starting spots with no strain while Dan Ficca earned a tackle spot. Gagner at Tackle

Kurt Gagner, who came to Seattle as a displaced person from Germany and became a star lineman at Washington, won the other tackle job while teammate Chuck Allen was named to a guard spot.

The first team backfield includes Keith Lincoln, Washington State's fine triple threat, Dick Bass who did some fine ball carrying for College of the Pacific despite a bad leg and Ray Smith, UCLA's blasting fullback.

Another Bruin making the first team was Center Harry Baldwin, who narrowly out-pollied Bob Peterson of Oregon. Each gridded received eight first team votes but Baldwin held a 58-55 edge in points. These were awarded on a basis of five for a first team vote and three for a second.

Burford in a Breeze
Chris Burford, Stanford's mighty end, breezed onto the first team as generally expected.

Southern California grabbed four positions on the second unit. Ron Mix and Garry Finneran both won tackle assignments while Jerry Traynham was named to a halfback spot. Al Bansavage, the fourth Trojan, teamed up with Washington State's Bill Berry at guard.

Norman easily took the quarterback job in the second eleven which is rounded out by Willie West of Oregon, George Fleming of Washington and Traynham.

The rest of this lineup features Gail Cogdill of Washington State and Marv Luster of UCLA on the ends.

Schloredt won the back of the year award. Mike McKeever was named lineman of the year, and Jim Owens, whose Washington Huskies meet Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl, took the coach of the year honors.

UO, Oregon State Bill Cage Openers

United Press International
College basketball gets underway in Oregon this week with the state's major teams all slated for action.

Coach Slat Gill's Oregon State Beavers travel to the Hawaiian islands for three games. On Wednesday and Thursday nights the Beavers collide with Hawaii university. On Saturday night they meet a service team.

Oregon's Webfoots, with six-foot-seven-inch sophomore Glenn Moore scheduled to start at center, open their home season this coming Friday, Dec. 4, against Fresno State. The two teams also meet in Eugene again Saturday night.

The University of Portland, with its tallest team in history, opens up Tuesday night against crosstown rival Portland State.

Linfield opens its season Tuesday night at Monmouth against Oregon college.

Six teams will take part in Salem this week end in the NAIA Tip Off tournament. They include OCE, Pacific, Portland State, Lewis and Clark, Willamette and Linfield. The tourney starts Thursday and winds up Saturday with three games each day.

University of San Francisco's sophomore-laden Dons, without the veteran coaching wiles of Phil Woolpert in their corner, help launch the 1959-60 West Coast college basketball season Tuesday night against Stanford.

Most experts predict a question mark season for the Dons, at best. Woolpert, whose USF teams rewrote the record books while winning two Bill Russell-tinted NCAA titles in 1955 and 1956, has decided to take a year's leave of absence because of poor health.

Ross Giudice, Woolpert's assistant for the last nine years, has taken over at the head coaching reins. Giudice inherits a squad that dropped 20 of 26 games last year—and is missing all American candidate senior Fred La Cour, who has been dropped from the squad for cutting classes. The Dons play their first home game Saturday against New Mexico.

Bears Play Alumni
California's national champion Golden Bears, weakened by graduation but dangerous with their great center Darrell Imhoff, open their campaign Tuesday on evening against a tough Cal alumni team. They follow up Friday night at Santa Barbara.

Missing from Coach Pete Newell's five this season will be Denny Fitzpatrick, Al Bush and Bobby Dalton. Imhoff and Bill McCintock along with Tany Gillis, Jerry Mann and Bobby Wendell, should form the starting quintet Tuesday.

If California hopes to return to NCAA action this season it will have to be on an "at large" basis. The Pacific Coast conference no longer exists and the NCAA fails to recognize the newly formed AAWU, as it feels five teams do not comprise a bonafide conference.

Stanford, another member of the "Big Five," battles San Jose State on Thursday. UCLA and Southern California, Los Angeles entries in the new loop, open against each other Wednesday before hosting Santa Clara and Kentucky in a pair of week end double headers. Washington, the AAWU fifth member, plays a week end series at Brigham Young.

New Coast Independents
Seattle university, a powerful coast independent that fashioned a 21-7 mark last season, opens at home Thursday with Utah State. Other independents this season, following demise of the PCC, will be Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State and Idaho. Oregon State battles Hawaii on Wednesday, Oregon travels to Fresno State for a week end pair and Washington State will play Gonzaga Tuesday. Idaho and Montana also clash Tuesday night.

Santa Clara Coach Bob Feerick will turn loose what many think is his "best team in a decade" against Chico State Tuesday night. The Broncos are the best of the West Coast Athletic conference.

St. Mary's, last year's WCCAC champions, opens on Tuesday with a visit from the Cal Aggies. San Jose State plays at home Tuesday in an opener against San Francisco State.

In other Tuesday night action, Cal Poly (Pomona) battles Santa Barbara, Portland State faces Portland university, San Diego State hosts its alumni and Westmont plays Cal Poly.

The other 35 New York Giants soon may join Charley Conerly in riding around in new automobiles.

The $25,000 bevy of gifts Conerly received Sunday at Yankee stadium included two brand new autos. The 38-year-old quarterback immediately went into high gear against one of his favorite targets, the Washington Redskins.

Conerly has a little Choc-faw Indian blood in him. Maybe it helps make his particularly effective against the Redskins. Anyway, he threw two touchdowns passes to Bob Schnelker, one to Kyle Rotz and set up a scoring run by Alex Webster and a Pat Summerall field goal.

Conerly, who has thrown 33 of his 156 National Football league touchdown passes against the Redskins, enjoyed his spree in the first 29 minutes. Then he sat down to rest for a dance in his honor while the Giants whizzed to a 45-14 triumph that clinched at least a tie for the Eastern division title.

Two Games In Front
The Giants now are two games in front with two to play. It's a virtual certainty each of them can count on at least a $3,500 slice of championship game money and a new car if they want to match Conerly on the highway.

New York got sterling help from the San Francisco Forty-Niners, also giving their Western title hopes a huge boost, scored three times in less than seven minutes to edge the Browns at Cleveland, 21-20. The Steelers, with Bob by Lane throwing four touchdowns passes, whipped the Philadelphia Eagles at Pittsburgh, 31-0.

The Browns and Eagles started the day only a game behind the Giants but virtually lost all hope by losing. Coach Paul Brown, whose Browns invade New York next Sunday, told what the Forty-Niners had done to his team's Eastern chances in two words: "That's it."

Colts Remain Tied
The Baltimore Colts remained tied with San Francisco for the Western lead by downing the Los Angeles Rams, 35-21, at home behind the passing of John Unites. The Chicago Bears kept their Western hopes alive, remaining a game behind the two leaders by thumping the Chicago Cardinals, 31-7, in Sunday's other game. Each of the 12 clubs has two more regular season games.

New York is in a powerful position. It entertains the Browns before ending its regular campaign against the crippled Redskins at Washington. The Eagles play at Washington next Sunday and then entertain the Browns.

Baltimore, the league title holder, must perform like a champion and snap a jinx to retain the Western title. The Colts play next Saturday at San Francisco and the following Saturday at Los Angeles. Baltimore has won only one of 14 games in those cities. The Forty-Niners end their season at home against the Green Bay Packers, 24-17, victors over the Detroit Lions in the Thursday game that opened the past week-end's action. The Bears finish at home against the Steelers and Lions.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
United Press International

The Toronto Maple Leafs are making believers out of all those "experts" who called their late season surge during the 1958-59 National Hockey league campaign "just one of those things."

The high-flying Leafs, who battled the Boston Bruins to a 2-2 tie Saturday night that boosted them into a tie for second place, personally ousted the Detroit Red Wings from that spot Sunday night with a 4-1 victory.

The victory was Toronto's 11th in 22 games with six ties and boosted the Leafs two points ahead of Detroit and six up on the Bruins.

Of course, the Leafs didn't pick up any ground on the front-running Montreal Canadiens, but no one has been doing that this season. The Canadiens, who seem to keep right on rolling despite injuries to key personnel, beat the Bruins, 4-2.

In Sunday's other game, Dean Prentice scored twice to give the New York Rangers a 2-2 tie with the Chicago Black Hawks.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
United Press International
Lorne (Gump) Worsley, sent down by the parent New York Rangers to their Springfield farm team in the American Hockey league a week ago, registered his first shutout of the season Sunday night when the Indians blasted the Buffalo Bisons, 5-0, at Buffalo.

The little goalie turned aside 28 shots in completing a perfect week end for the league-leading Tribe, which beat Cleveland, 3-2, Saturday night.

In other Sunday action, third-period goals by Lorne Davis and Dutch Reibel gave the Providence Reds a 4-2 victory over the Cleveland Barons, and the Hershey Bears tripped the Rochester Americans, 3-1.

Defenders Get Credit For SF Nod

Cleveland, Ohio (UPI)—The San Francisco Forty Niners may go on to win the National Football league's Western division title because they beat the Cleveland Browns at their favorite game—defense.

John Brodie, subbing for injured quarterback Y. A. Title, led the Forty Niners to three touchdowns in less than seven minutes during Sunday's 21-20 triumph. But Red Hickey, coach of the California club, reserved his highest praise for members of his defensive unit—Charlie Krueger, Jerry Tubbs and Abe Woodson—and for Tommy Davis, his rookie kicker.

Krueger, a rookie from Texas A and M, was awarded the game ball for the linecrushing tactics that helped harass Milt Plum, Cleveland's quarterback. Tubbs intercepted a Plum pass to set up Hugh McElhenny's 12-yard run with the winning touch down. Woodson intercepted another pass to end a fourth period Cleveland threat. Davis averaged 45 yards on eight punts.

"The Turning Point"
"The turning point was the interception by Tubbs," Ricky said.

Tubbs' key steal followed another alert defensive play by Leo Nomellini. He crashed through and recovered a fumble by Plum when the score was tied at 7-all. Brodie followed with a 21-yard touchdown toss to J. D. Smith and the Forty Niners never were headed.

Hickey said he was proud and a bit surprised—the way his team dumped the Browns after taking a 45-14 whipping from the Colts a week ago in Baltimore.

The Forty-Niners now end their regular season at home against the Colts next Saturday and against the Green Bay Packers Dec. 12. They go home tied with Baltimore for the Western lead and almost certainly ended Cleveland's hopes in the Eastern race. The Browns, along with the Philadelphia Eagles now trail the New York Giants by two games with only two to play.

Los Angeles Rams Draft LSU's Star Billy Cannon

By RUSS GREEN
Philadelphia—UPI—The Los Angeles Rams opened the National Football league draft meeting today by selecting All-America halfback Billy Cannon of Louisiana State University.

Cannon previously was the first draft choice of Houston of the new American Football league.

It was the first time since 1952 that the Rams had first pick. That year, they had the bonus selection and took Billy Wade, Vanderbilt quarterback.

The Rams and the Chicago Cardinals, each with 2-3 records this season, tossed a coin for first choice with the Los Angeles team winning.

The Cardinals then picked George Izo, Notre Dame quarterback, and announced immediately that he had signed for the coming season. Izo had been selected by New York of the American league at their meeting 19 days ago in Minneapolis.

The Detroit Lions, with third choice, selected Johnny Robinson, another Louisiana State back, who previously had been tapped by Dallas for the new league.

Richie Lucas, Penn State quarterback, who was the first choice of Buffalo in the American league was selected by the Washington Redskins. Lucas, an excellent passer, also is highly rated as a defensive back.

The Green Bay Packers selected Tom Moore, halfback and fullback from Vanderbilt previously taken by Dallas, and the Pittsburgh Steelers first choice was Jack Sikes, a Texas Christian back who had been selected earlier by Denver.

The Chicago Bears' first choice was Roger Davis, Syracuse guard who was a Denver selection, and the Cleveland Browns.
