TALL AND SHORT OF IT—Yvan Kruminsh (left), a seven-foot, three-inch giant dwarfs his teammate, Maignois Valomanis, a mere five-feet, 11-inches as they practice at Madison Square Garden in N. Y. Both are members of a Russian basketball team which will play an American team in a six-game exhibition tour throughout the country.

SOC to Play Host To Humboldt State

Ashland—Southern Oregon college plays host to Humboldt State college Thursday and Friday in the Red Raider gym with game time set for 8:30 p.m. A preliminary game at 6:30 p.m. will precede each varsity game.

Southern Oregon basketball fans will get a preview of this year's edition of the SOC hoop squad when it hits the hardwood in its initial game of the season against Humboldt.

Coach Ted Schopf of the Raiders has been optimistic in looking at the forthcoming season. On the subject of the conference race, Schopf feels the toughest competition for the crown will come from Oregon Tech. Otherwise, he has been more immediately concerned with the games with Humboldt this week.

Since the Raiders began play in the new gym three years ago on the SOC campus, they have never been beaten by Humboldt. It was two years ago to the week that SOC played Humboldt in the first game ever played in the gym and the Raiders took a pair of games from the Lumberjacks.

Schopf has indicated he will start guards Gordy Carrigan and Dennis Connors. Carrigan hit 17 points in a race to 80 against SOC graduates who played basketball last Sunday night. His shots came from driving, jumping, and his well-known long two-handed set.

Connors played throughout the game and hit for five points.

To Get Call

Glen Peterson will get the call at center for the opening fracas where he saw limited action last year. Peterson is 6-5 and one of the two tallest players on the squad. He hit for 16 points in the initial scrimmage Sunday and cleared the boards steadily.

John Payne and Don Vannice will be the forwards. Vannice was a starter last year while Payne is up from the Jayvees. Payne is the other tall member of the varsity at 6-5 and Schopf feels his teaming with Peterson will give the Raiders a formidable front line as far as height is concerned. Payne also had a good evening in the Sunday scrimmage by pulling out rebounds and scoring 18 points.

Jayvee coach Jim McAbee indicated his unit will play host to Talent high school Thursday night and Hawkins' Tire company Friday.

Joe Brown To Defend Ring Toga

New York—UPI—Two world title fights, for the lightweight and middleweight crowns, top this week's unusually attractive boxing schedule.

Thirty-three-year-old Joe Brown of New Orleans is favored at 12-5 to keep his lightweight (135-pound) title in a 15-rounder against England's southpaw Dave Charney, British Empire champion, at the Houston (Tex.) Coliseum, Wednesday night.

Gene Fullmer of Jordan, Utah, is a lesser favorite at 8-5 to protect his NBA version of the world middleweight 160-pound championship against Spider Webb of Chicago in a 15-rounder at Logan, Utah, Friday night. It's a return bout. Gene outpointed the Spider, Sept. 11, 1958.

Both title fights will be televised nationally.

DeJohn Fights

At London, tonight, two international heavyweight bouts were to be staged at Wembley Arena. Big Mike DeJohn of Syracuse, N.Y., meets Dick Richardson of Wales. Neither is a ranking contender.

But in the other 10-round, England's Brian London, British Empire champion, meets big Nino Valdes of Cuba. Cooper is ranked fifth; Valdes, a former contender, is unrated.

Don Jordan of Los Angeles, World Welterweight champion, engages Brazilian Fernando Barreto in a non-title 10-rounder at Sao Paulo, Brazil, Saturday night.

Also on Saturday night, Irish Freddie Gilroy and Bernie Taylor of South Africa fight for the British Empire bantamweight title at Belfast, North Ireland.

In Wednesday's lightweight title fight at Houston, Brown will be making his seventh defense. He is favored because of his combined skill and punch.

Friday's middleweight title bout goes collegiate. It's being staged in the Utah State University field house at Logan, Challenger Webb once attended Idaho State college.

Tuesday—London—Nino Valdez vs. Brian London, and Mike DeJohn vs. Dick Richardson. Sacramento, Calif.—Ray Rijas vs. Auburn Copeland. Stockton, Calif.—Herman Marquez vs. Sam Barajas. Los Angeles—Carmie Price vs. Timmie Jefferson.

Wednesday—Houston, Tex.—Joe Brown vs. Dave Charney (world lightweight title)—TV. Chicago—Vejar vs. Vince Martinez. Johannesburg, South Africa—Mike Holt vs. Sixto Rodriguez. Los Angeles—Art Aragon vs. Rayton Stubbs. Friday—Logan, Utah—Gene Fullmer vs. Spider Webb (world middleweight title—NBA version)—TV—radio. Providence, R.I.—Georgia Maddox vs. Jackson Brown. Saturday—Belfast, North Ireland—Freddie Gilroy vs. Bernie Taylor (British Empire bantam title). Sao Paulo, Brazil—Don Jordan vs. Fernando Barreto (non-title).

Crater Slates Roseburg In First Basketball Series

First week end of the brand new high school basketball season in southern Oregon will have a heavy slate of games.

One of the top attractions of the openers will be the two-night visit of reputedly strong Roseburg against Crater at Central Point. Games will be on Friday and Saturday nights.

Ashland will entertain a pair of California rivals, Eureka on Friday night and Fortuna on Saturday.

Among the A-2 schools of the county, Rogue River and Eagle Point will go into action. Rogue River entertains Talent on Friday and goes to Butte Falls on Saturday. Eagle Point will be host to Myrtle Creek on Saturday evening.

Talent Vies

Class B Talent meets Southern Oregon college junior varsity on Thursday evening.

In other area action Grants Pass will be at home to Del Norte of Crescent City, Calif., on Friday and to Yreka, Calif., on Saturday. Klamath Falls

Baltimore Trades Two

St. Petersburg, Fla. — (UPI)—Baltimore out-slicked San Francisco, the consensus said today, because Paul Richards "always knows what he's doing any time he gets rid of a pitcher."

The Oriole manager, openly acknowledged as baseball's finest judge of pitchers, peddled two of them — southpaw Billy Loes and right-hander Billy Loe — to the Giants Monday night in the first major deal of the inter-league trading period.

In return, the Giants gave up outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Gordon Jones and a third player, catcher Roger McCardell, who will be sold to Miami and brought up by the Orioles when they get under the 40-man limit.

Most club officials here at the baseball meetings felt the Orioles wouldn't have dealt away the 26-year-old O'Dell, a 14-game winner in 1958 and a possible 20-game winner of the future, "unless Richards knew something."

U. of W. Starts Bowl Training

Seattle—UPI—The University of Washington's Rose Bowl training headquarters will be Long Beach City College stadium, coach Jim Owens announced Monday.

Owens said the college is located near the Lafayette hotel in downtown Long Beach, Calif., where the Washington football team will stay in California.

The stadium is a 12,500-seat structure.

Owens said he will begin holding regular turnouts late this week in Seattle. The entire 47-man team will fly to Long Beach Dec. 18 and turnouts there will begin the following week.

Three Jackson county schools, Medford, St. Mary's and Phoenix, had late football seasons and do not open basketball until next week. Medford meets Marshfield at Coos Bay and vies at North Bend on Dec. 11 and 12, respectively. St. Mary's goes to Riddle on Dec. 8 and Phoenix will host Pleasant Hill on Dec. 11.

Carbo Gets Two-Year Jail Hitch

New York—UPI—Frankie Carbo, alleged underworld boxing boss, yesterday received a two-year jail sentence on charges of conspiracy, under-cover managing of fighters, and under-cover match-making of professional boxers.

Carbo had pleaded guilty on three counts of a 10-count indictment Oct. 30. Sentencing took place today in general sessions court.

Carbo, the slightly built "Mr. Gray" who had figured in several investigations of boxing, could have been sentenced to one year on each count.

Carbo, the main target of the New York district attorney's recent inquiry into professional boxing, had pleaded guilty to charges that he conspired with Herman Wallman to act as an under-cover manager of fighters managed by Wallman; that he acted as a manager without a license in the Jimmy Peters-George Chimento bout Feb. 21, 1958; and that he acted as a matchmaker without a license in the Virgil Atkins-Logart fight March 21, 1958.

Carbo, now 55, once served a 23-month jail term after he was found guilty of first degree manslaughter in the killing of a taxi driver here in 1928.

Race Fixing Charges Heard During Trial

Los Angeles—UPI—The prosecution in the race fixing and horse doping trial of private detective Fred Otash and five others today plans to play recordings of conversations overheard from suspects.

The prosecution, attempting to prove the six defendants tried to fix races at Santa Anita Race Track in Arcadia, Calif., also planned to play recordings of statements given by witnesses to district attorney's investigators.

A shapely television actress implicated Otash in horse race tampering Tuesday with testimony he lost a "large sum" of money Feb. 1 on a race at Caliente Race Track in Mexico which authorities claim was fixed.

Mariellen Smith, 21, told the jury in Superior Court that the night before the race she was present when Otash, 37, gave jockey Kenneth Godkins a watch in the jockey's room at the Shelter Island Inn in San Diego, Calif. She testified that Godkins, described as her boyfriend, unzipped a pillow case and showed her a stack of money topped by a $100 bill after Otash and several others left the room.

At the track the next day, Otash said he was saving his money to be on the 11th race, the pretty blonde testified, and defendant Mike Lane pointed to War Sealy on the program, saying he intended to bet on it in the race.

The prosecution claims War Sealy lost that race due to a last minute change in jockeys, and Otash mentioned he lost heavily, Miss Smith said.

She also mentioned there was some conversation about the jockeys being changed.

Chuck Wells, a 34-year-old horse trainer, testified earlier in the trial Otash told him, "if you tell the truth you'll bury me."

Wells told the jury of see-

Cage Trains Start Season Tonight

San Francisco — (UPI)—Modesty was rampant today among local basketball coaches who head into tonight's lid-lifters with a strictly close to the vest attitude.

Even Van Sweet of College of Pacific, who used to predict great things for his team, has clamored up about this season's prospects.

The only predicting was done by the scribes, who tabbed California as the team which will win the Big Five title and Santa Clara as the West Coast Athletic conference king.

Coach Bob Feerick of the Broncos, anticipating the outcome said before it was announced, "I don't think we're as good as rated, we've got problems."

Pete Newell, boss of the NCAA champion Bears, stuck to going over his lineup rather than doing any crystal gazing. And that just about set the pace for the rest of the coaches.

Feerick, although disclaiming the outcome of the poll, said "if we have a poor season I'll be disappointed. We don't have the beef but we have the experience. Frank Sobrero 17 points per game average last year is playing just as well as ever."

Games along the Coast tonight feature USF at Stanford, UCLA vs. Southern California, Cal Aggies at St. Mary's, Cal State at Santa Clara, Alumni at California, San Francisco State at San Jose State, Washington State at Gonzaga, Idaho at Montana and Portland State at Portland U.

NFL Readies For Money War For 1959 College Grid Crop

Philadelphia — (UPI) — The National Football league, with two prizes sealed for delivery, readied today for the predicted money war with the American Football league for the cream of the 1959 college football crop.

The NFL grabbed two of the top-flight eligibles in its draft meeting Monday when the Los Angeles Rams took Billy Cannon, Louisiana State's brilliant triple threat who was the No. 1 selection of Houston of the new league, and the Chicago Cardinals snapped up George Izo, the Notre Dame quarterback who was the No. 1 choice of the New York Titans of the American loop.

Los Angeles, with Cannon nodding in agreement, said the LSU star had agreed to play with them and the Cardinals announced that Izo was "signed already" seconds after they announced him as their first selection.

Redskins Pick Lucas

In addition to Cannon and Izo, the National league reached out for the first choices of two other American teams. Washington took Richie Lucas, Penn State quarterback, the first selection of Buffalo, and San

Dr. Stanley Gets Ace; Party Set

Dr. Bruce Stanley carded a hole-in-one on Sunday at Rogue Valley Country club and gave linksmen a reason to throw a party.

The ace was on No. 17 hole, a 175-yarder and Stanley used a five iron for the shot. He had a 37 gross for his tour of the back nine. With him for the nine-hole play were Lee Flink who had a 36, Tom McLeod who carded a 38 and Jay Brown who stroked 39.

The party, which will be at 5 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 2, at the club is for the original group, the first 100 who had "hole-in-one insurance." Under the RVCC plan, when a member who has ace insurance cards a hole-in-one, that's reason for the party with 40 per cent going toward a gift for the successful player and 60 per cent going toward the festivity.

There have been three fairly recent holes-in-one at RVCC but Stanley is the first to have had "insurance" at the time of the occasion.

Carl Schmidt was low gross in week end ball sweep stakes at RVCC. He had a 69. Ron Mitchell fired a 75 and Hillier a 79. Dr. Ralph Odell had low net with a 71 and Forrest Casey had a 72. Netting 74s were Dick Travis, E. K. Rieker, Bob Morris and Dick Knight.
