ILLINOIS VALLEY Fashion Revue Slated

By MARGARET M. CROWL

Illinois Valley — The Civic Women's League is sponsoring a "Fashion Revue" at 2 p.m. Dec. 5 at the Ivy theater to usher in the Christmas season in Cave Junction and the Illinois Valley. There will be a charge of 50 cents.

Hazel's Dress shop and Beauty shop will furnish the fall and winter fashions modeled and will display accessories, costume jewelry, lingerie, cosmetics and millinery.

Hazel has chosen her models from members of the Civic Women's League and the Illinois Valley.

Colors this year have taken a new bold trend, yet styles are more feminine. The combination should capture the heart of every woman.

A $5.00 gift certificate will be awarded to the door prize winner. Everyone is invited to attend.

The annual Christmas party and regular meeting of the Illinois Valley HEU will be held at the home of Mrs. Dick Rians Dec. 8 beginning at 10:30 with a pot luck dinner at noon.

The topic for discussion will be "Scotland." The discussion will be directed by Mrs. Vern Johnson and Mrs. Walt Colpitts. Scotland was chosen for discussion because it is the site of the International meeting of the Association of Country Women of the World. The HEU feels that an affiliation with this group gives it a voice in international affairs.

Following pot-luck at noon there will be a gift exchange and Christmas tree.

Every homemaker in the valley is invited.

Marguerite Rebekah Lodge met at the Oddfellows hall in Kerby the evening of Nov. 25.

Rachel Foster, vice Grand presided in the absence of the Noble Grand, Edith Heidenreich.

Election of officers was the main business of the evening and the following were elected for the coming year: Rachel Foster, Noble Grand; Mabel Ramsey, vice Grand; Amy Hussey, secretary, and Francis Rachner, treasurer.

The lodge will have its annual Christmas party Dec. 9. Secret pals will be revealed at this time and there will be a gift exchange. Those who do not have a secret pal will bring a gift for a lady or man.

The meeting was followed by refreshments served in the dining room.

Western Star Social club will hold its regular meeting Monday, Dec. 7 with a potluck luncheon at 12:30 followed by the business meeting at 2 p.m. All members are urged to attend.

Word has been received that William A. (Bud) Hoskins, who has been in the University of Oregon medical hospital in Portland for several weeks, is still seriously ill. Mrs. Hoskins returned to Portland to be with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Case of Newport, Ore., were recent visitors at the E. J. Wilber home where they viewed Mrs. Wilber's bottle collection. Mr. and Mrs. Case are hobbyists also, collecting colored glass. They were very enthusiastic about the many bottles, especially the very old ones with interesting histories.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boyd spent Thanksgiving in Butte Falls where they were dinner guests of the Oliver Boyds.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wilber spent Thanksgiving with the C. G. Wilhelms. The Wilhelms own and operate Frans market on the Caves highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Myers and baby daughter, Dena Helen, from Eureka, were visitors in the Illinois Valley over the Thanksgiving holiday and were guests of Don's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Myers, who have the Central cafe in Cave Junction. Diane, Don's sister, returned to Eureka with them on Friday, returning Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hadley, daughter Cheri and son Dana visited in San Francisco over the Thanksgiving weekend. They visited Dan's sister, Carol Hadley, who is a registered nurse working at the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bowers, owners of the Dairy Queen, entertained their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Bowers and four children, for two days, Thanksgiving and Friday. The young-
