Sullivan-Robinson Rites Held at Catholic Church

Miss Elena Patricia Robinson became the bride of Dwight V. Sullivan in a wedding held November 28 at three o'clock in the afternoon at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Robinson, 1917 East Main street. Mr. Sullivan's parents are Mr. and Mrs. DeLore Sullivan, 781 Beatty street.

The Rev. John Ilg officiated at the double ring rites. Baskets of white stock were on the altar and two baskets of white chrysanthemums were at the railing. Bruno Pellegrini played the wedding music.

The bride wore an ankle length gown of white nylon accented with Chantilly lace trim at the neckline and hem. The fitted bodice had lace sleeves and her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl crown. Her necklace of a small gold heart set with pearls was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of pink baby roses and stephanotis. Mr. Robinson escorted his daughter to the altar.

Miss Delia Robinson was honor attendant for her sister and Mrs. Theron Karrick Jr., Forest Grove, another sister, and Mrs. Hubert Hewitt, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore Persian rose taffeta frocks in

Holiday Rites Planned by Pair

Trail - Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan, route 1, Trail, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jean Ann, to Merle George Governor, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Governor, Prospect.

Their wedding is set for Saturday, December 26.

Miss Morgan is a graduate of Eagle Point high school and is employed by Jackson Elementary school in Medford.

Mr. Governor attended Prospect school and served four years in the Air Force. He is employed by the Fred Christian Logging company.

Anniversary Observed

The 40th anniversary of institution was celebrated by Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at a meeting held November 28 at Girls Community club. The regent, Mrs. Virgil Bolton, presided.

Several readings were given by Mrs. Ray K. Bailey, and the women sang. The birthday cake was cut by Mrs. Volton, and Mrs. G. O. Taylor poured.

Guests were Mrs. H. C. Cole, member of a chapter in Sacramento, Calif.; Mrs. Bruce Hamilton, Forest Grove, and Mrs. Marie Bailey, Reedsport. Hostess was Mrs. E. L. Miller and the serving committee was Mrs. Judd Greenman, Mrs. William W. P. Holt and Mrs. O. E. G. Meyers.

Annual Luncheon Set For Women

Scottish Rite Women's club will hold the annual Christmas party at the Medford hotel Monday, December 14, at 12 noon.

Reservations should be made prior to Wednesday, December 10, by calling Mrs. R. A. Witham, Spring 2-5684 or Mrs. L. D. Edwards, Spring 2-6804.

Those attending are to take a gift to exchange. Cards will be played following the luncheon.

at 609 Sherman street, apartment 2. For traveling the bride wore a light blue sheer wool sheath with red coat and hat and gray accessories. The bride attended Medford High school and is employed at DeNa Beauty Salon. Mr. Sullivan attended Talent High school and is employed by his father, a painting contractor.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. Nagel and two children from North Hollywood, Calif., brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

When Elena Robinson became the bride of Dwight Sullivan November 28, her two sisters and the bridegroom's sister were attendants. Shown as they posed on the steps of the Parish hall, St. Mark's Episcopal church with the bride are (left to right) Miss Delia Robinson, Mrs. Theron Karrick Jr., the former Lisa Robinson, and Mrs. Hubert Hewitt, Mr. Sullivan's sister. The wedding was held at Sacred Heart Catholic church.—(Brainerd photo).

Holiday Ball Invitations Issued; Other Events Set

Largest and most lavish of the holiday season parties in Medford is the traditional Christmas charity ball of Medford Junior Service league. Invitations were received by valley residents last week, and reservations are now being accepted. The ball will be held Friday, December 11, in the Starlight room of Rogue Valley Country club.

As in previous years, women guests will wear decorative headdresses, with prizes to be given for the winning creations.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served from 8 to 9 p.m. and dinner will be served beginning at 9 p.m. There will be dancing to the music of a four-piece orchestra, Trick and his Tunesmiths of Tallyho, throughout the evening.

Proceeds from the ball will go for the support of the league's kindergarten for children with hearing and speech problems. This is the league's special interest; it was founded by the Junior Service League, it is supported by league profits from various social affairs, and it is manned by league members, who assist the professional teacher who is hired by them.

Also on the calendar for December are several cocktail parties, dinners and events planned by groups.

Dr. and Mrs. Ray L. Casterline have invited a group of friends to their home, 45 South Modoc avenue, for a

St. Elizabeth Guild To Meet on Friday

Nomination and election of officers will be held Friday, December 11, at a meeting of St. Elizabeth's Guild at the parish house of St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Holy communion will be celebrated in the church at 11 a.m. followed by a 12 noon luncheon and business session.

Each member and guest is to take a gift for exchange. All women of the church are invited to attend.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Ray K. Baker, Mrs. W. E. Caulier, Mrs. Eric O. Rabathan and Mrs. Howard C. Goldsmith.

Musical Program Planned for Club

Medford Junior Women's club will meet Wednesday, December 9, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John L. Holmes, 303 Willamette avenue. Mrs. Eugene Ingram, program chairman, has planned a musical program in keeping with the approaching holiday season.

the Tally-Ho Dining Inn, starting at 7 p.m. with cocktails. The dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. followed by dancing.

Medical Assistants, their husbands and friends are invited to the semi-formal event.

Shower Given For Bride-Elect

Miss Mary Pat Lucy, Jackson county home extension agent for home economics, was honored November 30 by a kitchen shower at a meeting of the Jackson County Extension Alumni committee.

The engagement of Miss Lucy to Ralph Holzappel, son of Mrs. Fred Holzappel, Shedd, Ore., was announced last month by her mother, Mrs. C. L. Carter, Oceanside, Calif.

The surprise shower was held at the home of Mrs. Fred Middlebush, Hilton road. Sixteen persons attended. Mrs. Alice Ricks brought a small decorated Christmas tree which was used as a centerpiece for the luncheon table.

Meeting Announced For Rebekah Lodge Olive Rebekah lodge will meet Monday, December 7, at 8 p.m. at Odd Fellows hall, 221 West Sixth street.

Plans for the Christmas party and gift exchange will be discussed.

Wedding Date Set By Couple

The wedding of Mrs. Gwendolyn Ludwig and George A. Zuspenn has been set for January 31 at the home of the bride-elect, 27 Chestnut street.

Mrs. Ludwig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ortega, Vancouver, Wash., is teacher-manager at Robertson School of Business. Mr. Zuspenn, son of Mrs. Iris Bowman, formerly of Medford and now of Long Beach, Calif., is a salesman-announcer at Radio station KGRL in Bend.

Annual Party Slated by Group

The annual Christmas party for Women of Rotary will be held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Dippel, 1 Eastwood drive, December 9.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 o'clock, and an exchange of Christmas gifts will be followed by bridge or canasta.

All Women of Rotary are invited, and those who have not been contacted may call Mrs. Harvey Field, Normandy 4-2204, for reservations.
