

Mr. and Mrs. Richard James Pittman (at right) who were married November 27 in First Presbyterian church, shared their wedding reception with the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Christensen, whose wedding took place October 13 in Salt Lake City. Mrs. Pittman is the former Nancy Jennings, and Mrs. Christensen is Melissa Jennings. Both are daughters of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Jennings, Saginaw drive, Medford. The Pittmans will live in Daly City, Calif., and the Christensens are making their home in Provo, Utah. (Landis photo)

Pittman-Jennings Wedding Held

An event of Friday, November 27, was the wedding of Miss Nancy Jennings to Richard James Pittman. The double-ring ceremony was held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at First Presbyterian church with Dr. D. Kirkland West officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Jennings, 218 Saginaw drive, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Sterling Peterson, Eugene, and Chester A. Pittman, Portland.

Baskets of bronze and gold colored chrysanthemums decorated the church. The candelabra held white tapers, and bronze chrysanthemums with white bows marked the pew ends.

The bride wore a gown of embroidered nylon designed with full-length skirt and her elbow-length veil was held by a cap embroidered in pearls. She carried a cascade of pale green spider chrysanthemums with ivy. Dr. Jennings escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. John E. Bullock, Milwaukie, Ore., was honor attendant for her sister and the bridesmaids were Mrs. G. Scott Jennings, Medford, the bride's sister-in-law, and Mrs. James L. Christensen, Provo, Utah, her sister. Mrs. Christensen, the former Melissa Jennings, and Mr. Christensen were married October 13 in Salt Lake City and the reception which followed her sister's wedding honored both couples.

All the attendants wore street-length frocks of taffeta with full skirts, bracelet-length sleeves and velvet cummerbunds. Mrs. Bullock's gown was of olive green with darker green cummerbund and matching accessories. Mrs. Jennings wore an orange colored frock with cummerbund and accessories of toast brown and Mrs. Christensen's frock was of gold colored taffeta worn with cummerbund, hat and shoes of toast brown. They carried cascades of white chrysanthemums with ivy.

For the reception, Mrs. Christensen changed to a wedding gown of white lined made with billowing ballerina-length skirt, close-fitting bodice and puffed sleeves. Her short veil was held by a circlet of wax orange blossoms. The veil had first been worn by Mrs. Allen Keaton, Portland, at her wedding. Mrs. Keaton is the former Suzanne Reichstein of Medford.

Mr. Patterson served as best man for his step-son, and ushers were William Beck, Ashland, and Robert Bayly, Eugene.

Mrs. David Morgan, Shady Cove, was soloist for the ceremony and Mrs. Eva Marsh was at the organ.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Two wedding cakes were served. Cutting and serving the cake for Mr. Pittman and his bride were Mrs. William Stoughton, Ashland, and Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Medford.

Orange blossoms on the cake were made with orange blossom flavoring brought from France by the bridegroom's mother and step-father.

Miss Sue DeVoe, Miss Dorothy Rhymes and Mrs. W. H. Reichstein cut and served the Christensen's wedding cake.

Mrs. Richard Padgham served coffee and Miss Donna Witter, the punch. Mrs. Gaynor Huck (Judy Hall) took charge of the guest book.

Mr. Pittman and his bride traveled to San Francisco for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a royal blue suit with black fur and hat and muff. A graduate of Medford High school and Southern Oregon college, the bride is a teacher for the Jefferson School district in Daly City, Calif. Mr. Pittman attended the University of Oregon, Southern Oregon college and the American Institute of Foreign Trade, Phoenix, Ariz. He is employed in the sales division of the Pacific Coast division of the Bethlehem Steel company, in San Francisco.
