

Ceremony Planned

Mrs. Arnold Bohnert will be installed president of the Women's Association of First Presbyterian church at their annual Christmas meeting Tuesday, December 8, at the church.

Other officers to be installed will be Mrs. Sam B. Harbison, first vice president; Mrs. George Flanagan, second vice president; Mrs. Walter F. Roemer, secretary, and Mrs. Wallace Brill, treasurer.

Candlelight circle will be in charge of the luncheon which will be served at 12:30 p.m. in the Fellowship hall. The meeting has been scheduled earlier in the month so it will not conflict with holiday activities later.

Mrs. George D. Osler and Mrs. D. Kirkland West are in charge of the program which will include the installation service for the association officers and circle chairmen. Dr. West will assist with the service.

The Rev. G. Robert Jacks, assistant minister, will sing.

First Card

Two Englishmen, Sir Henry Cole and J. C. Horsley, are credited with creating the first Christmas card, in 1843.

Miss Donna LaFever Wed To Ronald George Chandler

Central Point — The wedding of Miss Donna Mae Gladys LaFever and Ronald George Chandler was held Saturday, November 28, in the First Presbyterian church of Central Point.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry LaFever, 785 Head road, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George C. Chandler, 2780 Elliott avenue, Medford.

The Rev. Bruce Weber officiated at the double-ring ceremony which was read at 4 o'clock. Baskets of blue and white chrysanthemums and white candelabra holding tapers decorated the church. Mrs. Gordon Mekvold, pianist, played traditional wedding music.

The bride wore a white nylon and lace gown. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a band of white orange blossoms and she carried white roses on a white Bible. Mr. LaFever gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Marlene Chandler, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid. She wore a dress of blue chiffon over taffeta and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Delores LaFever, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Her frock was of pink chiffon over taffeta and her nosegay was of blue and white carnations.

Linden Dale Kincaid served as best man. Seating guests were David LaFever, brother of the bride, and Daryl Christianson, cousin of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding and the following reception, Mrs. LaFever wore a grey-blue tweed suit-dress. Mrs. Chandler wore a medium blue wool knit suit-dress. Their corsages were of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. John Robison served the wedding cake at the reception, which was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Larry LaFever, sister-in-law of the bride, poured punch and Mrs. Marvin Spradling poured coffee. Mrs. Dewey Tipton was in charge of the guest book, which was a gift to the bride from the bridegroom.

The newlyweds traveled to northern California on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a pale blue corduroy suit-dress. It was trimmed with gray agate buttons, given to her by her paternal grandfather.

The young couple reside in Central Point, where the bride is a senior at Crater high school. The bridegroom attended Crater high school and is employed by Timber Products.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thuma and Mrs. D. M. McDonald, all of Longview, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. John Turnbull and son, Daryl, O'Brien, Ore.; Mrs. Henry Winston, Eugene; and Mrs. Charles Puckett, Lincoln, Ore.

Student Named Director of Play

Portland — James Hays of Central Point has been named director of Thornton Wilder's "Happy Journey from Trenton to Camden," one of three one-act plays being presented in the first public performance by the Reed college Theater Workshop.

The Theater Workshop is a newly-organized group of students. They will produce, direct, and act in dramatic presentations by the Portland college. Young Hays, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hays, Sr., 263 North Fifth street, Central Point, graduated from Crater High School last June.

Reese Creek Women Study Bow Making

Mrs. Donald Clark and Mrs. Kenneth W. Shaw showed how to make ribbon bows for packages and other decorations at the recent meeting of the Reese Creek Home Extension unit.

The women also explained what kind of ribbon to buy for bow-making as all types are not suitable. Also demonstrated was the using of candy as flowers for package decoration.

Christmas exchange was of favorite cookie, candy and Swedish sweet bread recipes. The unit will make a Christmas food basket for some family in the area.
