New York — A quick and hearty soup needs just four ingredients. Blend 3/4 cups of milk with 1 (1 1/2-ounce) package of dehydrated cream of mushroom soup. Add 1 chicken bouillon cube and 1 (10-oz.) pkg. of frozen Brussels sprouts. Cover and cook over low heat, stirring occasionally, until sprouts are tender. Makes about 1 quart.

Central Point—Miss Patricia Lucille Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Allen, 6079 Table Rock road, became the bride of Warren Charles Gossman, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gossman, Los Angeles, in a ceremony held November 18 at First Christian church.

The Rev. William C. Piper officiated at the double ring rites which were held on the 18th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents. More than 125 relatives and friends attended. Mrs. H. M. Her fingertip length veil was held by a lace cap and she carried a nosegay bouquet of white and peppermint colored carnations. Mr. Allen gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Michael B. Hayes served as matron of honor. She wore a shrimp colored nylon lace frock with silver accessories and carried a nosegay bouquet of white carnations. Miss Janice Linker was bridesmaid. Her frock was pink embroidered nylon organza over taffeta and she carried a nosegay bouquet of pink carnations. Little Lanie Asher was flower girl.
