

Kiwanian Dames Cancel Session

Kiwanian Dames announce that the regular luncheon and business meeting will not be held during the month of December. Instead members will be guests of their husbands at the Kiwanis club luncheon December 9 at Rogue Valley Country club.

Mrs. John R. Dellenback, chairman of the Kiwanian Dames rummage sale and her committee, Mrs. Raymond S. Wise, Mrs. Wayne Struble, Mrs. John L. Raapke and Mrs. Arthur M. Savard, state that plans for the sale are completed. It will be held Friday, December 11, at the Fehl building from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Proceeds are to be used to purchase a high speed drill for the Dental clinic sponsored by the Kiwanis club. It has been pointed out that more children can be served by the dental clinic through use of a high speed dental drill.

Christmas Baskets

Medford unit of the American Legion auxiliary will meet Tuesday, December 8, at 8 p.m. at the Legion home, 531 Edwards street.

Members are requested to bring items of food to be used for the Christmas baskets. This is a yearly project under the leadership of Mrs. H. C. Goldsmith and Mrs. Merle Jarmin.

Medford Couple Honored On Fiftieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Rasmussen, Fern Valley road, were honored at a reception and family reunion November 27 in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary. The event was held at First Assembly of God church annex between 6:30 and 9 o'clock in the evening, and about 100 attended.

A program of music was presented, the numbers having been arranged by Wallace Rasmussen, a son of the couple. Mrs. Agnes Thornton, a niece, and Mrs. Delbert Johnson, a daughter, were pianists. A quartet composed of James Nilsen, Gerald Leslie, Donald Jacobs and Donald Rasmussen, a grandson, sang.

A duet was presented by Mrs. Johnson and George Southwick, a son-in-law, and a granddaughter, Nanette

Johnson, played a saxophone solo. Also heard in solos were Mr. Southwick and Edwin Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Leslie presented a duet. J. M. Harrel Jr., a son-in-law, read a poem which had been written for the occasion by the Rev. James E. Rasmussen, a brother of William Rasmussen.

Vernon V. Rasmussen, eldest son of the couple, visited in Norway and Denmark for three months last summer and took pictures in the birthplaces of both parents. These and other colored slides of the trip were shown during the evening.

The centerpiece for the serving table was of white poinsettias arranged with a gold colored Bible and golden candles. The anniversary cake was decorated in gold and white. Mrs. Donald Rasmussen poured punch. Mrs. Gerald Leslie cut the cake and Miss Hazel Hanson served coffee. Mrs. Herman Rasmussen was at the guest book, and Mrs. James Rasmussen presided at the gift table.

For the event Mrs. Rasmussen wore a gown of blue lace and crepe with an orchid corsage. The honored couple was married in Egeland, N.D., and Mrs. Lena Rasmussen, Medford, a sister-in-law in whose home the wedding took place, was present for the anniversary party.

Also here for the event were Mrs. Annie Rasmussen, a sister-in-law, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rasmussen, nephew, Wenatchee, Wash.

The Rasmussen's eight children, 20 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren were all present.

Their sons and daughters, with their wives and husbands, are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon V. Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace W. Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Evan E. Rasmussen, all Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert E. Johnson, Talent; Mr. and Mrs. Herman H. Rasmussen, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. James J. Rasmussen, Sepulveda, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. George Southwick, Granada Hills, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harrel Jr., Reseda, Calif.

A family reunion was held Thanksgiving day at Ping's Gardens, with 41 present.

The honored couple came to Medford in 1945 from Los Angeles and have lived since at Route 3, Box 222, Fern Valley road. Mr. Rasmussen has worked as an electrician and carpenter. Mrs. Rasmussen is a native of Tonsberg, Norway, and her husband was born at Ringe, Denmark.

Buffet Dinner And Installation Set For Nurses

Officers for the coming year will be installed by Oregon Nurses association, District 4, following a buffet dinner at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, December 9, at Girls Community club.

A short business session is scheduled. Members are to bring articles for a Christmas basket. All registered nurses are invited.

Ceremony At Church Weds Couple

Miss Helen M. DeCarlow became the bride of Camille S. Lloyd in a double ring ceremony held recently at First Methodist church. Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony attended by 40 relatives and friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. DeCarlow, 14 Hawthorne avenue. Mr. Lloyd's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. Lloyd, Phoenix. Yellow and rust colored chrysanthemums decorated the church for the November 12 rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an afternoon length sheath dress of taffeta brocade styled on princess lines with matching jacket. Her white hat held a short face veil and she carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds encircling a white orchid.

Mrs. Charles DeCarlow attended her sister-in-law. She wore a yellow sheath frock with yellow accessories and carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Henry Stevens lighted the candles. She wore a yellow suit.

Jack Gardner served as best man. Seating the guests were Raymond DeCarlow, brother of the bride, and Ivan Goble, Phoenix.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Charles DeCarlow home. Mrs. Stevens and Miss Sharon Larimer cut and served the wedding cake and Miss Patty Gossman, cousin of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Kenneth Boshears presided at the punch bowl and poured the coffee. Mrs. Raymond DeCarlow, sister-in-law of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The newlywed couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a green tulle suit with white hat and black accessories. She also wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Medford High school and is employed in the Credit department at Sears, Roebuck and company. Mr. Lloyd attended Phoenix High school and is a seaman in the U. S. Navy. Mrs. DeCarlow is making her home in Medford until her husband is permanently assigned to a duty station.

Guild to Hold Annual Election

Election of officers will be held at a meeting of Westminster Guild of First Presbyterian church Monday, December 7, at the home of Mrs. Frank Hussong, 56 South Barneburg road.

A Christmas program is planned. Members are asked to bring some article of staple groceries or canned food for the Christmas basket, and Christmas wrappings to cover the package. During the evening the packages will be wrapped.

The program and devotions will be in charge of Mrs. George Tucker and Mrs. R. A. Brewer.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Hussong, Miss Adabee Seiler and Miss Elizabeth Rice.
