Top achievement award winners of the 38th national 4-H Club Congress are Barbara Totten, 17, Riverside, Calif., and Larry Watson, 18, Lawton, Okla., shown here after their selection. Each holds a chest of silverware awarded by President of the United States. Watson is a freshman at Oklahoma State university and Miss Totten is a freshman at the University of California at Davis. Both will visit the White House at a later date as part of the top honors. (UPI Telephoto)

Temple Plans Ceremonial; To Provide Hospital Gifts

Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, will hold a ceremonial Saturday, December 12, at 1 p.m. in Ashland. Because of the smoke damage to the Masonic temple during a recent fire, the meeting will be conducted in the Ashland Elks club.

Following the ceremonial a tea will be held. Roseburg Nile club, assisted by Mrs. Walter H. Hoffbuhr, Mrs. H. R. Morris and Mrs. M. P. Dunn, is in charge of arrangements.

A banquet has been scheduled for member and escorts at 7 o'clock at the Rogue Valley Country Club in Medford. Reservations should be sent to Mrs. Ivor Erwin, Erwin Insurance Agency, P.O. Box 5, Ashland, before December 9.

This is the annual Christmas party meeting of the temple. It is the time when each member is given an opportunity to contribute directly to the children at the Shrine hospital and they do so by bringing a gift to the meet-

Students In Program

Portland—Six Medford students will take part in the Christmas concert presented by Lewis and Clark college. The performances, highlighting seven campus music organizations, will be given at 3:30 and 7:30 p.m., December 13, in the gymnasium without charge.

Participants include Jim Fontaine, 516 Belmont street and John Flanagan, North Pacific highway, men's glee; Miss Sandra Clark, 2118 Dellwood avenue, chapel choir; Richard Arnold, 1011 Reddy avenue, college choir and symphonic band; Miss Janet Kilbourn, Central Point, symphonic band, and Miss Carol Hussong, 56 South Barneburg road, orchestra.

Voegtly, 2021 Westlund drive. They will shop for articles so that all the children in the hospital will have a happy Christmas, it is stated.

Like Sons, Like Mother
 White Pigeon, Mich. (UPI)—When the school bus stops to pick up the three Buehler boys—Steven, 11, Willie, 7, and Jimmie, 6—their mother, Mrs. Josephine Buehler, 33, climbs aboard with them. The youngsters get off at the grade school, but Mrs. Buehler, who dropped out of classes in the ninth grade 18 years ago, keeps on riding until she reaches the White Pigeon High school, where she is resuming her education as the oldest sophomore in her class.

New York—(UPI)—Russia apparently has decided that installment credit is a good way after all to raise a country's standard of living. Despite oft-repeated criticism of credit buying in the U.S., the Soviet Union has announced that the Russian consumer can now buy certain major items—motorcycles, sewing machines, cameras—without first saving the entire amount of rubles for the purchase.
