Winners
Announced

Mrs. William Patton was awarded the grand prize in the headdress competition held as a part of the annual Christmas Charity Ball of Medford Junior Service league. The ball took place Friday night at Rogue Valley Country club with Mrs. Floyd Hart Jr., as chairman.

Mrs. Patton, gowned in black, wore a brass wire holder filled with fresh pink carnations and ferns on her head. First place winner for league members was Mrs. William Cowning. Her headdress was a farm scene edged with cranberries and showing a farmer figurine - with pistol aimed at head. A small sign read "Cranberry Merchant."

Runners-up were Mrs. James Richeson wearing a tall headdress of Christmas foil and glitter and Mrs. R. Ren Taylor whose headdress was entitled "Pennies from Heaven." It was a pink angel hair halo which matched her pink gown; golden pennies dangled from the halo.

Another winner was Mrs. Loren Sawyer who wore a doll on her head. The doll's gown of blue was similar to that worn by Mrs. Sawyer, and she had made both gowns.

Last of the winners was Mrs. Roger Sterton who wore a miniature chimney out of which emerged a little Santa Claus.
