

Yule Trimmings Brighten Homes

New York—(UPI)—Bright new decorations can lend a touch of beauty to a home at Christmas time.

The decorations—splashed with color, sequins, and gold—reflect a wide assortment of religious and holiday themes.

Among the most unusual and useful is a gleaming, gold-and-white train of antique design. The train, which measures 45 inches long and has four cars, serves as a handy home display for Christmas cards.

Jolly old St. Nick is featured in several holiday decorations, including a weatherproofed version with spun-glass beard. Another Santa pulls a sled and is designed as a centerpiece for table or mantel.

A gold foil angel with mother-of-pearl wings and real feathers and a gold reindeer are new.

Also available are an embossed mobile featuring the letters N-O-E-L, bells, an eight-point star, dove and similar decorations, and a traditional mobile with kiddie-type Santa Claus, colorful panda, rocking horse, locomotive, Christmas tree, drum and jumping jack.

Miss Beverly D. Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart M. Good, 1910 Sunset drive, Medford, will be honored during activities leading to the commissioning of class 59-D members on December 18 at the Air Force Officer Candidate School, Lackland Air Force base, Texas. Miss Cameron is one of the six WAF members of the class and was a squad leader. She was recently selected as first attendant to the queen of the class. The queen and her two attendants will serve as honorary reviewing officers at a school parade, preside at a reception, and reign at the class graduation ball. Miss Cameron joined the Air Force last June and attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college.

Historic Lodge Installs

Jacksonville—The 104th election and installation of officers in the history of Warren lodge, AF&AM, was held Wednesday, Dec. 9, in the Odd Fellows hall.

First officers of the lodge were elected before Oregon became a state, and when Jacksonville was the largest community in southern Oregon.

Elected to serve during the coming year were Virgil Wilkes, worthy master; Gall Buffington, senior warden; George Redhead, junior warden; Donald Lue, treasurer; Roger Westerfield, secretary; Donald Shores, senior deacon; Clarence Williams, junior deacon; Donald Hanning, senior steward; Roy Picard, junior steward; Cyril Farnsworth, tyler; William Barker, chaplain; Fred M. Gardner, Jr., marshal; and J. E. Crawford, publicity.

Edwin Taylor was installing master; John Pond, installing marshal; and Glenn Smith, installing chaplain. All are past masters.

Child to Receive Gift From Group

"A Gift for Danny" was featured at the Christmas party of the Medford Lions auxiliary held at the home of Mrs. Lee Mellish, Wednesday, December 9. Each member contributed toward a gift for the club's adopted blind child, Danny Haktila.

Guest of the evening, Mrs. D. M. Dwyer, District E area director, presented the club with several storybook dolls to be used in the annual toy and doll project of the group.

A gift exchange and seasonal games completed the evening. Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Harvey Enderby and Mrs. Edward Ashton.

Fifty Plus Clubs To Hold Party

Medford and Camp White Fifty Plus clubs will hold their annual Christmas party Wednesday for members at Camp White in the Bridge club building 246, Wednesday, December 16, at 1 p.m.

The V.A. bus will pick up members at St. Mark's guild hall at 12:20 p.m. and at the Activity center, Jackson street, at 12:30 p.m. Each woman is to take a woman's gift to exchange with another woman and men are to take a gift to exchange with another man.

Medford Fifty Plus club will furnish pies and their orchestra will open the program. The Camp White orchestra will play for dancing.

Santa's wife will accompany him to assist with the distribution of gifts.

Roxy Ann Court To Hold Dinner

Roxy Ann court, Order of Amaranth, will have a dinner for all members of the court Thursday evening, December 17, preceding the regular meeting.

Reames Social club will be in charge. Reservations must be made by December 15 by calling Mrs. Frank Little or Mrs. Frank Salyers.

Bethel 55, International Order of Job's Daughters, will exemplify the closing ceremony at the meeting and present a program for the following party.

Members will follow the tradition of the court by taking a gift for a child of elementary school age, to be marked for boy or girl and age. Mrs. L. G. Frink will be in charge of distribution of the gifts to the needy.

91-Year-Old Player Honored By Bridge Club

A birthday party honoring Mrs. Josephine F. Clark was held in conjunction with last Wednesday's duplicate game of Riverside Bridge club.

Mrs. Clark, an astute bridge player, is 91 years old.

High scores for north-south players went to Mrs. George B. Dean and Mrs. Walter Winner, first; Mrs. Berg Marten and Roy Pruitt, second; Mrs. Paul Hatton, Mrs. Yvonne Daien, Mrs. Richard Millstone and Mrs. Sam Van Dyke, tied for third and fourth.

East-west winners were Mrs. R. T. Jones and Mrs. J. S. Winslow, first; William Isaacs and William Siles, second; and Mrs. John Dougherty and Mrs. Paul McDuffee, third.

Mistletoe Club To Hold Election

Officers for the coming year will be elected at the Christmas party of Mistletoe club members Tuesday, December 15, at Girls Community club. The all-day meeting will begin at 10 a.m.

A 12:30 o'clock dinner will be served. Gifts will be exchanged and "secret pals" will be revealed.

A committee will provide meat and potatoes and members are to bring vegetables, salad or dessert.

On the committee are the Mesdames Carl Pearson, Keith Pace, F. T. Hussion, Irvin Patten, Alvin Lehman, George Culy and Anna McCormack.
