Complaint Filed Against Trucker
A complaint was recently filed in district court by city police against the owner of the log truck whose load spilled onto four other vehicles at South Central ave. between Boyd and Riverside aves., last Monday.
City police charged Burton R. Sims, owner of the truck, with permitting the vehicle to be unlawfully operated. Capt. Clyde Fichtner, Medford police department, said the complaint was filed as the result of an investigation conducted by city police and the Oregon State Industrial Accident commission.
The investigation disclosed, he said, nine defects on the truck and trailer in violation of the Motor Vehicle Code and the Industrial Accident Code. They included defective seat, defective horn, illegal hitch, defects in the binder chains, bad tires, and no safety chains.

Gold Hill Man Named Chairman of Group
Albert L. Straus, Gold Hill, was elected chairman of the Jackson County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee at a county convention here last week.
Other officers elected include Ray Vogel, Central Point, vice chairman; Lance Offenbacher, Jacksonville, regular member; George H. Jess Jr., Eagle Point, first alternate; and Vernon Gebhardt, Central Point, second alternate.

Internal Revenue Film Available for Clubs
A half-hour film showing the operation of the world's largest tax collecting organization is available for showing by civic groups, schools and television stations. A. G. Erickson, district director of the internal revenue service, Portland, has announced.
Requests for the film should be made to T. A. Questad at post office box 3341, Portland, Ore.
