EAGLE POINT Group Sells Decorations

By DOTTIE HARBISON
 Eagle Point - Christmas trees (Shasta or silver tip), wreaths, center pieces, door swags, plastic marble bags, mistletoe, laurel berries, and other Christmas decorations are now being sold on the Crater Lake highway in front of the Eagle Point Refrigeration shop. The booth will be opened afternoons, all day Saturday, and at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday. All proceeds will be donated to the Boy Scouting program of Pack and Troop 48, Eagle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pulley prepared a dinner in honor of the eight grade class last Thursday at their home. They were assisted in serving by Mrs. and Mrs. Victor Hay, Mrs. Ray Chamberlain furnished the ingredients for banana splits and the youngsters made their own desserts. Nineteen members were present.

The new Community Scout building has at last had the foundation forms built and is ready for the pouring of cement as soon as weather permits its setting, according to chairman, Harry Hanscom. Once started, the construction should progress rapidly.

The Antelope Social club will meet at the home of Mrs. Edwin Hays on Bigham rd., Dec. 16, starting with a dinner at noon. This is the annual Christmas dinner and party and all husbands are invited. Gifts will be exchanged and a drawing for new Pollyannas will take place. Mrs. Marie Hayes, Mrs. Robert Bitterling, Mrs. Fred Canterbury and Mrs. Elbert Bigham are co-hostesses for the dinner.

New officers elected at the last meeting were Mrs. Bill Bigham, president; Mrs. Willford Davies, vice president; Mrs. Fred Canterbury, secretary; Mrs. Donald Anderson, treasurer, and Mrs. Robert Bitterling, Rosemary chairman.

The eighth grade class of the Eagle Point Community Bible church was the winner class-wise, in its church in the contest recently held among the community churches to gain the most new members. Class members were honored at a taffy pull given by their teacher, Mrs. Ray Chamberlain, at her home on Brownboro rd. Dec. 9. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ayres assisted with the taffy pull and the youngsters played several games while waiting for the taffy. Eighth graders attending

Applications for auto mechanics and electronics courses are being taken at the adult education office at Medford High school. Lindsay M. Vinsel, director of adult education in the Medford school system, has announced. The courses will be held over a two-year period and will meet from 3:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. daily. The auto mechanics course is designed to prepare persons for employment in the automotive industry. The electronics course is designed to prepare persons as highly trained technicians in the electronics industry, Vinsel said. Applications may be made at the high school between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. The spring term will start Feb. 15. Additional information may be obtained by telephoning SPing 3-5341.
